Welcome to FEAST 1997

Adelaide's inaugural

Lesbian and Gay Cultural Festival

- three weeks of brilliant arts, entertainment and events produced by our community.

There's something for everyone, whatever your taste - theatre, cabaret, visual arts, literary events, film, forums, music, dance, special events, community events, the Masquerade Ball and more.

We are proud to present a Festival that reflects all that is wonderful about Adelaide, its arts and culture, fine food and wine, ease of access to the joys of the city, seaside and countryside, its openness, gorgeous climate, tourist delights and style!

FEAST is sumptuous entertainment, which delights. So sample, sip, graze, devour, savour and relish this feast which celebrates and takes pride in the diversity of lesbian, gay and queer culture in Adelaide.

Premier of South Australia,
 Hon. John Olsen FNIA MP.

SA is proud of its reputation as the Festival State, and of the successes of our many community-based festivals.

In Adelaide, we have a city which values its lifestyle, its quality of life and its tolerance.

We take pride in our parklands, our museums, our restaurants, our arts and our convenient transport.

I am sure our city will live up to its marketing slogan of Sensational Adelaide, and wish all participants a successful Festival.

Leader of the Opposition,
 Mike Rann MP

Since the Premiership of Don Dunstan, South Australia has been the Festival State, the recognised arts capital of Australia. We host the world class Adelaide Festival of Arts and Barossa Music Festival plus many new festivals, an innovative film industry and leading national theatre and dance companies.

Adelaide is a city that prides itself on its many cultural attractions and is the gateway to a wealth of holiday opportunities in regions as diverse as the Barossa Valley and the Flinders Ranges. We are a proudly multi-cultural State and believe strongly that different cultures have enriched and strengthened our State.

With our many fine restaurants and superb local wines FEAST is an aptly named Festival.

I hope it is a great success and is enjoyed by all

Lord Mayor of Adelaide
 Dr Jane Lomax-Smith

South Australia has a history of firsts in progressive legislative reforms - most notably in women's rights. As the first State in Australia to legislate to legalise homosexuality, we have a place in the nation's history book, for protecting a fundamental human right - freedom of choice.

As Lord Mayor of Adelaide, I am pleased to join other community leaders in doing what I can to ensure that our society remains inclusive, tolerant of difference and opposed to discrimination. I wish you well for your inaugural festival - FEAST.

It is a celebration of gay culture through an exciting program of theatre, literature, cabaret, film, visual arts, community, sports and tourism events, jointly presented with Adelaide's leading arts organisations and businesses.

It seems particularly appropriate that you have chosen to program a three week feast of cultural events, given Adelaide's place as a leader in the arts and cultural life of Australia.

Adelaide is the cultural heart of our State - so during FEAST, please enjoy the City's cultural riches, fine wines and restaurants.

Robyn Archer,
 Artistic Director of the Adelaide Festival 1998 and 2000

Our number plates still read 'Festival State', and if that's the way we want to think about ourselves then new initiatives from different sections of the cultural community are to be encouraged and congratulated. It's the broad spectrum that truly defines any place, and in a city with such a heritage of gay and lesbian politics and culture, that band of the spectrum has been hard to see of late. I hope FEAST is a great success, not only as a celebration of a particular culture, but in the wider role of acknowledging the depth and variety of cultural expression in Adelaide.

Messages Of Support

Barbara Allen,
 Director of the Adelaide Fringe Festival.

The first FEAST has all the potential of creating in Adelaide a unique event for gay and lesbian artists and the wider community. It will highlight the great contribution of these artists and celebrate the cultural diversity and excitement of the City. It also links Adelaide to gay and lesbian events in other cities and countries, encouraging cultural exchange and tourism.

I congratulate all those who've put together this absolutely fabulous festival and wish you all the best for 1997.

Peter Edmonds,
 President of the Midsumma Festival,
 Melbourne's gay and lesbian Festival.

It is with great pleasure that we at Midsumma welcome FEAST to the Australian calendar of lesbian and gay cultural festivals. A festival allows our community to express its pride, diversity and depth of cultural experience. Organising any festival is a tough call, even tougher when the community it serves is under constant pressure from the forces of conservatism and homophobia to be silent. The organisers and the lesbian and gay communities of Adelaide are to be congratulated on taking this step. Sing out loud and proud Adelaide, we look forward to visiting you during the Festival.

Bev Lange,
 President of the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras.

On behalf of the Board, Staff and members of the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras, I welcome the inaugural Adelaide Lesbian and Gay Cultural Festival onto the stage of festivals that challenge the status quo and allow our community to foster its skills and creativity.

Lesbians and gay men demand respect, fight for equal rights and celebrate our lives. It is wonderful that gays and lesbians continue to develop events that are 'ours' in all senses of the word.

The Adelaide Lesbian and Gay Cultural Festival will show our visibility, pride and unity along with our wit, flamboyance and diversity in a program of performing and visual arts, films, sport and community events.

Enjoy, be proud and have a wonderful Festival.

Rob O'Brien,
 State Director SA Ansett Australia

As a supporter of the arts and cultural events, Ansett Australia is delighted to be the official airline for interstate travel to Adelaide's inaugural gay and lesbian FEAST.

Ansett Australia congratulates the organisers of FEAST in creating a festival that is bringing people together in South Australia, as we bring people together all over Australia and the Asia Pacific region.

We are very proud to be part of the success of FEAST.

Feast Opening Weekend

A taste of the Banquet to Come over the Next Three Weeks
... Friday 24th Saturday 25th and Sunday 27th October 1997.

Opening Party

Start with the Opening Party at the Lion Bar and Courtyard, a major focus for festival events.

Be there for the speeches (and they'll be good!), surprises, entertainment and so much more:

- mingle with performers, sponsors, the media and the diversity of Adelaide's lesbian, gay and queer community and interstate guests
- catch highlights of FEAST Shows and cabaret acts
- Groove to live music, bands, pianists, crooners and dancers
- browse amongst stalls featuring information from all of Adelaide's lesbian, gay and queer community organisations
- snack from a smorgasbord of tasty delights at a variety of stalls with proceeds to community groups

The Lion Bar will be open for liquid refreshment

Buy your tickets for FEAST events direct, and get the latest Festival info, updates and guides. Stock up on all your FEAST merchandise - postcards, T-shirts, teatowels, aprons and more. Celebrate the opening of FEAST '97 and then continue on to party at Adelaide's venues - Beans Bar, the Edinburgh Castle and Mars Bar all just a short stroll away.

PS. Get home early enough to put the finishing touches on your outfit for the Masquerade Ball (or on the other hand you could do that Saturday afternoon...)

Where Lion Bar & Courtyard. Lion Arts Centre
Morphett Street / North Terrace Adelaide
When Friday 24th October, 7- 10pm
Cost This is a free event.

Feast - The Concert

A celebration of sexuality and diversity.

Relax on Sunday with a free, outdoor event at the Amphitheatre, Adelaide Festival Centre.

This event celebrates the diversity of lesbian, gay and queer culture in Adelaide. The concert will feature music, entertainment and dance from some of South Australia's finest talent, plus guest artists from all over Australia.

Come and dance, sing and be entertained. Bring your family and friends, a picnic and a cushion.

Be proud. Show your support for a future that doesn't include homophobia, violence and discrimination.

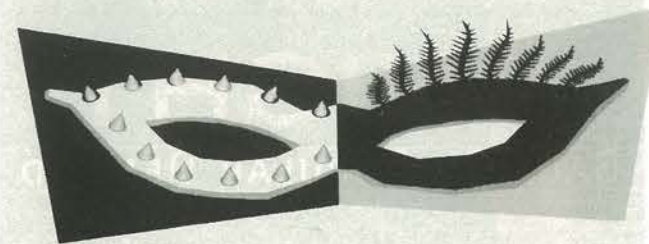

This is one event not to be missed!

MASQUERADE BALL

Don't miss the Grand Opening Event of FEAST '97
the Inaugural Adelaide Lesbian and Gay Cultural Festival.

Be part of history in the making at this ageless event for everyone.

Were you born to dance ? Consider yourself a fashion queen? Then frock up and mask on. FEAST '97 presents the Masquerade Ball featuring the Adelaide Big Band, Adelaide's very own fabulously famous professional 20 piece big band playing Jazz, Swing, Glen Miller, Count Bassie and more and joined by surprise guest artists and floor shows. Dancing to the sound of a live big band is an essential life experience. Set in the wonder and glamour of the Adelaide Function Centre (previously known as The Wonderland Ballroom) this event will to be the most stylish and sophisticated ticket in town.

If you've always fancied yourself as a bit of a Fred Astaire or a Ginger Rogers then this event is for you. Dust off those dancing shoes and start designing those masks and costumes - this event will be glamour glamour! Interpret 'masquerade' any way you like! Dean Hills designer extraordinaire is working on a design concept for the venue that will prove to be truly wonderful.

A Ball is about the joy of dressing up in whatever your version of a ball outfit is - a gown, a tuxedo, leather, lace, latex, silk, sequins, fake fur - whatever fantasy you'd like to create for this night of nights. Join in the faggot fox-trot, dyke dance, lesbian lunge, gay gordon's and macho military two step and start waltzing your way to Bass to book so that you don't end up a wallflower.

There will be a lucky door prize of an interstate airfare donated by Festival sponsors Ansett Australia and prizes for the best mask and costume.

A Hard God

"Full of fast comedy as well as touching, wrenching moments."
Theatre Australia

Written by one of Australia's most respected playwrights, Peter Kenna, A Hard God follows the troubled lives of the Cassidy brothers. Bush-bred with strict religious codes, their trials and tribulations are juxtaposed with Dan's teenage son Joe, whose budding sexuality sits uneasily with his religion.

A landmark of Australian play writing, A Hard God is an acute observation of Australian-Irish catholic family life spanning 20 years.

Internationally acclaimed director Michael Edwards and designer Michael Scott-Mitchell join forces again, following the successful Puccini Spectacular for the Victoria State Opera in 1996, with lighting designs by Nigel Levings and original music by Carl Vine. A Hard God stars John Gaden, Anne Phelan, Geoff Revell, Kate Roberts and Will Snow.

Poor Super Man

"As funny and sad and sexy a night in the theatre as you could hope for"
Sydney Star Observer

Canadian playwright Brad Fraser burst onto the Australian scene with the arthouse movie hit Love and Human Remains. His play, Poor Super Man, is another hilarious and deeply intelligent look at life and longing in an urban world.

Five vivid characters struggle to survive as relationships begin and end ... David loves Matt ... but Matt is married to Violet ... Shannon has been in love many times but he doesn't care anymore ... and Kryla, well she's desperate for anyone.

Poor Super Man - witty, provocative and sexually charged.

The Australasian tour of this production is supported by the British Council Arts Group.

Shopping and Fucking

After riotously successful runs in London's West End and the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Mark Ravenhill's exceptional debut play comes to Adelaide. With scalding wit and sawn-off dialogue, Shopping and Fucking presents the all too naked truth of the new neon Britain. Blackly humorous, it pitches a group of twentysomethings into a world of cheap sex, fast food and designer drugs and asks if love and morality are possible in a society which defines itself by the values of the market.

"... Trainspotting with more sex." The Times, London

"A dangerous powerful piece." The Independent, London

"Barbarous, compassionate, shocking and callously witty..." Sunday Times, London

Warning: Contains strong language and some violent and sexually explicit scenes that may offend.

The Performers

Cabaret

Wobbly and Beyond

Drill Bits and Extra Bimbo present a wobbly acrobatic and aerial adventure of two women and a monster jelly. 'The world is a wobbly place.'

The Couch Dwellers

Two local musicians who take their name from many hours spent talking, joking, playing and performing on their favourite piece of furniture. Come and hear the harmonies of Jodie Anderson and Karen Bryant.

Jason Sweeney

A man and his guitar. Writer, musician, performer and broadcaster! Jason also composes and performs in pop band Sweet William.

Fresh

A Heidi Liscious Production starring Peter, Gayel Warning and Heidi.

Dita's Icons

A Dita D Production.

She's No Lady, but Isn't She Lovely

Starring Rouge, Cookie, Hellin Wheels

Ben Dover and Rebel

in a classy duo act.

Sex Rules

Dominatrix, Mistress Lilith, leaves the seclusion of her dungeon to introduce you to the thrill of B&D and getting it just the way you like it. Learn how to speak your mind, even when overcome with lust / fear / surrender. Enhance your sex life with Mistress Lilith's simple sex rules. Be prepared for challenging audience participation, laughter and naughtiness.

D-strukto Grrrl

D-strukto Grrrl has morphed again and will re-emerge from the dark tranquility of hi/r cyber-temple for a physical interface with those hungry for a fix of D-strukto energy. Enter the damaged fantasy of this outlaw and pleasure activist as s/he (re)presents queer-core ritual, disobedient bliss and binary-busting genderfuck.

cycloheXanone #02 : D-Contamination

CycloheXanone is a (dis)integrative ritual, lead by D-strukto

Grrrl and Glamazon Babe, celebrating the power of D-strukto energies. #02 : D-Contamination resonates in the dark space created when meaning and identity are (D)contaminated, (re)contextualised and consumed. Feel the beat of the death force inside you as they smear industrial filth over a deep and dirty groove in a techno-taiko fusion with images by Venus.

Performance Anxiety - Andrea O'Shea

Andrea is out to show the link between sex and country music - she thinks they're both hilarious! After years of dedicated research, Andrea is ready to get our sex lives up there on stage to be laughed at along with everybody else's.

Slingbacks

Did you ever wonder what happened to the women who used to meet in the Ladies Lounge of your local hotel? They're still there, playing the pokies and having a good time. Join the Slingbacks for a drink, a laugh and a few songs.

Gal Productions

The very luscious Shar Camilleri and talented Kylie Bates teaming up with Adelaide's most renowned Drag King Del Barczak performing 'Two Ladies' from the musical Cabaret. "Be titilated as we perform it for you the way it was meant to be".

Outdancing

Adelaide's own gay and lesbian dance group

Flock to film fare at FEAST.

Celluloid Closet and Celestial Clockwork

- a Festival Double Bill of classic lesbian and gay films

Celluloid Closet

A very funny and insightful film which 'outs' many Hollywood scenes. narrated by Lily Tomlin, and featuring Susan Sarandon, Gore Vidal, Tony Curtis and writer Armistead Maupin among others.

Celestial Clockwork

The standout film from the Cine 7 Festival, Adriana Gil (Libertarias) bails out of her Venezuela wedding and runs off to Paris where she dreams of starring in a film of Rossini's Cinderella. But after she moves in with a female psychologist, African love potions make her the woman's lover and cast an intriguing spell. A riotous carnival of music, colours, witchery, sexuality and magic reminiscent of Almodovar's best work.

Where Nova Cinema, 251 Rundle Street, Adelaide.
When Sun 26th October, 7.30pm
Cost $11.50, $8 conc. for the double
Bookings Tickets at the door.

Love! Valour! Compassion!

A fundraising premiere for the SA Bobby Goldsmith Foundation.

The story of eight gay friends who gather to love, laugh and care for one another over the course of three summer holiday weekends spent at a remote country house. The film is based on the play honoured with more awards and nominations than any other play of the 1995 Broadway season, including the Tony award for Best Play.

Terence McNally's deeply human drama speaks with wisdom and humour about friendship, love and life.

Where Chelsea Cinema, 275 Kensington Road, Kensington Park.
When Wednesday 29th October. Pre-show drinks and nibbles at 8.15pm, film screening at 8.45pm.

Cost $15, $10 conc.
 All proceeds to the Bobby SA Goldsmith Foundation.

Director Joe Mantello
Screenplay Terence McNally
Cast Jason Alexander, Randy Becker, Stephen Bogardus, John Glover.

Late Bloomers

A romantic comedy about what happens when two middle aged women accidentally fall in love ... with each other, and turn their suburban Texas community upside down in the process.

Carly Lumpkin, a school secretary, and Dinah Groshardt, the geometry teacher, become friends through a series of one-on-one basketball games, one of which ends in a kiss. Complications arise at school and at home, especially for Carly who has a husband and kids.

Director Julia Dyer and screenwriter Gretchen Dyer expertly craft a story that is part comedy, part family drama and all love story.

This is an award winning film screened to sell-out audiences at festivals including the Boston International Festival of Women's Cinema and the San Francisco Gay and Lesbian Film Festival, as well as festivals in London, Turin and more.

This is a once only screening in Adelaide, presented in association with Queer Screen Ltd, Sydney. Don't miss it! Bring your basketball!

Where Mercury Cinema, Lion Arts Centre, Morphett Street / North Terrace
When Thurs. 30th October, 8pm

Cell-o-phone

Where the Wild Things Are is proud to present a showcase of the finest short films created by Adelaide's most progressive emerging artists at the Odeon's new "drive-in" cinema. Capturing current lesbian and gay youth culture, this event will identify a myriad of characters, lifestyles, experience and expression through the queer lens. Incorporating mixed mediums with live performances and music to produce a unique cinematic experience, Cell-o-phone will tease, shock, amuse and excite all curious observers of underground culture through the interpretation of Adelaide's gay youth.

The Best of My Queer Career

Australian and New Zealand queer shorts from the Sydney Mardi Gras Film Festival.

A selection of the best lesbian, gay and queer shorts to come out of Australia and New Zealand in the last two years, including winners of the prestigious Stephen Cummins Awards and Audience Awards at the Sydney Mardi Gras Film Festival.

Titles include Cowgirl - an urban fantasy on the bus to Mardi Gras, Siren - haunting memories of a lost mate, Retro Sheilas - 3 Aussie super-sheilas defending the earth, Heartless - 'If I gave my heart to you, I'd have none and you'd have two', Margaret's Star - a female wrestler deals with life's problems in and out of the ring, plus Tragic but True - a farcical love triangle.

110 minutes of brilliant shorts! Many are being screened in Adelaide for the first time. Don't miss your chance to catch what the rest of the world is clamouring to see.

Where Mercury Cinema, Lion Arts Centre, Morphett Street / North Terrace
When Wed 5th November, 9pm
Cost $10, $8 conc.
Bookings Tickets available at the door.

Presented in association with Queer Screen Ltd Sydney.

Watermelon Woman

Cheryl Dunye's The Watermelon Woman tells the story of a black lesbian named Cheryl, and the summer she wrestles with history, sexuality, race and a very pretty white girl (Go Fish's Guin Turner).

Aspiring film maker Cheryl pays the bills by working in a local video shop. She becomes intrigued by an elusive 1930's black film actress popularly known as the Watermelon Woman.

As Cheryl pieces together the woman's history she experiences total upheaval in her personal life. Her relationship with a white woman, her experiences in the black community are all questioned.

"There are very few black, lesbians out there making movies. I'm filling a void, they call me the black, lesbian Spike Lee," says Cheryl Dunye.

A hit at the San Francisco International Gay and Lesbian Film Festival, and in Adelaide for one show only!

Where Mercury Cinema, Lion Arts Centre, Morphett Street / North Terrace
When Wed 12th November, 8pm
Cost $10, $8 conc.
Bookings Tickets at the door.

Meet Barbara Farrelly

Current co-editor of Lesbians on the Loose and lesbian journalist of note.

Barbara Farrelly was the first ever lesbian journalist employed by the Sydney Star Observer (a leading Sydney gay newspaper) thirteen years after it was founded. She subsequently became its first lesbian editor. Barbara was headhunted by Lesbians on the Loose (LOTL), or was it love at first sight? She is currently co-editor with Frances Rand.

LOTL began in Sydney in 1989 as a "What's On?". At the time the gay press would not cover lesbian events. LOTL is now read by 40,000 lesbians monthly.

Don't miss this chance to meet Barbara off the page and in the flesh!

Forums

Feast Forums are vibrant, topical, live, chatty, controversial and hot - you can hear speakers' opinions on topics like cross dressing, labels (queer, transsexual, spansexual, lesbian, gay), Dykes through the Decades, Lemons in the Limelight and more. Have your say!

These events are timetabled so they don't clash with any other events, and are only a gold coin donation on entry. Bargain! Be there.

Undressing Crossdressing : the cultural complexities of men in frocks.

A talk by David Murray, Department of Anthropology, University of Adelaide.

Why is it that straight men around the world often dress up as women in public spectacles? In this audio-visual presentation David Murray compares straight drag performers in two different societies - the Caribbean island of Martinique during Carnival, and Australia - and asks : are they doing it for the same reasons, and if not, then why? And how does this differ from why gay men do drag? Why do blokes down under do drag? What do you think? F/rock up and join the debate.

Where Lion Bar, Lion Arts Centre, Morphett Street / North Terrace.
When Sunday 26th October, 7.30-9.30pm.
Cost Bar opens 7pm.
 Gold coin donation

Presented by the Uranian Society.
 The Uranian Society, now in its ninth season, is Adelaide's cultural forum for gay men. Monthly meetings on gay culture, historical, political and literary topics are held at Darling House. Membership is free.
 Enquiries (08) 8362 3106.

Mass Debate

Talking gay, lesbian, queer, bisexual, transgender, spansexual identity / gender / labels / boundaries / politics.

Queer is a 90's buzz word, what does it mean? Some of us feel alienated from queer, some from lesbian and gay. Why bother with labels?

We fought for our sexuality to be recognised, why not be proudly lesbian and gay? Is queer assimilation? What about bisexuality? If everything is fluid will we dissolve? Are we as inclusive as we think? How do transsexuals fit? Do they want to?

All this and more at this FEAST Festival Forum - an absolute must be there event!

Featuring a fabulous panel, including Barbara Baird, Tan See-Kam, Michael McCulloch, Marg McHugh, Jennifer Scott, Jason Squire, Jennifer Rice, Del Barczak, Will Sergeant and Helen Bock as MC.
 First hear the panel, then have your say from the floor.

Where Lion Theatre Bar, Lion Arts Centre, Morphett Street / North Terrace
When Sun 2nd November, 8pm (bar from 7pm)

Lemons in the Limelight

Lesbians who work in the Performing Arts.

How does their sexuality inform their work? Is it a help or hindrance?

Featuring : Cath Cantlon (theatre designer), Josh (DJ), Andrea O'Shea (production manager, comic), Andrea rieniets (singer, songwriter), Pat Rix (composer, writer, musician), Mee Shell T (dancer, choreographer), Phyllis Jane Rose (director, writer), Anne Harris (visiting New York playwright), Monique Briggs (performer) and Mel Watson (musician).

Each speaker will give their perspective, followed by questions from the floor. Don't miss this unique Festival Forum.

Decades of Dykes

What is a lesbian ?

Lesbians through the decades from the 1930's to 1990's.
 Butch, Bitch, Dyke, Liberation, Lesbian, Leather, Lipstick!??
 Have the hard fought battles of the 50's, 60's, 70's and 80's lesbians been usurped by chic 90's lesbian images?
 What are 90's lesbians thinking and doing?
 Do we need to put the "L" back into Lesbian or is it just a label?

Come and hear a diverse spectrum of perspectives and get involved in the discussion. Speakers will include Jill Spellicy, Polly Sumner, Bev Aldous, Shar Camelleri, Vicki Rich, Jodie Anderson and Alana Zerjal-Mellor, with Barbara Baird as chair.

Where Lion Theatre Bar, Lion Arts Centre, Morphett Street / North Terrace.

Presenting

The Adelaide GT & Pal Dog Food DOG SHOW 1997

As part of Picnic in the Park, Adelaide GT and Pal Dog Food are set to present the campest canine carnival ever seen in this fair city.

Start primping, preening and pampering those pooches because their day of FAME is at hand!

There has always been a good showing by our canine friends at Picnic in the Park, but this year you can enter them in Dog Show 1997, scheduled to begin at 2.30pm. Just rock up with your faithful friend two hours before the event to enter in one of the categories and you could walk away with a fabulous Doggie Delight!

Of course the event will be hosted by a fabulous celebrity (6 or 7 are vying for the position as we speak) and judged by 'Adelaide Names' and Professionals in the doggie field.

Rock on up with Fido or Fanny to the Dog Marshalling Area adjacent to the main stage but be early as there will only be 10 entries per category.

Categories you may wish to enter in include; Best Dog/Owner Lookalike, Best use of a Theme, Butcher than Butch, Naughtiest Dog, Campest Canine, Best Trick and Best Unusual Non-Canine. Plenty to chose from so start getting your entry together for the year's Dog Show 1997.

A Dog Minding service will be available on the day for just a donation of a gold coin to the SA Bobby Goldsmith Foundation.
