Feast Aims and Objectives

- To produce Feast, Adelaide's annual Lesbian and Gay Cultural Festival
- To develop collaborative strategic partnerships with Adelaide's major arts organisations, peak LGBTIQ organisations and mainstream government, youth, health, business and tourism organisations for input into the programming, marketing and promotion of Feast
- To nurture, support and showcase artistically excellent, visionary and innovative arts and cultural events produced by SA gay, lesbian and queer artists
- To artistically direct the festival to maximise community involvement and social inclusion to promote a sense of pride, community identity, celebration and cultural diversity
- To program interstate and international performers and companies to enhance the artistic program of Feast and give Adelaide audiences access to outstanding productions and artists
- To seek input and cross fertilisation on content, marketing, sponsorship and tourism from other festivals
- To produce a high quality, successful festival in terms of content, audience figures, tourism development and economic benefit to Adelaide and South Australia
- To ensure Feast is a major Adelaide cultural festival attracting Adelaide, interstate and international audiences enhancing South Australia's arts profile
- To provide high standard, cost effective management with energetic artistic direction and constant improvement through performance evaluation
- To be able to pay the core staff, project workers and artists appropriately for their work for Feast.

Hello Feasters and welcome to Feast 2005. I'm so happy and proud to be able to present Adelaide's 9th Queer cultural festival – 3 weeks and 4 weekends of Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Intersex Queer culture.

This year we explore the notions of Family, Fetish and Philosophy. What is a queer family and how do those of us who have – for whatever reason – moved away from the nuclear family setup, recreate our social structures so that we too can enjoy the benefits of being part of a family? What's your fetish – the thing or action that you invest with great power. Exploring fetishes is risky business, like any great adventure. I invite you to join us as Feast 2005 investigates the nature of the queer fetish. I think therefore I'm queer ... what are queer thinkers pondering in the noughties? Come along to Feast 2005 and find out. I'm delighted that the themes have inspired so many of you... the response has been fantastic!

As ever, Feast is truly a community festival with over 60 arts, community and sporting events registered as well as a fabulous curated program to delight and inspire. There's something for everyone and then a bit more. So make a date with Feast for November... I look forward to seeing you there!

Feast – Taste the Difference

Fanny Jacobson, Artistic Director

The Feast Welcome Mat

Feast is a time of great celebration and coming together in delight and adventure. If you're a same sex attracted or transgender woman, new to the Adelaide communities or just new to wanting to make connections, then it can be daunting to find the courage to come along and join in.

One way that Feast wants to welcome new women is through the Welcome Mat. Women from the Bfriend Project and Golden Club will be present with the Welcome Mat Banner at selected events during the Festival. For more details ring Truffy on 8202 5805. Look forward to meeting you. Happy Feasting.

I'm delighted to lend my support to Feast 2005.

This festival has built up an outstanding national and international reputation and, as you'll see from the program of events, this year's Feast promises to be our best yet.

With a strong "family" theme, Feast 2005 will be both a reflection of, and a further spur to, the growing sense of community evident among gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender Australians.

As Minister for the Arts, I see Feast as a critical part of our overall arts vision for the State.

We want Feast, along with events like the Adelaide Festival of Arts, the Fringe and the Adelaide Film Festival, to contribute to a specific target in South Australia's Strategic Plan. And that is for our State to become one of the three most creative regions in the country within 10 years, as measured by Richard Florida's Creativity Index.

Feast 2005 will be a celebration of diversity and inclusiveness, and I hope it will encourage deeper understanding, within the broader community, of queer identity.

I congratulate everyone who has put together this fabulous festival, and I hope you have a terrific time in November.

Mike Rann
Premier of South Australia
Minister for the Arts

Adelaide's fabulous Feast builds on our State's tradition as a 'paradise of dissent' and innovation.

This year, with the flair that our gay and lesbian community always generates, Feast again celebrates our love of the arts and the brilliant contribution that so many in the community make to South Australia.

Feast is a must-see-and-do extravaganza of artistic splendour and enjoyment for all.

I am proud that the South Australian Government continues to support Feast, and again, I urge arts connoisseurs from afar to join us in November for the excitement of this celebration of diversity and talent.

Jane Lomax-Smith
State Member for Adelaide
Minister for Tourism

Congratulations to the organisers of Feast for putting together a dazzling program of events celebrating the achievements of Adelaide's Gay and Lesbian community.

As a culturally vibrant city Adelaide plays host to a range of local, national and international events each celebrating its own unique theme. Feast celebrates our State's richness of diversity, creativity and free spirit.

The Adelaide City Council welcomes performers, artists and visitors to the Feast Festival and invites you to enjoy the sights, sounds and the variety of cuisine that is on offer.

Michael Harbison
Lord Mayor

GAL Home Loan Service is proud to continue as the Principal Sponsor of the Feast festival from 2004 through to 2006 in Adelaide. GAL began operations in the year 2000 in Victoria, and have since expanded nationally with offices throughout Australia in both city and regional locations.

In 2004 we launched the World's First official Gay & Lesbian Credit Card. We understand the specific needs of the GLBTI community in obtaining a Home Loan. In addition to our own GAL products 10 in total, we represent over 40 Lenders in the market place through our Brokerage Division.

The GAL Group of Companies also offers a range of Products and Services for the GLBTI Community and these include Recruitment, Financial Planning, Credit Cards, IT, and Property. Check out our new Website www.thegalgroup.com today.

We are dedicated to our community through sponsorships such as Feast, and currently hold the majority of major Festival Sponsorships throughout Australia. GAL also donates funds to local groups to enable their continuity, along with additional funds being transmitted to medical research, human rights, our environment, and GLBTI causes throughout Australia. In return we ask for our community to support us to enable strengthening of these commitments in future years.

GAL won the MIAA Operator of the Year Award this year, the highest accolade in the Finance Industry; and we hope this reinforces the reasons you should support Australia's only official Gay & Lesbian Home Loan Service!

Col Hahne
CEO, GAL Home Loan Service

To our sister-brother festival Feast, congratulations on your ninth great year as part of South Australia's unique family of festivals.

We at Adelaide Bank Festival of Arts celebrate with you, and wish you 23 days and nights of applause, glitter, success and magic.

Here's to a fabulous Feast 2005, and we look forward to welcoming you in March 2006 as the fine times continue!

Cheers, Brett

Festival of Arts

Feast - I can't believe that it's this time of year again! Welcome to South Australia's annual celebration of things queer, arty and community. Sustaining a multi-faceted community based arts festival over many years is a tribute to the creativity and tenacity of a dedicated group of people and their predecessors who volunteer their time on countless committees.

Congratulations to Fanny and the team for delivering yet another fun-filled program. It's now beholden upon us all - queer and queer-friendly, young and older, to get out and make Feast 2005 the best-supported ever! Enjoy - and be proud.

Greg Mackie
Executive Director, Arts SA

Nexus Multicultural Arts Centre is delighted to be a partner in this year's Feast Festival. As South Australia's sole and peak multicultural arts centre, Nexus is dedicated to inter-group communication, embracing cultural diversity, and fostering the creative activity of professional artists in a multicultural setting. Adelaide's GLBTI communities make an adventurous and significant contribution to our cultural life. As a dedicated culture broker, Nexus supports their professional artistic and cultural activity insofar as it promotes understanding, acceptance, respect and equality and the celebration of diversity of the traditions of multicultural Australians.

Feast @ Fowler's Live – Lion Arts Centre

Corner North Terrace & Morphett Street, Adelaide

Disability Access

4 November, 7pm-9pm and then 9pm onwards at queer venues in the West End

Donation at the door

It's new! It's dynamic! Feast's Hub, Fowler's Live and surrounding sheltered courtyard is the perfect setting for the start of a moveable Feast!

March with Pride through the streets of Adelaide. Then immerse yourself in 2 hours of non-stop, hot, top performance before Opening Night moves on and out to queer West End Venues.

7-9pm at Feast's Hub check out an entertainment extravaganza showcasing stunning festival highlights, cruise stalls, outdoor and indoor bars, great food and a friendly, queer crowd in a party mood.

9pm onwards head for the Ed, get happy @ the Hampy and the Flagstaff, camp it up @ Lah di Dahs or disgrace yourself @ the Grace Emily where the party continues. Strut your stuff and check out the talent at Adelaide's favourite queer venues. Slip on your dancing shoes and move to the Mars Bar where DJs Fusion, BJ and Fraser will keep you on your toes till the tiny hours. In the midst of all these festivities, a portrait photographer will move through the crowd taking photos to capture the night. Artists & audiences are especially encouraged to dress for the occasion and be part of posterity!

Pride March Adelaide 2005

Kick off your Feast Festival with Pride. Join thousands of friends, family and supporters to celebrate our queer community's diversity and unity. Pride Marches worldwide take to the streets in celebration and commemoration of the presence and contribution of GLBTIQ's to the wider community. Be part of making Adelaide's 3rd Pride March even bigger and more fabulous. Organise a collection of friends. Make it a work outing. Dress up, dress down. Party with colour and sound. Wave banners and flags. Whatever you do be there and feel the buzz as thousands of queers, family and friends take to the streets. The March travels down King William Street then takes a new route arriving at Feast's fabulous new look Opening Night Party. We'll March rain or shine. The more the merrier. Join us!

The International Transgender Day of Remembrance

The International Transgender Day of Remembrance publicly mourns and honours the lives of transgender people who might otherwise be forgotten.

Ceremony

In a ceremony devised especially for the Feast Festival, we celebrate and mourn those transfolk who have lost their lives.

Transman

A 45 minute documentation of female to male transitioning – mixed-media in format, a combination of still images and video, recording Charlie Mathalot's process of masculinisation. Thought provoking insights into a man's life.

No Ma'am Yes Sir

No Ma'am Yes Sir gives us a peek into the multi layered and queer world of a FTM – female to male transgender/transsexual person. In a dynamic cabaret performance Charlie Mathalot questions normative thinking around gender, sexuality and spirituality. Exploring the notions of transitioning, cross dressing and symbols of masculinity, No Ma'am Yes Sir is a tale of self discovery, a deconstruction and reunion of body, mind and spirit. Join Charlie on this exciting journey in a one night only International Transgender Day of Remembrance special.

Feast First Queers Day

In association with Wodliparri, South Australian Indigenous Family Day, presented by the Adelaide Festival Centre and Carclew Youth Arts Centre.

Come along to the Adelaide Festival Centre. Enjoy Wodliparri, and take time out to be part of First Queers Day.

A deadly afternoon of music and writing leading to a forum that will set up a new project for Feast 2006.

- Feast will hold a writing workshop lead by professional writers
- There will be readings from works by Aboriginal writers and from works that have inspired them
- There will be a forum exploring links between the arts and the well-being of Aboriginal Queers

Music includes Doris De La Cruz and Sista Funk, Kineman Karma, Merge and Kathy Sumner.

Wodliparri is an important gathering of South Australia's Indigenous communities who will join together to celebrate and share their stories, art and culture. Held at the Adelaide Festival Centre this important gathering acknowledges Kaurna meyunna spiritual beliefs while connecting this tradition to the Adelaide Festival Centre site.

A fun filled family day with a wide range of activities for the public to participate in. For further information visit our website on www.feast.org.au

Hannah Gadsby

Hannah is best described as a storyteller. With a unique stand up style that hovers between dead pan and dead weird she has been known to send audiences into a stupor over whether to laugh, cry or retch. This, she confesses, looks pretty funny from where she stands. Watching one of Hannah's understated performances is an engaging experience, and we all know how hard it is for a lesbian to be engaged in this country. Catch her before her tour of Canada.

White Trash Lesbian & Good Time Girl

jody ekert and kitty minge

Two of Sydney's top lesbian stand-up comedians, Jody Ekert and Kitty Minge will take you on a high-camp comic adventure into a world of sexual debauchery, lesbian cults, political activism and the craziness of growing up as a dyke on the fringes of society. Warning/Incentive!! (depending on your perspective) this show contains nudity and sexual references.

Only For Today

Only For Today is a dance performance, inspired by the song 'Somewhere Over The Rainbow'. This work deals with life events and emotions through the medium of dance, text and film. It is devised and performed by members of the ethnic gay community of Adelaide. A short and captivating dance work choreographed by Jose Gonzalez. With a special screening of Eu e Agua: a short film by Paulo Alberton. Funded by Gay Men's Health as a special project for Feast.

A Dancing Life

A dancer's flame burns brightly and briefly. At 40, the body is no longer capable of doing what it could do at 20. In this project, older dancers Zora Semberova, Elizabeth Cameron Dalman, Sandra Craig and Dorinda Hafner talk to Leigh Warren on film about their thoughts and feelings, their lives and experiences. Their stories have been studied by dancers who are currently hitting the peak of their careers. Working with Leigh as artistic director, Kim Hales McCarthur and Lisa Heaven interact with the film using text and movement and Delia Silvan, Jo Rhodes and Gala Moody who are currently dance with Leigh Warren and Dancers perform a specially devised dancework. This unique production combines film and dance to allow these important South Australian dancers to hand down their dancer's lore to the next generation.

Couch Potato: True Confessions of a Therapy Junkie

After a sell out at Midsumma, direct from the Melbourne Festival, naughty writer and twisted comic Jules Wilkinson takes you on a hilarious trip through her life as a dyke in therapy. Should you keep on dancing when you see your therapist at 4am under the mirror ball? What happens when your shrink meets your inner drag king? Who gets custody of your therapist when couples counselling goes wrong? Throw away the Prozac as Jules, whose views on monogamy, dyke community, self and sex have amused, and sometimes confused, audiences at Midsumma and Mardi Gras treats you to a very funny night of unique humour.

Aiming To See

robin elhaj & carmen irons

We've got tracks. It starts with family – movement, dance, light and shade, music. All collecting to complement our paintings, the bars to a little symphony. To each person that has contributed to our self perceptions, the families meet along the way. We acknowledge their tune in our lives, the freedom of becoming in the passage of time. Reaching beyond our intellect to new meanings, new expression to expose our lives between the lines of time, in form, colour, texture.

Thinking and Drinking – with Christos Tsiolkas

Feast Festival in association with the State Library presents an evening of conversation with writer Christos Tsiolkas, acclaimed author of Loaded. His new book Dead Europe has been described as an unsettling, brilliant novel about the truths and lies of mythology and history. Join us for one special evening when Christos will discuss some of the ethical dilemmas presented by living in a time of illegal immigration and of an encroaching globalised homogenous culture. Introduced by State Library Director, Alan Smith.

Eating Out

Director: Q Allan Brocka, USA, 2004, 35mm, 90mins

Combining plenty of hot hung gay boys with seriously madcap humor. You'll laugh 'til you cry as you ogle all the cute boys in this hysterical new queer comedy from Q. Allan Brocka. Hunky straight guy Caleb just wants to meet a nice girl. He goes to a party with his gay best friend and roommate Kyle and spies Gwen as she throws her latest boyfriend out of the bedroom. Kyle explains to Caleb that Gwen only seems to like gay boys and he convinces Caleb he must pretend to be gay to get Gwen's attention, and it does.

Caleb is so convincing that Gwen decides to fix Caleb up with her own gay best friend Marc, a super-stud. And to top off the whole ridiculous situation, Kyle has a long-standing crush on Marc, who doesn't even seem to remember his name. Eating Out is a must-see film.

DEBS

Director: Angela Robinson, USA, 2004, 35mm, 91 mins

A girls military comedy must see. Recruited by the U.S. government for their unique ability to lie, cheat and fight, schoolgirls Amy, Max, Janet and Dominique join an underground academy of secret agents known only as D.E.B.S. These crime fighting hotties set out to save the world and keep their lipstick perfectly applied while doing so. Now the girls must combine their skills for their most important mission - to capture vexing vixen Lucy Diamond, the deadliest criminal the world has ever known. When D.E.B.S. star player, Amy, falls for Lucy, chaos erupts and the D.E.B.S. loyalty is put to the test.

Sordid Lives

Director: Del Shores, USA, 2000, 35mm, 111 mins

This is the MOST outrageous and camp thing you have seen in years. Starring Delta Burke and Olivia Newton-John it's a black comedy about white trash! See this camp 70's classic the way it was meant to be seen - with other fans of big hair. If you love Texas accents and gay rights, this mixture of comedy and coming-out melodrama is for you. Sordid Lives starts out as chicken-fried farce, as a funeral is prepared for a woman who died when she tripped over her adulterous lover's wooden legs; then add the drama of a drag queen unfairly held in a mental institution and then the gay grandson who hasn't come out to his mother or the trashy tattooed country'n'western singing bar girl who has a lesbian fling with the grandmother and you've got a great night of lesbo-gay queer camp entertainment.

A Very Natural Thing

Director: Christopher Larkin, USA, 1974, 35mm, 85 mins

The first feature film about being gay, made by an out-of-the-closet gay man, to achieve commercial distribution. David, an ex-priest still in his twenties and in the closet, navigates his social and professional life with some caution. When he meets Mark, he falls hard; soon he's asked Mark if they can live together. Things go well for awhile, and then differences in their definition of 'commitment' begin to push them apart. Mark wants other sexual adventures, David tries to go along. Can they talk through the crisis in their relationship or is a breakup in the offing? David sees his relationship with Mark as a marriage, so if it ends, can David's heart ever heal? A hit at every gay film event globally. Check it out!

Gay Sex in the 70s

Director: Joseph F. Lovett, USA, 2005, video, 72mins

Take a journey to a wilder time in this lively and revealing documentary about the gay sex revolution of the '70s. Post-Stonewall, pre-AIDS, New York City was a sexual paradise for gay men. They took MDMA (now called Ecstasy) and danced the night away. If you were in the mood for pure sex, there were the bathhouses, some with two-level orgy rooms. And if total sleaze was your aim, there were the Piers, the Anvil or Mineshaft – places where men went to have sex with other men with no pretence. Piecing together interviews with men who played around in that era with stills and actual footage, documentary filmmaker Joseph F. Lovett has painted a nostalgic and highly erotic portrait of a lost time of 'innocence' wedged between the Stonewall Riots and the arrival of AIDS.

The Journey

Director: Ligy J. Pullappally, India, 2004, 35mm, subtitled, 107 mins

Beautiful and taut, this is the first Indian film since Deepa Mehta's FIRE to seriously and sensitively portray a lesbian relationship. A tale of two girls in rural India whose childhood friendship turns into adolescent love. Kiran agrees to help a neighbour boy woo Delilah by writing love letters for him to present to her as his own. Through these letters Kiran comes to terms with and expresses her own love for Delilah, who eventually discovers who the letters' real author is.

Delilah realizes she is in love as well, and the two young women enjoy a secret affair – until Delilah's mother susses out the nature of the girls' relationship. Delilah unhappily faces the prospect of a hastily arranged marriage. Courage and strength are the survival tools in this beautiful film about forbidden love and loyalty.

A Dirty Shame

Director: John Waters, USA, 2004, 35mm, 89 mins

The latest raunchy riot from John Waters – the director of Hairspray, Pink Flamingo, Female Trouble... etc

Lust is in the air on Harford Road and Sylvia Stickles, a grumpy, repressed middle-aged Baltimorean, doesn't like it. Though Sylvia's handsome husband Vaughn still has marital urges, his wife isn't keen – she's tied up watching over her exhibitionist daughter Caprice, a go-go dancer known to her adoring fans as Ursula Udders. Caprice and her stupendously enlarged breasts are currently under house arrest after several nude and disorderly violations. But Sylvia's world is turned upside down one day after suffering a concussion in a freak traffic accident. Sexy tow-truck driver Ray-Ray Perkins rushes to her aid, and the stricken Sylvia realizes he is no ordinary service man; he's a sexual healer. Enter Mink Stole as Marge The Neuter crusading against Ray Ray and his 'sex addict' disciples and you have a John Waters classic not to be missed!

Brother To Brother

Director: Rodney Evans, USA, 2004, 35mm, 94mins

Perry is thrown out of home because his family finds out that he's gay. Working in a homeless shelter and maintaining his college scholarship is tough and Perry struggles with rejection from family and home.

One night at the shelter, he meets Bruce Nugent, a veteran of the Harlem Renaissance, and so begins a journey through the glory days of great black queer artists like Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston.

Perry begins to recognize this era as his history. He sees the pride that Bruce exuded in those times in terms of being black, gay and unashamed.

Anthony Mackie is gorgeous and powerful as Perry. Don't miss a star turn by Take Me Out's Danel Sunjata as Langston Hughes. A stunning sellout at all major gay film events worldwide.

Saving Face

Director: Alice Wu, USA, 2004, 35mm, 91mins

Saving Face is about the relationship between 28-year-old closeted lesbian surgeon Wilhelmina and her mother Ma (Joan Chen), a 48-year-old widow who socializes only with other members of the Chinese American community in Flushing, New York.

The movie explores the relationship between mother and daughter when Ma unexpectedly turns up on Wil's Manhattan doorstep pregnant just as Wil is falling in love with a ballerina, Vivian. Vivian becomes frustrated with Wil's unwillingness to be open about their relationship. Ma pressures Wil to find a boyfriend while she copes with her own ostracization from her community for being older, single and pregnant. Changing circumstances finally force Ma and Wil to choose between following their hearts and conforming to social pressure, with comic and poignant results. A heart-melting romantic comedy full of humor and humanity. Featuring an outstanding comedic performance by the sexy and talented Joan Chen.

Straight Hike For The Butch Dyke

Director: Robyn Paterson, New Zealand, 2004, video, 24 mins

A send up of Queer Eye, Straight Hike follows the fortunes of Libby, a flanny wearing dyke who washes her hair with hand soap. She wants to meet a stylish sophisticated lipstick lesbian but her chances look slim until ... ta rah! Enter the Femme Four – with a lightening make-over of wardrobe, interior design and most importantly tips for scoring with femmes, can this fabulous gang help Libby to use her dildo collection for anything other than sculptures?

The D Word

Directors: Cherien Dabis, Noelle Brower & Maggie Burkle, USA, 2005, video, 56 mins

Attention 'L Word' fans: lesbian comic Marga Gomez stars in this hysterical new spoof of the hit Showtime TV series. Made for 'Dyke TV' and filmed in 10-minute episodes, the action is set at a downtown New York City bar, the 'Drunken Pussycat'. Dot, artistic director of a downtown theater and her partner of seven years, Dina, a crunchy granola-dyke, are seeking a sperm donor. They decide to throw a party to find this prospective father: Daynisha, a closeted pro basketball player; Dixie, a bisexual journalist into S/M; Drea, the butch woman-trap who grooms dogs for a living; and Dex, Dot's younger FTM musician sibling. Then there's Dim and Dani and of course, Daria, the proprietor of the 'Pussycat'. There's an affair, babies and drama galore in this 'L Word' alternative universe. All hell breaks loose in the final episode at a lesbian fundraiser for Drea's salon, 'The Woof'n'Muff'!

Safe

Gay director Todd Haynes' insightful journey into environmental illness is disturbingly precise. Carol White's antiseptic life of home renovations, hairdresser visits and dry-cleaned clothes is overturned and terrorised by a mysterious illness. It's not a virus, she is also effected by chemical smells, paints, perfumes, car exhaust. The doctor says it's all in her mind, her condition worsens. When a life-threatening reaction to pesticide spray forces her to flee her chemical world. She joins a cult-like community of others seeking new-age healing from environmental illness and her journey turns inwards. This film leaves us all questioning the safety of our own chemically laden lives.

Out of respect for people with multiple chemical sensitivity, this is a fragrance-free event. Please do not wear perfume, aftershave or other heavily scented products when attending "SAFE".

From First to Last: Why is SA now the Weakest Link?

let's get equal campaign

Thirty years ago South Australia led the way with gay law reform. We were the first state to decriminalise homosexuality and the first to make discrimination on the grounds of sexuality unlawful. Yet today, we are the last state to give equal rights to same sex couples. Why has this change happened? Was the Dunstan decade of ground-breaking social reform just a blip? Are we really a conservative wowser state? What can we do to reverse this trend? In this forum a panel of community activists, academics and politicians will present their views, and then it's over to you to have your say.

Multple Chemical Sensitivity – A Forum to Heal and Reveal

MCS Taskforce

Many queer people get very sick from chemicals in perfume, personal care, cleaning and new building products. This growing problem of multiple chemical sensitivity is shunned by society. The SA Task Force on MCS is composed mainly of gay and lesbian people with MCS. Actions by the group resulted in a groundbreaking parliamentary inquiry that has found up to 6% of the population suffers from MCS. With music by Eric Khulmann, excerpts from the MCS movie 'Safe' and real life stories, this forum looks at discrimination against people with MCS and the chemical risks we face in our modern world.

Lesbian Health Debate: Lesbians are Healthier and Happier

australian lesbian medical association

Here's your chance to enjoy lesbian health experts and lesbian doctors debate whether lesbians are happier and healthier. Than who? By whose definition? Our own, the outside world? Come prepared to be enlightened and amused as the merits of the 'real' facts are thrown around. ALMA is a National Association of over 150 lesbian doctors and medical students. We aim to support lesbians within medicine as well as engaging with the mainstream on issues of lesbian health and lesbian research. We have an annual lesbian health education and research grant, and many of our members are actively involved in lesbian research, education and health care. How good is that! Be there.

Writing themselves in again

SHine SA

This forum involves Lynne Hillier, an excellent speaker and researcher who is part of a team conducting research to capture the experiences of young same sex attracted people from across Australia. To date two reports have been completed – Writing Themselves In (1999) and Writing Themselves In Again, 6 Years On (2005) Lynne will bring this valuable groundbreaking research to life at this Forum which is of interest to anyone interested in the experiences of young queer Australians.

Conversations Across Generations

bfriend project

A living history of LGBTIQ Australia Conversations will get you thinking about your Auntie June who never married and Mr McCleur, your camp biology teacher. Lynne Hillier and Vic Perry have written a series of fictitious dialogues portraying the lives of queer Australians from 14-70 years old. Through these Conversations Across the Generations, we begin to understand how lesbians, gay men, bisexual, transgendered folk and people with intersex conditions have coped with the highs and lows being queer over time. Prepared for a plenary session for the conference Health in Difference.

Lesbians and Bisexual Women are Thriving!

Research about bisexual and lesbian women's health shows we are exposed to greater health risks and have poorer health than heterosexual women. Yet we can live with zest and vitality. How do we thrive despite the risks? How can we flourish within a society which is sometimes hostile or indifferent? Ea Mulligan, Doctor and long time lesbian health activist and Mary Heath, member of Bi Adelaide, researcher and Senior Lecturer in Law at Flinders Uni have been talking to women about what makes their lives fabulous. This forum will be an opportunity to share stories of passion, excitement, success and joy.

The Art of Queer Disability and Sexuality

The Arts – music, poetry, plays, photography, drawing, painting, dance and more are wonderful ways for queer people with disabilities to express ourselves and tell our unique stories to non disabled queer or straight audiences. At this forum a panel of queer differently abled speakers who use the medium of the arts will speak and perform plus a photographic exhibition will be on display. One of the goals of this forum is to canvas interest from disabled members in the audience in forming a 'Disabled Arts Workshop', with the view to working with other queer artists towards a performance at the 2006 Feast Festival.

Plaiting the Rainbow – Queer Conversations

Sometimes it seems the more letters we add, the more separate we become. The promise of coalition across diversity that GLBTIQ suggests is still a wish rather than a reality. What conversations do we need to have between ourselves? What are we longing to know about each other? Why are some of us passionate about crossing boundaries within our communities, while others are passionate about defending them? How exciting would it be to risk real conversations across the GLBTIQ spectrum? This forum does just that! Explore all these questions and more with a fabulous panel and your chance for input.

What's your fetish?

A fetish is a thing (a boot, a breast, a chastity belt) or an action (watching, being watched, spanking, being spanked) that the Fetishist invests with great power. Exploring fetishes is risky business, like any great adventure. Join us for a frank discussion when queer community members talk about their fetishes. We'll explore non-sexual objects for sexual pleasure, lived experiences, kink and fetish families, demonstrations, dress-ups, history, lifestylers, switches and glitches, mistress and masters, paddles and puns, clubs, cubs, codes and conduct. Feast's fetish playmates include Lexton Black – visual documentor, Fresh Fetish Slideshow, Fanny Jacobson – Feast's Artistic Director, Stella Delight – sex positive performance artist, Raven, Simon Brayshaw and more.

Rainbow Community Rainbow Communion

The public image of the Christian Church promoted by people like The Pope, George Pell, Fred Nile and Family First is often one of deep condemnation of the 'homosexual lifestyle'. At this Forum, Out lesbian Minister Reverend Ali Wurm, Anglican Priest at Semaphore and gay friendly ministers Rev. Jonathan Barker, Minister at Pilgrim Uniting and Rev. Geoff Collins of Seaford Ecumenical Mission will speak about their experiences of building diverse Christian communities in which Queer people are respected and celebrated as part of the diversity of God's creation. A Q and A session will follow. The Forum will conclude with a Rainbow Communion at which everyone is welcome. Those attending are especially asked to wear a rainbow garment.

Queering Marriage

An intimate and personal account of queer marriage across the generations (under 25 year olds, 25-35's and over). Hear stories about why some of us are buying engagement rings and saving for weddings, others have had ceremonies and meringue dresses whilst others are horrified that the patriarchal institution remains. What do these significant events mean in a queer context? How do we create rites of passage and perform ritual and ceremony that affirms our queer identity? What does age have to do with queer marriage? Who's getting married, who's NOT! and why? Join this lively discussion with some married and engaged couples and others who will not be tying the knot. ## Tales from Queer Tramontanes (Foreigners)

Ever wondered what it's like being a queer tramontane (foreigner) in Adelaide? Maybe your partner or friends are novus homos (immigrants) but you'd never guess because we look and sound like you. But sometimes we let our guards down and eat exotic foods, speak different languages, gesticulate with our hands, need to visit our family heaps, listen to strange music and dance in circles or even by ourselves. Sound familiar? You guessed it - we are culturally and linguistically diverse background people living and loving in the GLBTIQ community. Join us for an evening of inspirational stories - they'll make you laugh, cry, rejoice and celebrate the diversity within our community. Be part of this lively interactive discussion about life, love and family.

Beloved & Belonging

An insightful look at how we care for each other in the queer community. Who looks after who? Who do we have personal energy for and why? What if there is a medical or mental health crisis? What is community responsibility and belonging? How does this work informally or formally? How do we sustain and maintain a sense of belonging, a sense of humour and our sanity? Hear wonderful stories about friendship, community spirit, generosity, clever community building and ways to stay connected, caring and cared for! Hosted by Myra Betschild from LOCAL & Lexton Black.

Drag Forum Beyond Reflections

Adelaide's Drag Queens and Kings invite you to share a taste of our lives. We'll venture beyond the mystique of painted sculpted images manufactured to conceal and reveal the reasons we do drag. Drag on stage and in the harsh light of day. Drag, the personal and the political. Drag Family, Fetish and Philosophy.

Many and varied are the inspirations and motivations for the art and cultural form that is drag. Explore insights into this diverse and fascinating real life experience as we turn drag inside out, expose truths and obliterate myths moving beyond the mirrors reflection into the heart and soul of the people behind the mask.

This is our chance to speak and be heard, not just seen! Presented by Feast's Drag Advisory Committee.

Visits to SA Wine Regions

South Australia is world famous for its wines, and unlike most other major cities, these beautiful wine regions are very near to the city of Adelaide.

It's no secret that the Barossa produces some of Australia's finest wines. Tanunda is where you can begin your visit by picking up information from the Barossa Wine and Visitor Centre. The Barossa's many cellar doors, antique shops, gourmet food outlets, B&Bs, hotels, beautiful parks and walking trails are just a short trip away from Adelaide and a must see on any trip to South Australia. Picture postcard views and historic townships are only 20 minutes away in the beautiful Adelaide Hills. Explore the Clare Valley wine region and stay overnight at the award winning Thorn Park Country House. You'll also find a variety of boutique wineries, the Riesling Trail to walk or cycle along, dozens of B&B hideaways and antique shops in heritage towns.

Beaches

Adelaide's pristine beaches stretch forever. Catch a tram to historic Glenelg or start at Semaphore, the dyke paradise beach with a great swell. Head south to Maslins Beach, one of the most beautiful nude beaches you will ever come across or motor down to Middleton and Boomers surf beaches, only 1 hour from the city. Check out one of the many peninsulas that give SA its distinctive coastline.

Days away

Kangaroo Island is simply one of the world's most exciting wilderness experiences for unspoilt nature, seals and Remarkable Rocks. The Flinders Ranges, the ancient rugged landscapes at the edge of the outback, is an experience not to be forgotten. Equally the Coorong National Park, with its fragile beauty and thousands of Pelicans and other bird life. A short trip away is Robe (for lobster) and the Coonawarra wine district.

The Adelaide Hills

The Hills are Adelaide's instant escape because they're less than a half-hour drive from the city centre! Suddenly, it seems, you are driving through pretty countryside with hillsides draped in vines and orchards and passing through a string of villages, many with galleries, pubs, restaurants and cafés. Walking trails, gardens, national parks and the chance to appreciate the seasons as they unfold are just some of the gifts on offer to any visitor here.

Restaurants

Adelaide is renowned for innovative cooking, great chefs and even greater wines. The main dining strips are Rundle Street (east), Gouger and Hutt Street in the CBD, O'Connell and Melbourne Streets in North Adelaide, and Unley and King William Roads, just out of the City. The Parade at Norwood is also a great place to eat.

Shopping

Adelaide has several excellent areas for that essential holiday shopping spree. The West End of Adelaide (Hindley St and North Terrace) has many art galleries including JamFactory Contemporary Craft and Design on Morphett Street. Rundle Street in Adelaide's East End is boutique heaven, and bristling with al fresco dining.

The Adelaide Central Market is a foodies heaven with hundreds of stalls selling fresh produce and specialty foods from around the world. A short way from the city, The Parade at Norwood is a beautiful boulevard of cafes and shops, while King William Road in Unley is the place to go for upscale clothing shops and some of Adelaide's top restaurants.

Walks around the city

The enchanting leafy cultural boulevard, North Terrace, is the setting for some cultural indulgence featuring the National Wine Centre, Botanic Gardens, the Art Gallery of SA, the Museum, State Library and Migration Museum. The Adelaide Zoo is also surprisingly close, just five minutes from North Terrace, and the River Torrens is an outstanding place for a daytime stroll. Tandanya Gallery on Grenfell St is also a must see.
