Welcome To Feast

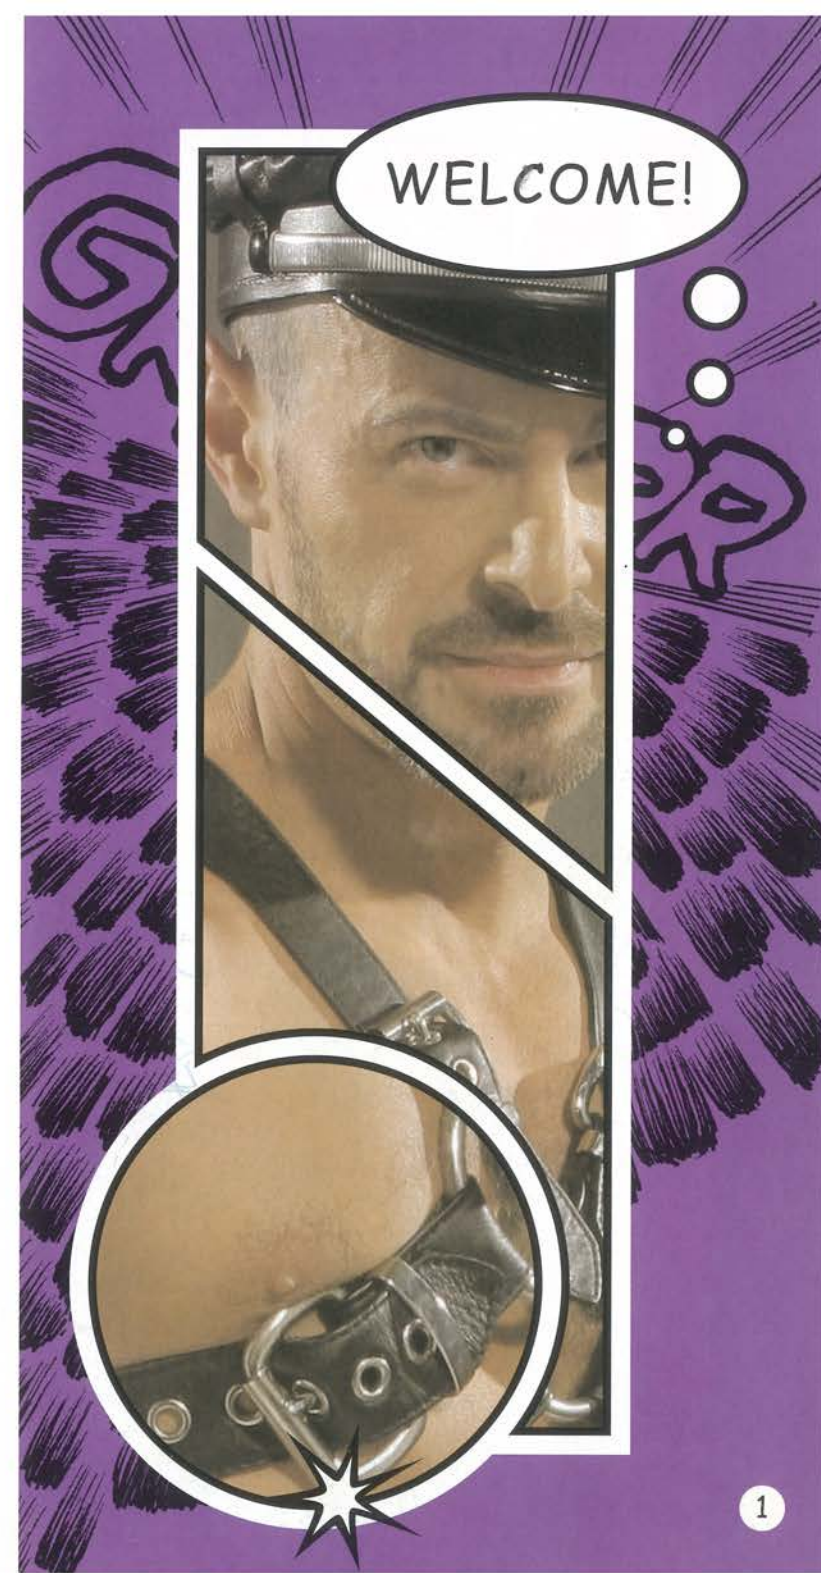

THIS YEAR WE CELEBRATE THE 10TH TIME THAT WE COME TOGETHER TO CHALLENGE THE STATUS QUO OF MAINSTREAM CULTURE BY PROVIDING EVENTS THAT ENCOURAGE AND CELEBRATE THE OUTSIDER IN ALL OF US. EVENTS WHICH ENLIGHTEN AND ENTERTAIN MIXED AUDIENCES ABOUT THE REAL EXPERIENCES OF LGBTIQ INDIVIDUALS.

Feast is about connecting audiences with the art created by their own communities, inspiring the next generation of artists, presenting quality work at an affordable price so that all audiences can experience it, reaching out to both queer and non-queer communities and institutions and helping them to acknowledge and celebrate queer artists.

This will be my last festival as Artistic Director, my time with Feast has been a great pleasure! I've learned so much from all of you – thank you. I wish the Feast Board and staff and the Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Intersex Queer communities of Adelaide all the best in the years to come and look forward to participating in the festival as an artist.

HERE'S TO THE NEXT 10 FABULOUS YEARS OF FEASTING...

Feast Aims and Objectives

1. To produce Feast, Adelaide's annual gay, lesbian, bisexual, trans and queer cultural festival.
2. To develop collaborative strategic partnerships with Adelaide's major arts organisations, peak LGBTIQ organisations and mainstream government, youth, health, business and tourism organisations for input into the programming, marketing and promotion of Feast.
3. To nurture, support and showcase artistically excellent, visionary and innovative arts and cultural events produced by South Australian gay, lesbian and queer artists with a focus on youth, Indigenous, multicultural and community groups.
4. To artistically direct the festival to maximise community involvement and social inclusion to promote a sense of pride, community identity, celebration and cultural diversity.
5. To program interstate and international performers and companies to enhance the artistic program of Feast and give Adelaide audiences access to outstanding productions and artists.
6. To seek input and cross-fertilisation on content, marketing, sponsorship and tourism from other festivals.
7. To produce a high quality, successful festival in terms of content, audience figures, tourism development and economic benefit to Adelaide and South Australia.
8. To ensure Feast is a major Adelaide cultural festival attracting Adelaide, interstate and international audiences enhancing South Australia's arts profile.
9. To provide high standard, cost effective management, with energetic artistic direction and constant improvement through performance evaluation.
10. To be able to pay the core staff, project workers and artists appropriately for their work for Feast.

Feast Turns 10...

Happy Birthday Feast!

AS YOU RAISE A GLASS TO DRINK TO THE MEMORIES OF FEASTS GONE BY AND TO DREAM OF THE GORGEOUS GLUTTONY STILL TO COME, REMEMBER THE HARD WORK OF ALL THOSE WHO HAVE MADE FEAST THE THRIVING CELEBRATION AND REFLECTION OF ALL THINGS QUEER THAT IT IS.

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the queerest of them all?

Founded was founded in 1997 by Helen Bock, Damien Carey, Luke Cutler and Margie Fischer. This fabulous foursome of professional arts and community cultural development workers decided Adelaide needed its own Lesbian and Gay Cultural Festival and, like fairy godmothers, they waved their magic wands and it began to brew!

Now nine years later, Feast has benefited from contributions from an astounding number of Board and advisory committee members, Adelaide artists whose careers have flourished through their involvement with Feast, hundreds of skilled and committed volunteers, many creative partners, sponsors and the unique Adelaide queer community who continue to embrace, support, contribute and attend Feast, now a major South Australian festival recognised nationally and internationally.

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the fairest of them all?
FEAST!! HAPPY TENTH BIRTHDAY!

SUPERB!

I SEND MY BEST WISHES to everyone taking part in this 10th Feast Festival.

Adelaide has put together a superb program of events, under the theme of Faerie Tales – Stories, Myths and Legends from the Queer Community.

Feast will again provide gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender

South Australians with the chance to share their inspiring and remarkable stories – in the process celebrating diversity, community and creativity.

As Minister for the Arts, I am particularly pleased that Feast events will occur at a number of major cultural venues, such as the Adelaide Festival Centre, the Nexus Multicultural Arts Centre and the State Library.

Happy 10th Birthday, and I hope you have a terrific 2006 Feast Festival!

Mike Rann

Premier of South Australia, Minister for the Arts

UNIQUE!

ADELAIDE'S FEAST FESTIVAL again promises to be a fabulous celebration of our Gay and Lesbian Community.

Adelaide is a culturally vibrant city and as such plays host to a range of local, national and international events. These many festivals each celebrate a unique theme. Feast celebrates our State's richness of diversity, creativity and free spirit.

Adelaide City Council is a proud sponsor of the Feast Festival. We welcome all the performers, artists and visitors and invite you to come out and enjoy the magnificent sights, sounds and cuisine on offer.

Michael Harbison
Lord Mayor

I AM THRILLED our fabulous Feast this year celebrates a decade of delight in cultural and artistic diversity.

Feast has always delivered a brilliant blend of artistic, cultural and fun experiences in Adelaide, Australia's Heart of the Arts.

This year, Feast promises a truly magical program for everyone who loves to party while also relishing a spectacular array of art and community celebrations.

I am very proud the South Australian Government supports this celebration of the rich talent and enormous contribution gay and lesbian communities make to our State.

Do come along and celebrate Feast 2006, and linger a while to discover more of our fantastic regional food, great wine and friendly city.

Jane Lomax - Smith

State Member for Adelaide, Minister for Tourism

FEAST 2006 IS HERE and it's time for colour and movement - to party and to ponder. What a great celebration of community pride and the rich diversity of queer identities. Every year people from our own community and visitors from afar remind us all that no matter how engaged we choose to be at other times, for a few weeks every year queer people - and our friends and families can make their presence felt. Congratulations to Fanny and the team of hard working FEAST activists - workers, board members, volunteers and sponsors.

You make us proud and you keep us loud. Onwards and out-wards!

Greg Mackie OAM

Executive Director, Arts SA

AS FEAST'S LONGEST serving corporate supporter, Foster's is very pleased to continue our partnership with Feast in 2006. Our long term relationship with Feast signifies our belief in the ideals of the festival and our commitment to ensuring that more South Australians share the Feast experience.

Foster's is an iconic Australian company, and for a long time we have played an integral role in Australian culture and the community. Sponsorships of events such as Feast, will continue to be an important way for Foster's to provide support for the community and a vehicle to promote and market our wide range of beverage brands.

The fairy tale theme for the 10th Feast Festival is sure to delight and entice a wide cross section of our community and Foster's encourages you to "find the fairy within" and celebrate the diversity of Feast.

Robert Priest

Regional General Manager - Central
Foster's Australia, Asia & Pacific

WHAT A GREAT THING it is to be a supporter of Feast! Especially in 2006, when the theme is about fairytales. One fairytale we all love is the Wizard of Oz. In this tale every character is searching for something. The Lion is searching for courage; the Scarecrow a brain. And the tin man wants a heart. Rainbow families want recognition. Maybe this year they will get it. Come out, come out wherever you are, and join in the fun of Feast!

NEXUS MULTICULTURAL ARTS CENTRE Inc. is South Australia's peak body embracing and nurturing cultural diversity. Nexus's vision and unique programs are about connecting people, catalysing creativity, and showcasing artists across all media. As a creative partner and sponsor, Nexus Multicultural Arts Centre is delighted to be, like last year, supporting and contributing to the artistic and cultural attractions of Adelaide's Feast Gay and Lesbian Festival 2006. Aside from an innovative visual arts exhibition, Nexus is again also presenting the famed Berlin Cabaret troupe in a major concert show and dance evening! Nexus recognises that Adelaide's GLBTI communities make a unique and adventurous contribution to our broader cultural life. And GLBTI contribution to Nexus annual artistic program of forums, exhibitions and concerts especially enriches the cultural smorgasbord of our diverse community, as well as providing an alternative to the more conventional shows about town. As a dedicated culture broker, Nexus actively supports their professional artistic and cultural activity as part of the joyous celebration of multicultural Australia.

International Transgender Day of Remembrance

NOVEMBER 20 IS A GLOBAL CELEBRATION and memorial day by, for and about trans folk and their allies. Every year, Feast rejoices in trans culture with film, music, cabaret and forum. This year, we open with a ceremony to welcome participants and audiences and to remember all trans people who have struggled for the right to exist. Next up, a forum exploring treatment programs for those in transition, an inspiring selection of films curated by London based transman Col Cruise, the comedic talents of Sally Goldner and fantastic live music by Dread Circus ... MONDAY NIGHTS WILL NEVER BE THE SAME!

6.00PM CEREMONY

This ceremony provides an opportunity for trans/two-spirit/gender-queer people and our allies to gather together to gain strength and to perform an act of resistance against transgender violence

6.15PM FORUM

CROSSING GENDER BOUNDARIES: PERSONAL AND SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES

Transsexuals, transgendered, transvestites, gender fluid and intersexed people challenge society's expectations about what is 'normal'. They often pay a heavy price – just for being themselves.

Come to this forum if you want to learn about the pain and the joy of being differently gendered, from individuals and those who love them.

Differently gendered speakers will discuss the effects of stigma and prejudice in their own lives, in areas of health, passing, privacy, protection and legal rights. Plus the joys of being true to oneself.

7.30PM TRANSVISION FILM TRANSITIONS

Directors: Al Kaye & Vnai Tachavirat

Transitions is about the dynamics of gender and includes interviews with transgender women from the Tenderloin.

KADEN

Director: Harriet Storm 2006 USA 8 min 16mm

A Bay Area trans guy's emotional preparation for transformative surgery.

WRONG BATHROOM

Director: Shani Heckman 8 min USA 2006

Imagine a life, where, on a daily basis, you must prove you are in the 'right' bathroom. By going where few videos have gone before, WRONG BATHROOM blows the stink out of the stall on this civil rights issue

ON MY SKIN/EN MI PIEL

Director: Amy Andre 8 min. English USA 2006

What's at the intersection of race, color, gender, and family relationships? Logan Gutierrez-Mock, a light-skinned person of mixed race, realizes he will soon be passing not only as a man, but also as a white man. He journeys to Mexico, to search for connection with his family and his Chicano heritage.

NOT SO BLACK AND WHITE

Director: Col Cruise Narrator: Chris Somers 4 min. UK 2006

An animated, meditative reflection on being intersex with voiceover by Chris Somers

9.00PM CABARET TRANSFORMING

Sally Goldner is possibly Australia's first out transsexual comedian. Drawing on a range of experiences including shows as the world's first male-to-female transsexual drag king (Aussie Boy), her unique mix of stand-up and character comedy rips the gender envelope to shreds with no hope of sticky-taping it back together...or then again?

DreadCircus is a rollercoaster ride into the mind of an eccentric, honest, talented transgender artist and the journey that has come to pass.

PINING FOR HIS LOST SALOME, AND LISTENING TO THE SMITHS

FLY-ON-THE-WALL & FEAST proudly present the world premiere of HALF A PERSON: My life as told by The Smiths Written by Alex Broun, directed by Robert Chuter with David Forster as William, a 22 year-old young man who has three obsessions: very strong long blacks, pining for his lost Salome, and listening to The Smiths. It is a time of confusion and upheaval for William, but one of discoveries. One of these is 'the wonderful, sad, lyrical poetry mixed with brooding, soaring guitar riffs' of Eighties band The Smiths. The other is the deep and emotional connection he shares with his gay older friend, playwright Rick. But the final discovery to rock William's world is his unquenchable desire for a disaster

I WAS A TEENAGE DIRTY OLD MAN...

WHAT'S A BOY DOING DOWN THE PARK WHEN HE SHOULD BE AT SCHOOL?

What's he doing back there at night when he should be tucked up sleeping?

Maybe the question should be "who" not "what"?

Singer/songwriter Eric Kuhlmann explores these questions and more with 10 new songs and 2 old favorites in his very own brand new one man show.

The Cracked Pot

A water bearer had two pots. One perfect, one cracked. The perfect pot was proud of its achievements but the cracked pot said, 'I am ashamed, my flaw causes water to leak all the way home.' The water bearer replied, 'Didn't you notice the flowers on your side of the path? I planted seeds and you watered them each day as we walked. Now I can pick beautiful flowers. Without you being just the way you are, there would not be this beauty to grace my house.'

The Cracked Pot is the first skill development performance project by emerging and established queer disabled performers and artists in Australia. This work in progress features Nosotros – fifteen gay, lesbian and queer disabled Adelaide performers exploring their incredible journeys and defining moments through text, song, movement, comedy, live music and projected image. A full production is planned for 2007. See what we have created so far.

Director: Kat Worth, Designer: Gaelle Mellis, Film maker: Quentin Kenihan, Project co-ordinator: Margie Fischer.

SATURDAY 18 NOVEMBER @ 1PM

Blowing Whistles

ON THE EVE OF LONDON'S GAY PRIDE PARADE, and their 10th anniversary, thirty-something couple Nigel and Jamie log onto gaydar.com and decide to celebrate with the mysterious Cumboy_17. As with so many online purchases, once delivered the couple begin to question whether a night of hot casual sex is exactly what their relationship needs. Written by Matthew Todd, directed by Robert Chuter with David Forster, Christopher Pender and some of Adelaide's hottest actors. Hosted by Keith Conlon.

Hardcore

IN THE BIZARRE, COMIC WORLD of British gay porn four guys are trying to make it big! Robert sees being in porn as one of those things that you have to do by the time you're 30 along with paragliding! To Kevin, a struggling actor, it's just work – his way of showing dramatic versatility. Martin is new to London and it all seems a laugh to him with a free shag thrown in, and if Mr Right is out there watching, then all the better. So it's all left to veteran Craig to show the guys the difference between watching and making gay porn. Written by Jonathan Hall Directed by Robert Chuter With Christopher Pender, David Forster and some of Adelaide's hottest actors Hosted by Frank Ford.

Mad About Mozart

2006 IS THE 250TH ANNIVERSARY of the birth of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. To celebrate this auspicious occasion, FEAST presents an all Mozart concert.

The concert features some of the finest professional SA musicians. Celebrated Mozart specialist/pianist Eleftherios Kostoglou, the first Australian to complete an edition of the Mozart "Requiem Mass in D minor K.626", joins forces with distinguished pianist Evniki Levendis, soprano Samantha Mack, who has recently performed at the Edinburgh Festival, and the prestigious Aurora String quartet featuring Sarah McCarthy, Katerina Stevens (violins), Neil Thompson (viola), and Elisabeth McGowran (cello), who recently performed in the 2006 Adelaide Festival of Arts.

The concert will feature musicians performing in period costume, and include piano solos, duets, arias for soprano, and music for string quartet, written by none other than the Man himself! An absolute must for Mozart Lovers.

Glovebox & Violette

Originally formed in London by Mishka (vocals) and Grainger (keys & producer), Glovebox's music is a blend of 80s glam, modern beats and a heaping tonne of electro fun and which carries onto stage in their live performances. Mishka & Grainger were joined by Morris on Guitar and Sair on drums (yes, you all know the chick outfit born & bred in Adelaide now living in Melbourne). Glovebox fused into one unit, incorporating years of experience, creating, refining and perfecting sound. Violette is Fiona Wilde on guitar, Lala on bass, ZuZu Keys on drums and Nicky Kemp on vocals. The eclectic mix of influences in the band makes for a unique rock and roll sound. These girls can belt out a powerful rock tune and always please with an energetic stage performance.

DOLLY DIAMOND IN She's Back

AFTER SELL-OUT MELBOURNE AND SYDNEY SEASONS...

...UK COMIC CABARET PERFORMER, Dolly Diamond, returns for her first South Australian tour...well, she's doing Adelaide!

Combining fine comic skills and vocal talent, Dolly banters with her audience in a show filled with laughs and great songs. There may even be a show tune or two for the musical queen in all of us.

Dolly has returned each year, delighting audiences with her social commentary and quick wit. And yes, she sings live! Dolly feels that she is now ready to unleash her talents on all Adelaide punters during FEAST 2006.

In She's Back! expect to hear the songs that have made her famous including the ever popular I will survive (The Beckhams) and Que Sera Sera, as well as tributes to Liza, Judy and various other musical icons.

Created by singer/performer Michael Dalton, Dolly has in only a few years become a highly sought-after talent across the UK, performing her own live show, at all the major UK Pride Festivals as well as compering for major events and venues.

Living Queer in Adelaide

FACILITATED BY PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST ROSEY BOEHM members of the GLBTI community who live or work in the City of Adelaide investigate what it means to be queer here.

Living Queer is a community-based photographic project that seeks to document the diverse lives of queer people in Adelaide and challenges stereotypes presented in the media.

Using a framework of community cultural development, the participants have worked together since August to create a body of photographic work that celebrates the art of photography and explores social, cultural or political issues of living queer. The work focuses on the daily lives of queer residents, inviting audiences to investigate what it means to be queer in Adelaide, and examines their place within the broader community.

Glamorous Graphics

OUT OF THE SHOEBOXES of saved queer paraphernalia comes an exhibition showcasing the variety and pizzazz of collected publicity material aimed at the GLBTI community, used to promote and raise awareness of queer events in Adelaide, such as drag, theatre, films, music, picnics, marches and parades, forums, community events and gatherings - a celebration of both all things queer and a graphic visual history exhibition. Come along to the festival hub and see those posters, flyers, advertisements and postcards reflecting both contemporary queer culture and ephemera from days gone by.

The Girl in the Lime Green Bikini

MEET THE AUTHOR: CHRIS MAVER

Who is the Girl in the Lime Green Bikini? Why does she sing bass and not soprano? And what is she doing with a gravedigger in the cemetery after midnight?

Outrageously funny and deadly serious The Girl In the Lime Green Bikini breathes life and song into a cast of iconic characters, from a rosary bead wielding singing nun, to a macho leather queen and digs up the dirt on some of the radicals misfits and artists who survived Brisbane in the latter half of the 20th century. Chris Maver has created a cast of characters who tackle stereotyping and hypocrisy head on and held high. Come along and hear him read from his play and talk about his writing process.

Wild thang! Make it queer THE (QUEER CULTURAL) PRODUCERS CONFERENCE

THIS CONFERENCE AIMS TO EXPLORE queer cultural practice and production. In the past thirty years, organisations and individual artists have been engaging in public and political "queer cultural practice". We have developed, presented and promoted work with a queer sensibility outside of the heteronorm. This year Feast and the Cultures of the Body Research Group invite all creators of queer arts to gather and discuss the importance and challenges of queer cultural production in the region.

With a wide range of interdisciplinary approaches to the question of what constitutes queer cultural production, as well as performative and visual presentations, Wild Thang will inspire and challenge our notions and expectations of what constitutes queer culture and the way it is produced.

FEATURE PRESENTATION - GIRLS

Loving Annabelle

Dir: Katherine Brooks USA 2006 76min

A CONTROVERSIAL STORY of a Catholic Boarding School teacher, Simone Bradley, who has an affair with her female student, Annabelle. Simone is Saint Theresa's prized young poetry teacher who finds peace and security within the boarding school walls - dedicated to educating her young female students. Annabelle is a charismatic and enchanting new student who quickly draws attention for her rebellious behavior. Fearing Annabelle will influence the other students, the rigid headmistress instructs Simone to keep an eye on Annabelle and get her under control. Simone, however, quickly learns that the real challenge is not Annabelle's behavior, but the attraction budding between the two. Blind to the world around them, the two journey into a love affair destined to change their lives forever. Clearly inspired by the 1931 German classic, MAEDCHEN IN UNIFORM, the film offers a modern telling of 'forbidden love'.

FEATURE PRESENTATION - BOYS

The Dying Gaul

Dir: Craig Lucas 2005 USA 101min

A TALE OF LUST, POWER, CORRUPTION, BETRAYAL AND REVENGE set in the seductive world of the Hollywood elite. A fiercely original psychological thriller based on his play of the same name. Robert's life changes when he is offered a million dollars for his latest and most personal script, a raw autobiographical story of the death of his lover. But there's a catch - the studio will only sign on if Robert will make a major change to the script - which changes the whole scenario. Meanwhile in the background is the double life of the studio agent. Not since writer Craig Lucas's previous gay feature, Longtime Companion, has a quality film featured such a prominent gay storyline. The cinematography is visually stunning, the script intricate, and the acting impressive by cast Patricia Clarkson, Peter Sarsgaard and Campbell Scott. A MUST SEE.

SATURDAY 4 NOVEMBER 12 NOON

The Picture of Dorian Gray

Dir: Glenn Jorda 1977 USA 111min

A YOUNG DEBAUCHED ENGLISH ARISTOCRAT

Dorian Gray sinks into a world of self indulgence until he notices that his portrait ages and reflects the hideous features of his sinful ways. Probably the most famous of the screen versions of Oscar Wilde's classic fable of narcissistic endeavours. As the song lyrics say "forever young, I want to be forever young" - as if written by young Dorian himself.

SATURDAY 4 NOVEMBER 4PM

April's Shower

Dir: Trish Doolan 2003 USA 98min

A HEARTFELT COMEDY about love, romance, and expectations. On the morning of April's wedding shower, we meet Alex who has the task of organising a shower for her friend - while struggling with her tangled relationship with the bride-to-be. The group is assembled for the party - and when April arrives, it becomes clear that the secret Alex is hiding will affect the course of her life, and the future of everyone at the shower. Its fun, romantic and sexy.

SATURDAY 4 NOVEMBER 6PM

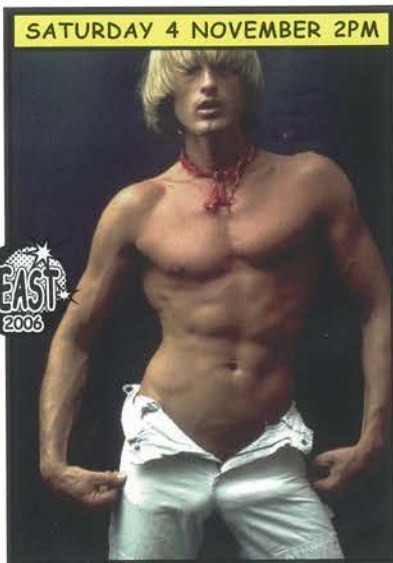

Out Laugh

Dir: Gene H. Merker 2006 USA 80min

A HILARIOUS, SIDESPLITTING JOURNEY through the 2005 Queer Comedy Festival - with lesbian and gay comics Lea Delaria, Bob Smith, The Nellie Olesons, Jason Stuart, Karen Ripley, Mark Davis, Sabrina Matthews and Amazing Race Reichen Lemkuhl to name a few. This is a rib-tickling ride that captures some of the funniest queers who have ever dared to strut their stuff in front of a microphone. Setting out to prove that gay comics are funny, and can pull an audience, this show is one not to be missed.

SATURDAY 4 NOVEMBER 2PM

That Man - Peter Berlin

Dir: Jim Tushinski 2005 USA 80min

ARTIST - PORN STAR - MODEL - LEGEND. Long before Madonna was striking a pose, blonde buff Peter Berlin was working the lens, and fluffing his bulge. Photographed by Robert Mapplethorpe and Andy Warhol, drawn by Tom of Finland, and lusted after by countless fans, Berlin was more than just a piece of eye candy. Through a series of interviews and look at his work, we discover his career that has spanned almost 40 years. Riveting viewing. Learn more about the man at www.thatmanpeterberlin.com and then see the film.

SATURDAY 4 NOVEMBER 10PM

Hellbent

Dir: Paul Etheredge-Ouzts 2004 USA 85min

WHY SHOULD FREDDY AND JASON HAVE ALL THE FUN? Hellbent is out to scare AND titillate you - yes, it's the first gay horror/slasher movie. A deranged serial killer is on the loose in West Hollywood and he has a taste for hunky homos. Its Halloween and already 2 boys have been beheaded at the beat - but still the hunky boys dress up at cops, cowboys and sex slaves wander the streets and steamy clubs - that is until the slasher starts working his way through the stud muffins one by one. Hellbent will keep you hot, horny and howling until the last drop of blood.

SUNDAY 5 NOVEMBER 2PM

Rock Bottom

Dir: Craig Veytia 2004 USA 110 min

THIS IMPORTANT, SEXY, EXPLICIT and shocking documentary follows the journeys of seven gay men struggling with crystal meth addiction and recovery against a backdrop of an emerging second wave of HIV infection. While not a huge phenomenon in Adelaide as yet, Meth is cutting swathes through the gay community in the USA, Europe and to some extent the eastern states of Australia. From the drug's effects sexual desire, health and wellbeing, Rock Bottom delivers a chilling portrait of a community in crisis. Cameras go from sex clubs to hospitals to family gatherings. Rock Bottom lifts the lid on the mystery of Meth - and shows if anyone thinks they can play and not get hooked, how wrong they might be.

THE STORY OF QUEER CINEMA

Dir: Lesli Klainberg, Lisa Ades 2006-USA 81 Minutes

GAY, LESBIAN AND TRANSGENDER filmmakers, actors and critics explore the history of queer cinema in this made-for-cable documentary. Eschewing any overarching narration, co-directors Lesli Klainberg and Lisa Ades illustrate archival footage and film clips with dozens of interviews. They also provide timelines and factoids to punctuate the discussion of specific eras. Although the background material and the interviewees allude to the subtext of Hollywood classics, the bounty of world cinema and the history of experimental film, the focus remains squarely on the American independent movement, from the 1960s underground through the New Queer Cinema of the early 1990s to the post-Brokeback Mountain landscape of 2006. Interview subjects range from cultural commentator Michael Musto and actors Allan Cumming and Jane Lynch to directors John Cameron Mitchell, Jennie Livingston and Randy Barbato.

THIS DOCUMENTARY TURNS THE SPOTLIGHT ONTO FEMALE-TO-MALE TRANSGENDER ISSUES.

While many view F2M transitioning as a "trend" (or anti-feministic) this feature length documentary begins to break down the barriers and preconceptions, and foster a dialogue about trans issues through meeting 3 transitioning F2Ms in New York City - Nicco, Norie and Keegan. We follow them as they go through major junctures in their transitions, as well as through the voices of lesbians, activists and theorists who raise and address the questions that many people have - but few openly discuss.

Feast Garden Tour

A DAY OF BEAUTY AND INSPIRATION

BOOK EARLY,
THERE'S ONLY ONE TOUR THIS YEAR in our comfy 45 seater bus. We begin at the amazing gardens
Jason Lewis is creating at Centennial Park. Formal gardens with massed roses,

fountains and sculptural features, a Balinese garden with ponds, bridges, exotic plantings and bright colours, shady tropical gardens with water features, palms and ferns. The sound of water is everywhere, winding paths and tranquillity.
On to the Hills and garden designer Deane Butcher's projects.
First stop Campden built in 1852, Bonnie and Richard Drakes haven. Savour hundreds of David Austin roses, speciality trees, a Roman road in a Celtic circle, miniature conifers in a voluptuous setting. Up the road to Liz Forsyth and Tom Bates delicate fairytale hanging garden full of secret places, curves, surprises and sculptures. Lunch is at the Organic Market Café, Stirling then on to Tickle Tank artist Irene Pierce's intimate, astounding multi- level garden surrounding her amazing house made of converted water tanks. Irene's house, garden and creativity have blossomed since our last visit. Last stop is Roxy Bent's productive garden on 7 acres utilising

Biodynamic practises. Walk through the orchard, vegetable gardens, regenerating bushland, see famous Ethical Egg chickens at work and projects in progress plus homemade afternoon tea on the verandah before winding your way back to Adelaide after a day of horticultural bliss.

EVERYONE'S TALKING ABOUT same sex marriage but what about same sex break-ups? This forum explores issues related to same sex relationships splitting up, with a focus on practical tips for moving forward. How does one end a relationship when the community is so small and everyone knows everyone else? What about confidentiality? We'll explore issues around friends, dividing possessions, houses, and children, as well as those of financial dependency, sharing family connections, cultural differences, dealing with jealousy, anger and betrayal, staying friends (do you?), and generally handling this messy and challenging time. Our panel includes contributors across a range of ages and relationship counsellors experienced in queer relationship break-ups, with time to talk in small groups. BE THERE.

stories and experiences are very different. We dance to a different rhythm and speak in exotic languages. Some of us stand out yet don't often reveal how different being same sex attracted is in our lives. Why is it that some of us never 'come out'? Is it more about 'bringing you in' to the family? What choices do we have? Are they the same as yours or different and why? What do we gain or lose when we deny our cultural background? What is the impact on us? Interested in gaining an insight into our connections to family, religion and culture? Crossing Gender Boundaries

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES

TRANSSEXUALS, TRANSGENDERED, TRANVESTITES, GENDER FLUID AND INTERSEXED PEOPLE challenge society's expectations about what is 'normal'. They often pay a heavy price – just for being themselves.

Come to this forum if you want to learn about the pain and the joy of being differently gendered on individuals, and those who love them. Differently gendered speakers will discuss the effects of stigma and prejudice in their own lives, in areas of health, passing, privacy, protection and legal rights. Plus the joys of being true to oneself.

South Australia - A Brilliant Blend

FEAST RECOMMENDS...

...VISITORS DROP INTO THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN VISITOR & TRAVEL CENTRE TO OBTAIN INFO ABOUT WHAT'S ON WHERE AND WHEN IN ADELAIDE AS WELL AS THE REGIONS.

VISITS TO SA WINE REGIONS

South Australia is world famous for its wines, and unlike most other major cities, these beautiful wine regions are very near to the city of Adelaide. It's no secret that the Barossa produces some of Australia's finest wines. Tanunda is where you can begin your visit by picking up information from the Barossa Wine and Visitor Centre. The Barossa's many cellar doors, antique shops, gourmet food outlets, B&Bs, hotels, beautiful parks and walking trails are just a short trip away from Adelaide and a must see on any trip to South Australia. Picture postcard views and historic townships are only 20 minutes away in the beautiful Adelaide Hills. Explore the Clare Valley wine region and stay overnight at the award winning Thorn Park Country House. You'll also find a variety of boutique wineries, the Riesling Trail to walk or cycle along, dozens of B&B hideaways and antique shops in heritage towns.

BEACHES

Adelaide's pristine beaches stretch forever. Catch a tram to historic Glenelg or start at Semaphore, the dyke paradise beach with a great swell. Head south to Maslins Beach, one of the most beautiful nude beaches you will ever come across or motor down to Middleton and Boomer surf beaches, only 1 hour from the city. Check out one of the many peninsulas that give SA its distinctive coastline.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA'S FINE WINES

DAYS AWAY

KANGAROO ISLAND is simply one of the world's most exciting wilderness experiences for unspoilt nature, seals and Remarkable Rocks.

THE FLINDERS RANGES, the ancient rugged landscapes at the edge of the outback, is an experience not to be forgotten.

Equally the COORONG NATIONAL PARK, with its fragile beauty and thousands of Pelicans and other bird life.

A short trip away is ROBE (for lobster) and the COONAWARRA WINE DISTRICT.

THE ADELAIDE HILLS

The Hills are Adelaide's instant escape because they're less than a half-hour drive from the city centre! Suddenly, it seems, you are driving through pretty countryside with hillsides draped in vines and orchards and passing through a string of villages, many with galleries, pubs, restaurants and cafés. Walking trails, gardens, national parks and the chance to appreciate the seasons as they unfold are just some of the gifts on offer to any visitor here.

RESTAURANTS

Adelaide is renowned for innovative cooking, great chefs and even greater wines. The main dining strips are Rundle Street (east), Gouger and Hutt Street in the CBD, O'Connell and Melbourne Streets in North Adelaide, and Unley and King William Roads, just out of the City. The Parade at Norwood is also a great place to eat.

SHOPPING

Adelaide has several excellent areas for that essential holiday shopping spree. The West End of Adelaide (Hindley St and North Terrace) has many art galleries including JamFactory Contemporary Craft and Design on Morphett Street. Rundle Street in Adelaide's East End is boutique heaven, and bristling with al fresco dining. The Adelaide Central Market is a foodies heaven with hundreds of stalls selling fresh produce and specialty foods from around the world. A short way from the city, The Parade at Norwood is a beautiful boulevard of cafes and shops, while King William Road in Unley is the place to go for upscale clothing shops and some of Adelaide's top restaurants.

WALKS AROUND THE CITY

The enchanting leafy cultural boulevard, North Terrace, is the setting for some cultural indulgence featuring the Botanic Gardens, the Art Gallery of SA, the Museum, State Library and Migration Museum. The Adelaide Zoo is also surprisingly close, just five minutes from North Terrace, and the River Torrens is an outstanding place for a daytime stroll. Tandanya Gallery on Grenfell St is also a must see.
