Welcome

G'day and welcome to what will be a remarkable Feast Festival. This year, Feast is proud to celebrate a HomeGrown theme that dedicates itself to our thriving local talent.

I believe it is essential to cultivate our community's capacity. So in 2009 Feast gets back to its roots, giving local, interstate and international audiences an opportunity to see local artists and performances. Feast supports our LGBTIQ communities through recognising and supporting our artistic talents, and showcasing these to the wider community.

Feast is proud of our position as a leader among Australian queer festivals. In nurturing local Adelaide LGBTIQ communities, Feast acknowledges and articulates our position in the global community. With a HomeGrown theme, Feast is an expression of who we are, what we believe in, what we do and how we like to play, for all to enjoy and take part in.

Welcome to a Feast that is proud to showcase some of the best of homegrown talent from Adelaide and Australia, representing a diversity of sexualities, genders and art forms. Our program features fantastic cabaret, comedy, theatre, a superb musical line-up, film, literature, visual arts, community events, sport and poker! You will notice that alongside the marvelous range of homespun talent is the beautifully bent Bridge Markland and Sydney's Gurlesque presenting their new erotic work. There's sport – oh and did I mention Poker?

Get down to Feast Hub @ Higher Ground which will feature a stream of splendid performances plus a stage dedicated to work by emerging artists. The Feast Hub is the place to chill out, get fired up, get flirty, get funky and get totally Feast-ed in between a line-up of fantastic shows.

I am particularly enthusiastic about Feast's HomeGrown focus, as my personal skills and experiences have been fostered by Feast. In 2001 I began working with Feast as a venue technician, and worked my way up to the position of Production Manager. I am thrilled to return to Feast as Creative Producer, with an excellent team of dedicated workers and volunteers and a Board who bring an outstanding array of skills to our extraordinary festival.

So, welcome to a Feast Festival dedicated to you, your communities, your skills and desires. This year Feast fosters our communities so let's honour HomeGrown and acknowledge our homes as a place to grow, flourish and be fabulous.

(Kurna words for 'Hello, how are you?')

Feast would like to acknowledge this land that we meet on during the festival is the traditional lands for Kurna people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their country. We also acknowledge the Kurna people as the custodians of the Adelaide region and that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still as important to the living Kurna people today.

A message from
Mike Rann

Through this year's theme of 'HomeGrown', the 2009 Feast Festival will celebrate inspiring stories from throughout South Australia during an event that promotes diversity, creativity and community.

Employing a range of media including performing and visual arts, film and literature, Feast will maintain its place among the very best of our State's renowned arts festivals.

This year's event features emerging and seasoned performers – from our State and beyond – in productions that will broaden our thinking and challenge our perceptions.

Feast will once again include the Picnic in the Park, which last year drew a crowd of more than 15,000 people, and its popular Feast hub in Adelaide's West End will doubtless become a focal point of our city in November.

This celebration of gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer life and lifestyle is an important part of South Australia's annual arts calendar – it celebrates difference, while promoting acceptance.

I extend my very best wishes to everyone taking part for another successful Feast Festival in 2009.

Mike Rann
Premier of South Australia
Minister for the Arts

Feast is always one of the glittering stars in South Australia's huge line-up of events each year and Feast 2009, with the theme of 'HomeGrown' promising to be more brilliant than ever.

Once again, the exceptional blend and diversity of gay and lesbian talent will be on show at events right across Adelaide, as we celebrate and embrace the diversity of our gay and lesbian community.

Feast 2009 encourages everyone to bring out their creativity as well as party, with music, dance, art and so much more.

I urge you to join me in the fun of Feast 2009. See you there.

Hon Jane Lomax-Smith
MP
Minister for Tourism
Minister for the City of Adelaide

Performing and visual arts are an essential part of Adelaide and the 2009 Feast Festival is set to offer cutting edge creativity and celebrate individuality.

The Adelaide City Council is proud to support the 2009 Feast Festival, which will see hundreds of performers showcasing work around our city during this multi-faceted cultural arts event. This year's theme, 'HomeGrown' aims to embrace and profile emerging and local artists from a broad cross section of our community.

This 2009 program will offer spectacular performances from local, national and international artists, across mediums such as theatre, comedy, cabaret, literature, drama, visual arts and more. This festival is for everyone and I encourage all community members to come along and be part of 2009 Feast.

The Right Honourable
The Lord Mayor
Michael Harbison

Welcome to Adelaide's Feast Festival 2009. This year's dynamic and vibrant arts and cultural festival celebrates the theme 'HomeGrown'.

During two weeks in November, audiences will experience a feast in a unique and cutting edge program encompassing theatre, cabaret, comedy, film, forums, visual arts, community events and parties.

Feast Festival 2009 will showcase diverse talent and artistry from emerging artists as well as highly acclaimed international performers.

Feast Festival's cherished events, including the Pride March, Opening Night Party and Picnic in the Park, again feature in a line-up of must dos, and the Feast Hub will provide a great space to kick back with friends and celebrate GLBTIQ arts and culture.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the energy and commitment of the Feast team and its volunteers and supporters for delivering another wonderful program.

I wish you all a fabulous Feast!

Alexandra Reid
A/Executive Director,
Arts SA

The theme of Feast this year is 'HomeGrown', and for me, representative of a home-grown Adelaide festival which has developed a global reputation for excellence.

In my role as CEO of PinkSofa.com, the largest online community for lesbians in the world, I travel to numerous gay and lesbian festivals world wide and can proudly attest to the stand out quality of Feast. For this reason Pink Sofa is proud to be one of the major sponsors again this year. We look forward to working with Feast to present a number of exciting and entertaining events and wish everyone a happy and 'HomeGrown' Feast 2009.

Geoff Crowhurst

An industry tribute

Feast dedicates Feast 2009 to Geoff Crowhurst
23/03/51 – 04/07/09

Geoff was a very special man. He was visionary, kind, patient, supportive, generous, brave, optimistic and wise. His contribution to Feast was huge. He worked as Feast's Finance Manager, Festival Coordinator and was a Feast Board member over a number of years.

Geoff was among South Australia's best-known independent theatre directors. We remember his brilliant work as Artistic Director of Mainstreet Theatre and Junction Theatre. He co-founded The Lampshade Shop and Not So Straight Theatre and freelanced with many SA theatre companies.

He took theatre into the community working with Indigenous people, migrant workers, the queer community, disabled people, the union movement and many more. He championed Australian writers for theatre, commissioning and directing countless new works. Geoff was a generous collaborator, inspiring all those he worked with.

Some production highlights include The Pink Files, King of The West End, Poor Superman, *Everything's F**ked*, Wild Rice, Love Land and Money, The Family from Away, Piercing The Skin, Scam!, Hello Down There and This Dying Business. His productions have been part of WOMAD, Melbourne International Arts Festival, Adelaide Cabaret Festival, Adelaide Fringe Festival and Feast Festival to name but a few.

He is an enormous loss. He shall be missed more than words can say and will be remembered in our work and hearts.

The Board, staff, artists and volunteers of the Feast Festival past and present.

Australia Council mourns Geoff Crowhurst

The Australia Council expresses their sadness at the passing of one of South Australia's best known independent theatre directors, Geoff Crowhurst.

A master of making theatre work for the good of whole communities, Geoff worked at various times as Artistic Director for Mainstream Theatre and Junction Theatre, which specialised in workplace and community theatre.

Geoff co-founded The Lampshade Shop and Not So Straight Theatre, freelanced with many South Australian theatre companies throughout his career and was a Board Member and Co-ordinator for the Feast Festival.

He championed Australian writers for the theatre, commissioning and directing countless new works. Geoff's productions have been a part of WOMAD, the Adelaide Festival Centre, Melbourne International Arts Festival, Adelaide Cabaret Festival, Adelaide Fringe Festival and Feast Festival. Our condolences go to his partner Rob and his family.

Arts SA and staff express their sadness at the passing of greatly loved theatre director and arts supporter, Geoff Crowhurst

The news of Geoff's loss was felt deeply at Arts SA. He was known to us not only for his role as a peer assessment panel member but also as a thinker and contributor to the many debates and issues in the arts. He was a leader in many fields of arts practice, in the community, directing theatre or through his great passion for musicals.

He was selfless in the way he always ensured the inclusion of others in the projects he embarked upon and in the support he provided to young and emerging artists.

Arts SA conveys deepest sympathies and best wishes to Geoff's many friends, family and comrades, and in particular his life-partner Rob.

Pride March

Presented by Pride March Adelaide

Join thousands of friends to celebrate our GLBTIQ community's equality, diversity, love and pride.

Make Adelaide's 7th Pride March louder, prouder and more colourful than ever. Featuring fantastic music to get you dancing in the streets and led by a cavalcade of motor bikes, Pride March grows every year.

Organise a group of friends. Come on your own and make friends. Make it a work outing. Dress to celebrate, wave banners, feel the buzz. We march rain or shine.

Meet at Rundle Park (cnr North Tce, East Tce), march along North Terrace, right into Kintore Ave, then right into Victoria Drive to Feast's Opening Night Party at Adelaide Uni.

14 Nov 5:30pm for a 6:30 start, March approximately 1 hour

Opening Night Party

Presented by Feast

This year we will be showcasing some of the finest HomeGrown talent on offer for the 13th Opening Night Party! Highlights include Sam Lohs from the nationally acclaimed band Fruit and the sensational Sally Dastey. They'll be joined by the unique rhythms of the Adelaide band Legless, the sensational Pascoe Braun, along with the uncontrollable reverberation of The Blowwaves plus much much more.

In the Cloisters you can dance the night away with some of the Sleaze Ball crew and their pick of the best DJ's from our own HomeGrown DJ pool.

Two bars will serve reasonably priced drinks so you can keep rocking to the rhythm of the non-stop entertainment. If you are a little hungry, there's delicious food, plus community stalls, a friendly crowd and room to move.

Opening Night After Party

Presented by Feast

As things are winding down at the Opening Night Party, it's time to go where the night is still young! Head on down to the After Party, where we promise to sway you with seductive sounds and hip beats of the best local HomeGrown DJ talent, that will keep the party going until the early hours of the morning.

This year there will also be extra outdoor activities, so you can enjoy the warm night air and a unique visual art exhibition downstairs if you're looking for something a little different.

Picnic in the Park

Presented by Feast

This year is Picnic in the Park's 20th anniversary and, yes, the first Picnic was in 1989. To celebrate our remarkable history and our enduring success, we are thrilled to present some fabulous acts that will rock you to your foundations and make your ham/tofu burger jump backwards from your picnic pack!! We are thrilled to present Heather Frann who will enthrall us with her unique folk funk, while the Ruby Frost String Quartet will provide an intimate sense of excitement plus surprises. For those who want to dance the day away, the Sleaze Ball crew will once again present an extraordinary line-up of HomeGrown DJ talent on the seductive fringe of the picnic boundary. There'll be great food, cheap drinks, family atmosphere and the much-loved Dog Show, creating a space where all people – queer, straight and indifferent can feel comfortable and open to having a very good time!

Oh and if you want to participate in our mass visual arts display, drop us a line at visualarts@feast.org.au and your work will be exhibited at the Hanging at Picnic... Rocks! Showcased on the periphery of the picnic boundary... and if you're lucky we will sell a piece or two!

... and the Feast Show at Picnic in the Park

Presented by Feast's Show Committee

The 8th Feast Show celebrates extraordinary HomeGrown queer creativity. Our show is the biggest, best and most amazing queer show in the world! This year featuring brand new categories and all your favourites!! Very queer collections, mouth watering cakes, luscious jams, fantastic fruit and veggies, a plethora of pot plants, beautiful bonsai, fabulous flowers and floral art, extraordinary eggs, quilting, leatherwork, knitting, photography and more, more, more. Do you bake, bottle, collect or create craft? It's not too late. Ring Feast or check the Feast website for an entry form. BYO entries on the day. Judging by celebrities. Rosettes awarded. Go to the Show.

Official Picnic After Party

Presented by Feast

It's not over till the queer lady sings and she isn't going to sing until the After Party stops. If you've loved the festivities and don't want them to finish then its time to enjoy the last few hours before our Festival officially ends. In true tradition we're going to play some funky tunes so you can get down and dirty and give you the chance to say a final messy farewell to the 2009 Feast Festival. We've loved having you so much, its time to say thank you, farewell and throw you an after party to show our appreciation. And remember there will also be the downstairs fantasy brothel... (see page 45).

Queer, Gifted & Blak 3

Presented by Feast

This one-off event explores family through the eyes, hearts and creativity of nine performers and artists from South Australia's gay and lesbian Indigenous community. The performance is the culmination of a ground breaking community cultural development project exploring experiences of family through song, storytelling, dance, visual art and multi media by this wonderfully diverse group of artists. The performers include Kym Wanganeen, Naomi Hicks, Liz Hurrell, Chris Bromley, Tempest Sumner-Lovett, Raymond Zada, Violet Buckskin, Pascoe Braun and Bona Simeki. Prepare to be inspired and entertained as First Queers explore Family.

“Markland conceived her cross-dressing show upon playing with female and male stereotypes... The highest points of the performance are by all means these minimalist but very effective gender transformations... These role changes are by no means products of any kind of secret tricks... ## bridgeland zwei

Presented by Feast & bridge markland (Berlin)
English/German

bridgeland zwei is a bisexual-bilingual performance.

bridge markland changes her identities like underwear. The Berlin dance-theatre-performance-artist is a virtuoso of roleplay and transformation. A chameleon who throws herself into many extremes, but isn't merely limited to one of them. She is an artist who effortlessly crosses all boundaries between sub and high-culture, dance, theatre, performance, cabaret and erotic-art. Her specialties are transgender-performances in which the audience can experience the change of woman to man (or vice versa). There is an erotic aura around her in all roles and genders. She has female and male sex-appeal far away from hetero or homosexual limits and all inscribed identities.

Bison

Presented by Feast & Focus Theatre

After the success of Blowing Whistles in 2008, Focus Theatre is coming back to Feast to present their new work Bison. Already a hit at Belvoir Street Theatre as part of this year's Mardi Gras festival, Bison will prove to be another huge hit here in Adelaide.

Inspired by Australian playwright Lachlan Philpott's experiences on the scene, Bison follows four guys as they search for that illusive special something in the gay hunting grounds of Sydney and beyond. “Bison is the herd – out there on the scene, sniffing at the arse of the guy in front, following the same route to the bars, clubs, saunas and beats,” says Director Pete Nettel. “Lachlan reveals the underbelly of the gay world: the play is full of recognisable characters and situations; it's very funny, but very disturbing too.” Bison tells a warts and all story with intelligence, humour, tenderness and honesty and its wry observations about gay life – past, present and virtual – are right on the money.

She

Presented by Feast

A dark road, a hetero cute couple, a haunted house. The ghosts of Rocky Horror Picture Show come alive as She goes vamp! Drawing upon burlesque, horror, porn and B-grade classics, She is an exploration of local women's notions of desire. What does She desire? And just what does She bury so She can remain a good/nice/pretty girl? Join new and established performers, as they throw off the shackles of duty and choose to get dirty. Cranky over cute, risky rather than responsible pleasures will erupt before your eyes. Devised by community performers in conjunction with director Aurora Murphy, sound artist Rachelle Higgins, and burlesque performer Miss Cherry Valens.

Like It Is

Presented by Feast

A talented ensemble of young performers tell it like it is for them. Queer, young and living in Adelaide. This is bold new theatre; honest, provocative and original in its execution. What are Adelaideans opinions, beliefs and levels of acceptance of diverse sexualities within our society? What level and type of homophobia and discrimination are experienced on a day to day basis? Are same-sex couples visible on the Adelaide streets, and if not, why not? How safe do same-sex attracted people feel in shared public spaces? A theatrical investigation led by Daniel Clarke and a team of professional artists including Jay Robinson and Simone Mazengarb performed by community members.

Gorge '09

Presented by Brink Productions as part of its FEED Program, in association with Adelaide Festival Centre's inSPACE program.

GORGE is a mini-festival of performance and the spoken word.

Over three nights, three writers and six performance companies unveil their style and craft, revealing what makes them unique. Meet the artists, engage in conversation and witness the stage transform again and again as the writers' words are performed by a startling array of actors, dancers, musicians and more, in wildly different interpretations. It's risk-taking, dangerous and exhilarating. Immerse yourself!

In the Arms of a Lion

Presented by Feast, White Swan Productions and robotrhino: producer

In the Arms of a Lion, by Peter Van Der Merwe, co-written with renowned director Penelope Chater, is a fictionalised autobiographic exploration of Van Der Merwe's childhood, set in the 1980s during the violent death throes of Apartheid, one of history's most organised systems of racial oppression. In the Arms of a Lion explores the forces of religion, racism, sexuality, and above all, fear, upon one family as it struggles to understand itself in a time of violent change. There is a dark secret at the heart of this family, laid bare in the harrowing conclusion.

Other-wise

Presented by Feast

A gutsy one-person theatre, animation, movement, comedy and multimedia show! The dog ate my gender. Children, can you say transgender? A hide-and-seek peekaboo at coming out to family, gender policing, boy tits and the courage it takes to be true to oneself.

Platform

Presented by Feast & The Lampshade Shop

Platform is a series of out there public gender bending performances. Strutting and strapping, packing and posing, queer and quirky drag queens and kings will perform at surprise sites around Adelaide throughout Feast. Watch out for them at Adelaide railway station, city streets, parks and public spaces.

Cultivated from a series of workshops by The Lampshade Shop (Adelaide's premiere queer performing arts organisation), our HomeGrown gender bender drag performers hit the pavement, larger than life, out and proud around town. Amazing! Funded by Adelaide City Council.

The Dead Ones

Presented by Feast & Margie Fischer

This much anticipated solo, work-in-progress, performance is the first created by Margie Fischer since her critically acclaimed, award winning show The Gay Divorcee.

While clearing out their house after the death of everyone in her immediate family, Fischer became fascinated with what is left behind when loved ones die. Throughout this time she documented her feelings and the processes involved. The Dead Ones explores her family stories through the objects left behind. The performance format is a museum tour with Fischer as tour guide. This story telling, multi media presentation is a taste of the full work in development for 2010.

Gurlesque — A WOW of a show

Presented by Feast

Celebrating 10 years in show business, Australia's leading Burlesque show returns to Feast after sell out shows in London, Brisbane, Midsumma and Mardi Gras. Come and see what paved the way for the new era of Burlesque as it was intended – bent, dirty, fun, camp, educational, innovative and absolutely sexy. This all new explosive show will feature some of Sydney's most spectacular starlettes Glitta Supernova, Sex Intent, Kira Carden (Hu-la-la), Wife, Vixen Noir (Sweet Deliverance-San Fran) and more, plus DJ Gemma (club kooky). For the first time in Adelaide, Gurlesque will open her doors to welcome people of all gender persuasions. Women, men, trans, queer, straight and all those beautiful creatures in between. Two shows only. You've got to be there.

Gay Conversion

Presented by Feast

Direct from critically acclaimed seasons on the Australian and International comedy circuits, Anthony Menchetti (NBC's 'Last Comic Standing' and 'the comedy channel') takes us behind the scenes of what really happened when his wacky parents sent him to a Christian Gay Conversion School to rid him of his homosexuality.

This hilarious stand up comedy show exposes the ironies of an organisation that, amongst other absurdities, attempts to cure homosexuality and promote abstinence by placing a group of sexually frustrated gay men together in a small room to discuss their sexual fantasies and then insist they remain celibate!

Anthony explores the colourful characters who make up his story, including his fellow students, the hapless recidivist facilitators and, not least of all, the people who sent him to Gay Conversion School in the first place, his passionately evangelical, born-again German mother and his unconventionally Roman Catholic Italian father.

The true story of one man's journey to find peace between the conflicting worlds of religion and sexuality.

Sing Out!

Presented by Feast

Since 2007 Sing Out!, Feast's queer community songwriting project has created HomeGrown original songs and live music, culminating in sell out performances. Sing Out! explores the rich diversity of life stories, experiences and passions of people from Adelaide GLBTIQ communities. Each life story is presented in song and performed by some of Adelaide's finest singer/songwriter/musicians through a fertile collaborative and creative process. Developed by award winning musician Heather Frahn and social worker Laura Bahnisch, the concept continues to flourish, connecting people through song and performance. This year's talented crop of participants and artists guarantees a rich harvest of song and live music. One performance only!

Produced by Sam Cherry

Believe it

This experimental work explores the relationship between Christianity and homosexuality, inspired by the perspectives of South Australians. Through interviews, movement has been generated as a response to the findings and presented through the hybridisation of film, dance and documentary.

Produced by Chris Scherer

SA Gay

The multi talented Dr Gertrude Glossip, one of the quirkiest and most informative gay icons of South Australia, discusses the past, present and future of queer culture in Adelaide. From the days of the Buckingham Arms hotel in the 70s to the outrageous nights of the Mars Bar in 2009 this documentary is a historical, fascinating insight into the world of Adelaide's ever evolving gay community.

Produced by: Chad Leader

Welcome To The New Breed Of Pop Docs

There weren't many pops singers in the country town of Mildura where Ryan Davies grew up, let alone openly gay ones. We follow Ryan's journey over the course of a weekend witnessing an important rite of passage for any performer: the first music video shoot. We gain insights into this complex and engaging performer. On the surface he's good-looking and cocky but don't let his megawatt smile fool you - he knows where he's headed and what it means to finally pursue his dream.

Produced by Sophie Lamonto

METROPOLIS

A showing of works by independent film makers from the Philippines.

Featuring 'The Blossoming of Maximo Oliveros' directed by Aureus Solito

Presented by FACSI & Anahata Foundation in cooperation with the Independent Filmmakers Cooperative & Cinemalaya

Beyond the shadows of the bustling metropolis lies a hidden world to be discovered where urban warriors are creating a buzz in the scene surprising critics & audiences around the world with their electrifying energy. This raw & neo-realistic film is a story about love & family values that evokes the essence of street life in Manila 's slums like no other indie film.

Patrik, 1.5

Mercury cinema, Sun 15 Nov 2pm
Director: Ella Lemhagen, Sweden, 2008, 100min, subtitled

This exceptionally well made quirky queer family comedy has won audience awards at queer film festivals in Sydney, Melbourne, London and San Francisco.

Recently married gay couple Sven and Goran are about to realise their dream of adopting a baby and moving to the suburbs. There is just one problem - an unfortunate typo from the adoption agency puts a comma in the wrong place and when Patrik arrives he is not the 1.5 year old baby they were expecting, he's a 15 year old homophobic street kid. Havoc ensues as the trio attempt to tolerate each other long enough for the mismatch to be corrected.

Edie & Thea: a Very Long Engagement

Iris cinema Sun 22 Nov 3pm
Director: Gréta Olafsdóttir and Susan Muska, USA, 2009, 67 min

Edie met Thea 45 years ago. "We danced so long, I wore a hole in my stocking". In this inspiring doco Edie and Thea sit beside each other and reminisce as a slide show of their shared life plays out before them. What makes this film truly special is their unfaltering, soul-quaking love for one another and their quirky charisma. Like all good love stories it ends in a wedding. Finally after their very long engagement, Edie and Thea make their way down the aisle for a fittingly poetic and playful climax of their life together.

This must see film explores our community's history, while charting one couples courageous passage through it. It is a life both ordinary and extraordinary, from their very visible romance in the closeted pre-Stonewall 60s to the present.

Assume Nothing

Iris cinema Sun 22 Nov 5pm
Director: Kirsty McDonald, New Zealand, 2009, 80 min

In this award winning film about transgendered life in the Indigenous cultures of our South Pacific neighbours is brought to the screen in beautiful and enlightening ways. Assume Nothing focuses on the performances, photography and art of five alternative gender artists of Maori, Samoan-Japanese, and European descent.

Interviews and intimate glimpses of the artists' lives are interspersed with lush Super-8, 2-D and 3-D animations, photographs and beautifully staged performances, blurring the conventions of documentary as freely as the conventions of gender. Playful and provocative, Assume Nothing travels from New Zealand to New York exploring the creative world that flourishes between and beyond genders.

Fig Trees

Iris cinema, Sun 22 Nov 7:30pm
Director: John Greyson, Canada, 2009, 104 min

This must see film won the 2009 Teddy Award (Berlin International Film Festival) for best documentary. Much celebrated queer director John Greyson has created a work as cheeky as it is moving, as magical as it is factual, as invigorating as it is sobering. You've never seen anything quite like this documentary opera (yes, it's an opera) on the history of AIDS activism.

Combining commentary on the corporate greed of pharmaceutical companies, the fictional portrayal of positive people, celebrity do-gooders, and the top 100 AIDS songs of all time all narrated by a squirrel... this experimental masterpiece will bend your mind into profound clarity. Beautifully staged and filmed arias are blended with the testimonies of AIDS activists Tim McCaskell and Zackie Achmat as we revisit South Africa of the nineties, a country in infuriating denial.

Spreading the Love - Covert Conversation

Presented by Feast in association with the City of Marion, City of Norwood, Payneham & St Peters and the City of Unley

This year Jo Kerlogue, in association with local councils, will be visiting various venues, cafes, bars, libraries and civic centers to create an improvised live performance with the use of visual arts and text. She will create work with traditional tools of charcoal, pencil, eraser and paint on an easel and project them through a live video feed onto a screen in the space. The work becomes a moving image installation in real time. 'Covert Conversations' is so called to embrace the notion that some things are not what they seem and diversity is not skin deep. The projection plays with the current cultural notion that we are in a state of simulacra, experiencing our lives through images rather than 'reality'. The work hopes to spark audience conversation which will filter into the work and back to the audience in an interactive exchange.

Girls on the Avenue, Boys Next Door

Presented by Samuel Bovenlander and Annette Summers

Annette Summers reflects on her former life. Showgirls with a face of makeup all dressed up to kill, walking by with a rosebud smile. An insight into the glamorous and often dangerous world of burlesque and transgender culture in 1970's Kings Cross. Samuel Bovenlander paints a sprawling tapestry of suburban life. Vibrant patterns, mosaics, collected objects and popular iconography create a familiar backdrop. These young studs present themselves as an exemplar of their kind, a perfect model. They are the boys you dream of. On your doorstep.

18 Nov - 15 Dec, 10:30am - late
Closed Sunday & Monday
Dragonfly Bar, 193 Victoria Square, Adelaide

Saturday 21 November

Erotic Feast Presented by Feast

Stun and satiate all of your senses! Enjoy canapés on the lounges, followed by a top-notch, sumptuous three course meal in the dining area. During the evening, listen to Adelaide's leading LGTB personalities Ian Hunter, Roxxy Bent, Geoff Revell, Jenny Scott, Tom Cho, Fanny Jacobson, Alan Smith and Mandy Treagus – read from their favourite pieces of erotica. From delicate to down right dirty, be prepared to be delighted, shocked, and everything in between. $8 premium wines and $6 imported beers. Book early for one of the most anticipated and talked about events at this year's Feast. Followed by Martini Mixer 9.30pm-12midnight - DJ and $10 martinis. Stay on after Erotic Feast or join us afresh.

To book for 'Erotic Feast' phone Feast on 8463 0684 before 5pm 11 Nov. to ensure a place.

Tango Femme: a play reading

Presented by Feast & Merrilee Moss

Set in the world of same-sex dancing, Tango Femme is a new comedy by Melbourne playwright Merrilee Moss. Written in the dance play style of Strictly Ballroom, it places lesbians centre stage, featuring seven women aged 24-62 preparing for the OutGames Dancesports competition. Structured around dance steps – Samba, Waltz, Cha Cha, Foxtrot, Quickstep, Rumba and Tango, exploring sexuality and gender, comedy and feminism, butch and femme, mothers and mothering, the body and dance – the subject matter and characters are fascinating and recognisable! This rehearsed reading features Adelaide performers PJ Rose, Lori Farmer, Jessica Miels, Tahlia Harman, Helen Bock and Margie Fischer.

Walk up Rundle Mall and enjoy our great shopping, admire the 'Malls Balls' or experience our local busking talents. Chocoholics will be drawn to the historic Beehive Corner on the western entrance of the mall, where Haighs Chocolates are to be found. This is the only chocolate maker in Australia that still imports and roasts its own cocoa beans.

For those who like to chill out and enjoy alfresco style cafes, East Rundle Street is where you will delight your taste buds with a bit of Italy, some Greek mezze or even some great Asian. For those that love night life, Sugar nightclub is the place to relax. On Gouger Street you will find Australia's first Gay nightclub Mars Bar. Before you party, enjoy some of the finest authentic Asian foods or, during the day, experience China Town. Garage nightclub on Waymouth Street is a great gay venue on Sunday nights or check out Higher Ground, our Feast 09 Hub in Light Square.

Immerse yourself in South Australia's unique history and rich arts culture as you stroll down North Terrace – Adelaide's 'Cultural Boulevard'. Here you will find the South Australian Museum and the Art Gallery of South Australia, including Australia's largest collection of Aboriginal cultural artefacts. North Terrace is also part of Feast 09 Pride March route and where you will also find our casino 'Skycity' and other great hotels.

Hop on the Glenelg tram and in 20 minutes you'll realise why South Australia is famous for its beaches. Adelaide also hosts a great nude beach called Maslins, with sun, surf and breathtaking views only 40km south of Adelaide.

Not far from the city, the Adelaide Hills provide a perfect landscape for leisurely drives with great picnic spots like Mount Lofty Botanical Gardens. Go up to the top of Mount Lofty to over look all of Adelaide. Experience Stirling's Organic Cafe then the German delights of Hahndorf.

Just one hour's drive from Adelaide is Australia's richest and best-known wine region. The Barossa Valley has a wealth of regional produce and historic vineyards, which make it wonderfully distinctive and relaxing. Premium wines, five-star restaurants and cellar doors abound among the vineyards and undulating hills, with local winemakers including Seppelt, Peter Lehmann and Penfolds, where you can even 'make your own blend' of wine.

The Fleurieu Peninsula has everything from wineries to beaches, national parks and the famous Coorong. Take South Road and spend some time in one of Australia's top wine regions, McLaren Vale, or get there via the picturesque Adelaide Hills. Widely regarded for producing exceptional red wines, McLaren Vale is also gaining a reputation for excellent olives and oils, cheeses, almonds and berries. Drop into any of the cellar doors to taste the region's finest drops and local produce.

ARE YOU REALLY SURE HE'S HIV NEGATIVE TOO?

If he has fucked without condoms since his last HIV test, he may have picked up, and be passing on HIV.

One-third of all new HIV infections come from men who don't even know they are HIV positive. Some of the people most likely to pass on HIV may not even know they have it.

If you can't be sure of his HIV status, use condoms and lube.
