We live in your world ANZ

Why be the same as everyone else, when you can come to Feast and be yourself!

Welcome to another fabulous Feast Festival! This year Feast is turning 16 years old, and we are Coming of Age so get ready to party!

In 2012, we will once again Come Together and make Light Square Our Place. We have made major changes to the Hub design and can't wait for you to enjoy the Feast of homegrown and international talent that is Feast 2012.

The Ballroom and revamped Garden Lounge host a torrent of world class acts including the multi award winning USA Film and TV star, Miss Coco Peru, as well as the super hot Boylesque boys from Melbourne. We will get NAKED with comedian Joel Creasey and sway to the sounds of the sensational FRUIT, who are reuniting one last time only at Feast! There's a Feast of live music, theatre performances, comedy, literary events, visual art exhibitions, family and kids events and even some cooking demonstrations for you to enjoy.

We've created an outdoor cinema at The Campsite. It's undercover, so regardless of the weather you can enjoy the latest queer movies, as well as play retro video games on the big screen. You can even enjoy snacks from the new candy bar!

Light Square will host our huge Opening Night Party, Picnic, Picnic After Party and the CommUNITY Sunday, jam packed with a Community Expo, Art Market, huge garage sale, Birthday cake competition, kangaroo tail cooking, a Trashion Parade, circus workshops, jumping castles, giant board games for the kids and so much more Feast has also created the brand new 4Play Boutique Music Festival on the middle Saturday of the festival. This is a full day of live music across 4 different hub venues.

I encourage you to attend as many Feast events as possible and make the Hub a central meeting place for the LGBTIQ community and our friends in November. This is your festival, so come out, support and enjoy it!

I would personally like to thank the amazing Creative Team, the Feast staff and Board, our wonderful volunteers and the hundreds of artists and community members who bring you Feast.

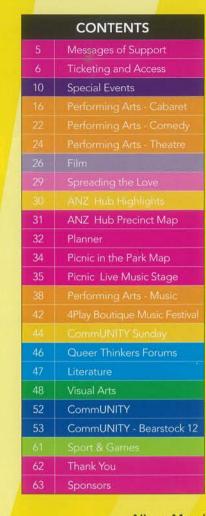

In 2012, Feast is Coming of Age, join us for the biggest party in town with 16 days and nights of Festival delights.

P.S Don't forget to download our FREE 2012 Feast Mobile App - Enjoy!

Ninna Marni

(Kaurna words for 'Hello, how are you")

Feast would like to acknowledge this land that we meet on during the Festival is the traditional lands for Kaurna people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their country. We also acknowledge the Kauma people as the custodians of the Adelaide region and that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still as important to the living Kaurna people today.

Turning 16 is an exciting time in anyone's life and the organisers of Feast Festival's 16th Birthday are promising the celebration will be "party central".

This year's theme - Coming of Age highlights the time when many young people are exploring their identity and taking steps into adulthood.

Feast has a proud history of inclusiveness, which is built on a shared enjoyment of the arts.

With its Festival Hub in Light Square, more shows on the program and some exciting international exclusive performances, Feast Festival Coming of Age is on track to be the best yet.

I encourage all South Australians to come along to enjoy the cultural events on offer - and celebrate the diversity and acceptance for which our State is renowned.

Jay Weatherill

Hon John Hill MP Minister for Health

Welcome to Adelaide's Feast Festival 2012!

This dynamic and vibrant arts and cultural festival celebrates its Coming of age, on its 16th birthday.

During this time Feast Festival has provided opportunities for audiences to hear many inspiring and remarkable stories from the lives and imaginations of Queer artists celebrating and valuing diversity, community, resilience and creativity.

Our lives are greatly enriched by the contributions of people from diverse backgrounds who share their experiences

The South Australian Government is proud that the Feast Festival continues to play such an important role in the cultural lives of South Australians, promoting engagement with our shared culture and contributing to our

as a vibrant city in which to live and visit.

Feast Festival celebrates creative achievement and community involvement, and wonderful relationships and partnerships between the arts and the broader community.

I take this opportunity to congratulate the Feast Festival team, supporters and the volunteers involved in the festival. Your commitment and enthusiasm is key to the success of this festival.

Happy Birthday! I know that the 2012 Feast Festival will again be a truly exciting event.

Stephen Yarwood Lord Mayor

Welcome to the City of Adelaide for the 2012 Feast Festival.

Firstly, I'd like to congratulate Feast for reaching its 16th birthday. I'm very proud to be Lord Mayor of a city which understands the importance of this festival and has helped it become the fantastic event it is today.

I'm also pleased that Light Square will again serve as the event's hub, so the heart of the festival can be in the heart of the city. Light Square promises to be party central!

The Feast Festival encourages every sector of the community to share in a range of artistic experiences. I hope you all will get involved and help Feast celebrate its 'coming of age'.

Alexandra Reid Executive Director Arts SA

At 16, Feast Festival is entrenched as an important and much loved festival on South Australia's arts and cultural calendar, while still being fresh and vibrant, challenging and sometimes confronting.

Thousands of people will come together during the Feast Festival in creative collaborations and a celebration of community. Amid art, music, performance and feasting, people will share their identities and celebrate their differences, with the hub in Light Square at the centre of everything.

Happy birthday Feast and congratulations to the entire team who have worked hard to present the 2012 festival; I encourage everyone to explore the program and get involved with Feast Festival in all its richness.

South Australia is proud of its reputation as an inclusive, vibrant and progressive state. This festival allows us all to enjoy and appreciate the important cultural and artistic contribution our Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Intersex and Queer community makes to both Adelaide and our regions.

This year's program includes a world-class line-up of artistic events across all media, as well as interactive activities that will encourage great community participation.

In 2011, Feast Festival attracted more than 47,000 participants over 16 days, injecting thousands of dollars into the State's economy from regional and interstate visitors.

This year, 'The Hub', located in Light Square, will again provide festival goers with a focal point for the event's festivities, as well as a place to feel safe, respected and fabulous.

The Feast Festival is a fantastic event which showcases a huge amount of major talent and emerging artists.

It has certainly earned its place as one of the stand-out arts festivals on South Australia's year-long calendar of major events.

Picnic this year is at the Feast ANZ Hub!! For this much loved Feast highlight we are making our own park by growing the Hub, closing Currie Street and taking over the entire square. Set up camp under the shady trees or by the fountain and explore this new Picnic site. The area is bigger than other recent picnic sites. Bring a picnic or take your pick of the delicious on-site food. Also BYO drinks or enjoy the Picnic Garden Bar. New attractions along with all you know and love about Picnic makes the perfect recipe for a fabulous day out. Join in a variety of novelty races for both kids and adults or play tug-of-war with the firies at the new sports ground. Wander the wide variety of community stalls, enter your pooch in the up market Feast Dog Show, try your luck at the coconut shy and other side show attractions, listen to Joy 94.9's live radio broadcast or just chill out and chat all day. On the live music stage enjoy up and coming star Alexis Nicole; the infectious Selina Jenkins with her band Toxic; Coops & the Bird; Annie Siegmann; Rin and Reckless and DJ Lush will play Picnic out with all your favourite party anthems. Then it's time for some serious dancing action, at the Picnic after Party which is right where you are already. Plus if you are at Picnic already you don't have to pay extra to go to the Picnic After Party. How good it that!

If you want to party hard before the festival officially ends, this is your chance! The Hub converts to DJ Central for the Picnic After Party. If you are already in the Hub then Picnic After Party is our 16th birthday gift just for you, so hang around and celebrate Feast's coming of age in style. For those of you just wishing to join in the celebrations at Picnic After Party the bars will be open and the music pumping so come along and get ready to have a great time. With top gueer DJs playing some of the hottest tunes around. The Backyard Bar will throb with our very special guest LADY K (NSW) as well as local greats, DJ JoSH and DJ lil miss k, the 2012 Midsumma DJ competition winner. The Campsite Cinema is the perfect chill out area, with layback tunes, a blazing fire, and a massive movie screen to play retro video games. The Garden Lounge will host the Honey Bearcovery party and introduce Adelaide to DJ Francisco Guerra (USA) and DJ Frankie Shin (Sydney). This is sure to be the biggest after party yet! So join the Feast Festival team, artists, and festival goers to end the festival with a huge bang! You really can't afford to miss this one. Miss Coco Peru is Present

U.S. Drag Legend/Monologist/World Savior, Coco Peru is outrageously fabulous. This show charts Coco's course from her strange beginnings in a dysfunctional, working-class family in the Bronx to her rise as one of America's most celebrated drag queens. Coco's stories, songs and comedy are hilarious, intoxicating and elegant. Widely-known for her star turns in the films Trick and Girls Will Be Girls and on TV's Will and Grace, Miss Coco Peru (Clinton Leupp) has enjoyed sell out seasons at top cabaret venues in New York and London. Wry and uncensored, this brutal honesty behind the comic facade makes Miss Coco Peru a very special Feast event.

Joel Creasey in Naked

Joel Creasey is afraid of a lot. Be it snakes, heights or Tony Abbott you'll usually find Joel cowering behind the couch. But Joel's biggest fear is being naked! There's a difference between being nude and being naked. Nude, you're just unclothed. Naked, you're totally exposed. Spunky young comedian Joel Creasey explores his fear of being naked; of exposing his fears and who he really is. Great concept? Yes! But you just want to know if he gets his kit off? Well you'll have to come to the show to find out. Labelled "A revelation!" by the Age newspaper and sold out shows everywhere he goes - at just 21 there is no doubt Joel Creasey is Australia's hottest rising star of comedy.

Geraldine Hickey in... Turns Out I Do Like Sundried Tomatoes

Geraldine Hickey is funny, filthy, deliciously satisfying and she's back at Feast by popular demand. This show is a look back at Geraldine's life and the signs she may have missed to let her know that she is totally gay and why it took her to the age of 32 to acknowledge it. There is a fine line between being a bogan and being a lesbian. Over the last ten years she has told a lot of dick jokes. Something's changed.

Good Fortune

Kimberly Dark's performances are passionate, personal and political. Her show Dykeotomy at Feast 2011 was deliciously sexy and funny. Kimberly is back with her tarot deck of 46 stories and poems from her 15 years of performing. Her themes are Love, Sex, Politics and Power. By choosing a card the audience members decide which pieces will make up the show. Depending on what's chosen, you'll hear stories from Dark's new works, currently touring shows, or past performances. Every show is unique. Captivating audiences around the world, Kimberly's reputation as a mistress of storytelling is well deserved. Curve magazine named Good Fortune as one of their top 10 performances of the year in the US. It is our Good Fortune that she is in Adelaide for Feast.

Aussie Films Night Sistagirls

Dir: Andy Canny & Donna McCrum, Australia, 30 mins.

This riveting documentary follows award-winning Indigenous photographer Bindi Cole's travels to the far north of Australia to document the transgender Sistagirls of the Tiwi Islands. Meet the Sistagirls and their larger than life mother Crystal Love. See and hear about their lives within and outside their traditional community. A must see.

Ballroom Rules

Dir: Nikolas Bird & Eleanor Sharpe, Australian & Germany, 77 mins.

A magnificent documentary that follows a group of Australian same-sex ballroom dancers as they battle homophobia, injury and personal dramas pursuing their dream of competing at the 2010 Gay Games in Germany.

Unfinished Thoughts

Dir: Dimitrios Pouliotis, Australia, 15mins.

The story of Lucia and Fiorella who belong to a generation of strict upbringing back in the 'Old Country'. Now as her life-long friend is at death's door, time is running out for Lucia to reveal her true feelings for Fiorella before it's too late.

Presented by Feast & MERCURY CINEMA

All The Way Through Evening

Dir: Rohan Spong, USA & Australia, 70 mins.

This internationally acclaimed musical documentary is the moving story of elderly New York concert pianist Mimi Stern-Wolfe. Every year Mimi performs a breathtaking concert of music composed by gay men lost during the early era of HIV/AIDS.

All ticket proceeds will be donated to AIDS Council of South Australia (ACSA). Screening will be followed by an audience Q&A with Director Rohan Spong.

DEPRESSION & ANXIETY -TALK ABOUT IT

DISCRIMINATION, GLBTI PEOPLE, DEPRESSION

Research shows that prejudice and discrimination contribute to depression and anxiety among gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and intersex (GLBTI) people.

Depression and anxiety are common and with the right treatment, most people recover. Talking about it to a doctor or other health professional can help.

LIVE Music Stage

Picnic in the Park - 25 Nov. 10.30am - 5pm

The ever popular Live Music Stage at Picnic in the Park is back for another year of incredible live music featuring some of Adelaide and Australia's best queer talent! From acoustic folk to pop, acapella to blues, the Live Music Stage has it all.. and all for the cost of your entry to Picnic.

10.30am - Adelaide Gay & Lesbian Owire (SA)

Relax and enjoy the sounds of rainbow inspiration from Adelaide's own gay and lesbian choir. We are a vibrant and diverse group of people, who always welcomes new members.

11am - Annie Siegmann (SA)

Feast favourite Annie Siegmann has been performing around Adelaide for several years now and more recently made a huge impression with her debut cabaret show En Route To Modesty Lane (2011 Cabaret Fringe, 2011 Feast & 2012 Adelaide Fringe). Annie has performed along side the likes of Libby O'Donovan, Emily Davis, Matthew Carey, Jess Porter and many more.

12pm - COOPS + the Bird (SA)

Jake Cooper opened his inbox one morning to discover an unexpected bird call. The email was an invitation from Bianka Feo, a girl who had longed to find someone to play music with yet up until that day; she never really had the courage to say? One week later, the two discovered a partnership that has grown into an exciting ambitious adventure, coopsandthebird.tumblr.com

1pm - Rin & The Reckless (SA)

Following the successful release of her debut solo 'Nice Guys Finish First', Rin McArdle has made a name for herself as one of Adelaide's most exciting and talked about up-and-coming singer/songwriters. With lyrics that could pull at any heart string along with catchy hooks and a rare honesty in music, solo or band in tow, Rin is an artist who never fails to captivate.

2pm - Toxic (VIC)

TOXIC is back! It's been a couple of years since this all girl, all hot, Britney Spears Tribute Band has made you sweat and grind to their inTOXICating sounds. Bringing you more Britney and other favorite party tunes. Get your glam, glitter, and sexy on. It's Britney Bitch!

3pm- Alexis Nicole & The Missing Pieces (VIC)

The Missing Pieces are instrumentalists and singers who come together to deliver songs reflecting Alexis Nicole's complex observation of life. They include some of the best musos from around Australia and beyond. But what they have in common is the unifying rhythm and tunes developed by Alexis and the fun they all have

4pm - DJ Lush (SA)

Lush has been deejaying for 20years now & still going strong. She is resident DJ at the woolshed on Hindley every Sat night & plays various other venues round town including Kangaroo Island. She has played in Sydney, Melbourne, & Queensland "last year at the queer as fu#k dance party with Ruby Rose. She plays straight from her soul & has worked Picnic In The Park every year!! "This year she will deliver with the goods again playing uplifting fun tunes with something for everyone. This is one feast event you don't want to miss! Put on your dancing shoes, this ones gonna rock!!!

Beccy Cole -A Country Outing

Her career began over 20 years ago as a teen singing in her Mum's band & busking on the streets of Tamworth with Kasey Chambers. Beccy has toured with Willie Nelson, Kenny Rogers, Glen Campbell and Don McClean. She has been a regular on Australian Television, performed with The Wiggles and has been set in wax in a museum. In 2000 Beccy was proud to sing for her Prime Minister, yet controversially in 2007 declined an invitation to sing for then American President, George W Bush. She has received 9 Golden Guitars, 2 Entertainer of the Year awards and 3 Gold Records. Beccy's 'Songs & Pictures' album has already produced 3 number ones.

'A Country Outing' will delight audiences with a blend of humour and energy and will showcase the honesty in Beccy's lyrics. She will share stories leading up to & following her coming out on 'Australian Story'.

FRUIT

FRUIT formed in Adelaide in 1995, packed out venues across Australia, toured internationally for 10 years, released 8 albums and became one of Australia's hardest working independent bands.

FRUIT's infectious appeal lies in its dynamic live performance and exquisite use of seamless harmony. The line up of Sam Lohs, Susie Keynes and Mel Watson, wielding acoustic and electric guitars and an arsenal of horns, backed up in style by the snap-lock brotherly groove of Yanya Boston on drums and Brian Ruiz on bass.

After 12 years together and with other life choices beckoning, FRUIT shelved itself in November 2006, with a final performance in Seattle.

They never got to say thank you, in musical terms, to their hometown crowd in Adelaide. This will be rectified at FEAST.

'It will be a powerhouse. There will be a lot of raw emotion. Voices will soar, horns will blare and we won't finish until the power is pulled' Susie Keynes

12pm - The Emma Wall Band

Emma Wall is an artist that you will never forget. Her music is bursting with power and emotion and she stuns audiences with diversity, passion, and a fresh approach to life and music. Emma's self-taught guitar style is dynamic and impressive. She laughs that 'without having been taught you simply can't make mistakes', and this philosophy has enabled her powerful non-traditional playing style.

12-5pm, Sunday 18 November - The Campsite Cinema

Enjoy great ideas, passionate opinions, controversial views and funny facts from a rainbow range of gueers. Gold coin donation per session.

11am - 12pm, Grumpy Old Queers

Growing old is definitely not for the fainthearted. There is a lot of hype around about the joys of queer ageing but it's also a pain in the bum, in the knee, in the hip and the hip pocket! This session is about being politically incorrect, having a whinge, telling it how it is and having a laugh. A panel of grumpy old queers kick off this complaint-fest; then add your two bob's worth. Find out how to survive the slippery slope of advancing years, enjoy hearing other people's problems, come out about your own and celebrate what's bloody awful about getting older.

12 - 1pm, Children of Queer Parents Answer Back

Children of queer parents are increasingly the subject of debates on queer family and queer rights. We are told we are sure to have problems, that children need a mother and father and our parents are not ok. The numbers of children with queer parents is increasing. Children from planned queer families are coming of age. Children of the lesbian baby boom are now young adults. What do us kids have to say for ourselves? Come hear stories, opinions and hopes for the future. If you are a young person and want to be involved in this session contact gipsy_hosking@hotmail.com.

1 - 2pm, The Future of SA's Queer Youth Services

Being a teenager is never easy. Questioning sexuality or gender identity in a society where heterosexuality is seen as normal adds another challenge to the mix. The last two years has seen an upheaval of longestablished support services for queer youth in Adelaide. Come and find out about the current situation, what services are out there and what isn't. What do queer youth want? Specialised services? Safe social spaces? Could we, the community, establish a viable youth centre? Join the conversation.

2 - 3pm, Building Transgender Community

There are many transgender people in Adelaide with a rainbow of diverse life style choices, Many terms have been given and adopted; Gender Queer, Transsexual, Sister-girl, Transman, Transwoman, Gender fluid, Gender bender, SheMale, Transvestite, Cross dresser, Bigender, Third gender and many. many more. This session brings together a rich variety of trans Adelaideans to explore what we have in common, what unites us and what keeps us apart, what we want and how we see ourselves in the future and in relation to the rest of the our community. Come, pay respect and hear what we have to say.

3 - 4pm, Drag Queens Talk

Drag queens only come out at night. Drag Kings are rare in Adelaide. Drag artists are an emerging phenomenon. Show girls are respected performers in the late night scene. The stereotype of DQs is bitchy, competitive and scary yet how many of us have ever spoken to a Drag Queen or King. Come and hear members of the drag community talk about why they do drag, performance styles and venues, drag relationships, their place in the queer scene and their hair, makeup and costumes. Drag yourself along.

4 - 5pm, Queer spaces. Do we want them? Do we need them? Do we care?

A queer space is a place where we can do and be who we are. How many are there in Adelaide at the moment? If we had what we wanted what would it look like? Would enough of us go there to make it worthwhile? Are queer pubs what we want anyway? Do queer spaces outside the city of Adelaide exist? Are there creative alternatives? A panel of queers with ideas will get the conversation going then join in and see what happens.

5 - 6pm, All the World's a Stage

Countless queers have graced the stages of Australia and the world over the years. Some might say the theatre has always been a refuge for our community, but how do young queer folk get involved? How can Feast help? Join University of Adelaide Theatre Guild Artistic Director Edwin Kemp Attrill and a panel of local youth theatre representatives as they ponder these questions and more.

Intersex & Male Lactation A Conversation

Adelaide authors Anna Solding and Zanesh Catkin discuss their fiction in a free-ranging conversation with the audience. The Hum of Concrete is an elegant constellation of stories about mothers, with intersex a powerful theme. Pangamonium is a comic novel about a cynical journalist who finds love on a mock-epic adventure, leading to a spontaneous outpouring of milk to save the life of his companion, Easter.

Coming of Age 2012

Feast Emerging Artist Group Exhibition

Continuing a long held Feast tradition of supporting local lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer emerging visual artists, Feast is once again extremely proud to present work from these fabulous artists who might just be the next big thing! Proudly supported by the SALA Festival.

A). Jimmy 'Dotty' Palmer - An exciting Aboriginal artist, originally from Coober Pedy. His people are the Kokatha tribe. Jimmy's style of dot painting is contemporary and unique expressing his heritage, his personal experience and his vibrant and outgoing personality, B). John McKiernan - A local Adelaide artist of Irish heritage who is actively working towards a society of peacefulness. John expresses himself through poetry and multi-media arts and he uses tin, photo, wood, leaves and moulds it around painting.

C). Ladies of The Cross by Annette Summers - Annette's work continues to feature the amazing transgender ladies of 1970's Kings Cross, captured in the burlesque clubs and cabarets, snapshots of a time that may otherwise be forgotten. As one of those ladies herself, she hopes that her work will be appreciated & enjoyed.

D). Lip Serviced by Karin Roberts - A series of digital artwork based mainly around a first kiss, along with expressing individuality in a colourful, textural, grungy and proud way. www.visualsoul.com.au

E). Little Creatures by Amalia Grace Thompson - A replication of a childhood world filled with the unnerving fear of monstrous creatures that live inside us and when the monster comes from our imagination there is nowhere to hide. In this installation the creatures play hieronymously throughout the x-ray of my chest.

F). Masculinity by Patrick A Manimaran - It is about learning from past mistakes. It is about understanding that to be a man is to experience the journey, joys and pain of one's life wholeheartedly. Having the strength to let go of hopes and dreams that once gave joy and meaning, to make space for dreams now yet to come. http://www.redbubble.com/people/mampatwh

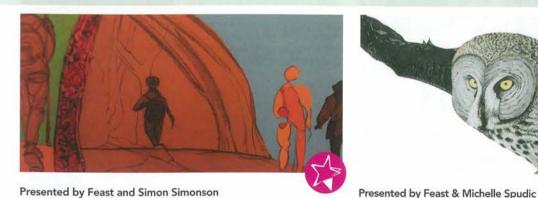

G). Mitch lanni - Beautiful imagery of the mind. Different colours, shapes and sizes moving all around in my head. I only see what I think. That which comes out through my emotions, my heart, through my hands to the pencil or paintbrush. Through my art I will discover the real person.

H). Tracey Hansell - Discovering the small pleasures in life and capturing them in timeless images, from a single drop of rain to gilded pages of the oldest book, Tracey's collection of fine prints endeavour to uncover the simplest of beauties that are more often than not overlooked or dismissed as mundane.

1). Michelle Willsmore - An exhibition by emerging artist, Michelle Lee Willsmore, that captures intimacy, sensual moments and the erotic. Evocative print studies of female couples and male nudes displayed in lightboxes, and photographic images revealing the moments that arouse. michellelee.redbubble.com

Concrete Cross

Contemporary Australian Aboriginal art is a multi-layered art practice that utilises compelling politics. Aboriginal Art that addresses the urban Aboriginal condition reflects upon a rich sociocultural history that is inter-connected with identity, place and the environment. Displacement and government policies have resulted in a fractured discourse and in what is now a post-apology political landscape, art remains critical as a tool for further reconciliatory acts. Concrete Cross brings together a body of works that examine both the intimacy and isolation.

Simmer - Gary Lee Portraits

Simmer offers a delectably bold degustation of 30 male photographic portraits drawn from several discrete series by celebrated Larrakia photographer Gary Lee: On the Verge, Nice Coloured Boys, Day Visitor, and adonis pacifica, together with portraits from his 2012 residency in China, and a selection based on his favourite muses. Lee's portraits simmer with visual and cultural intelligence while casually upending mainstream hype.

The Aboriginal Elders Village Garden Project

Aboriginal gay and lesbian members of Feast's Queer Gifted and Black group, Moolagoo Mob and Blak Lemons initiated the project of creating a series of gardens at the Elders Village. Elders' ideas included native plantings, FRUIT trees, a fire pit, raised vegetable beds, a water feature and more. With Elders' input, Feast's coordination, landscape designers' visions and students' skills a series of beautiful sensory gardens have been created. You're welcome to visit.

For the first time ever Feast Festival has a principal sponsor, ANZ Bank. We welcome their investment, enthusiasm and close involvement as ANZ and Feast come together to share our goal of taking this well loved event and making it even better. I can assure you that ANZ's commitment has made an incredible difference - so enjoy the ANZ Hub.

Government sponsors and funding partners have not only provided much needed financial support they have actively assisted us to make our dreams a reality in so many ways. Thanks to Arts SA, SA Tourism and Adelaide City Council.

Thank you so much to our new sponsors and the organisations who support Feast year after year – you keep our festival heart beating.

A massive thanks goes out to our outstanding volunteer force who can be seen throughout the festival in a rainbow variety of roles. Special thanks our core team of volunteers who keep the office running throughout the year - we could not have done without you in 2012.

Feast acknowledges the efforts of all our supporters including artists, Feast 500 members, supporting businesses, clubFEAST members, friends, the media and the LGBTIQ and broader community.

I extend my personal thanks to the Feast team who have worked tirelessly this year.

All that is left to do now is for you to enjoy the very special festival we have planned for you.

Convere tipe

Lorraine Tyler, General Manager

Our volunteer team will swell to almost 200 during the festival. Unfortunately, some of those would have registered after the guide went to print for which we apologise. Feast takes this opportunity to thank every single volunteer for their efforts and support, without you, we couldn't make it happen.

To him it's just a glass of water.

He's not thinking about his health. Like countless South Australian kids before him, he's focused on improving his game and enjoying the company of his team mates.

That glass of water is simply there to quench his thirst.

Supporting individuals and communities to be their best through the provision of clean, safe drinking water and reliable wastewater services is something we have delivered since 1856.

With support of local business and the South Australian community, together we achieve a lot:

> We are a national leader in water conservation, wastewater treatment and recycling

> We're internationally known for our excellence in water research and innovation

> We have developed the infrastructure and behaviour to help secure our water supply for decades to come > We employ some of the country's leading water scientists and experts

> We invest in future generations through our graduate and traineeship program So every time you have a glass of water - enjoy it and get on with what you're doing.
