WELCOME TO FEAST 2014!

Our theme this year is INDULGE - and that's exactly what we want you to do! Dive in, indulge and savour all that we have on offer.

For the first time in its 18 year history the festival has been fully curated, meaning the quality of the program is second to none. There are so many events to whet your appetite (and in some cases literally "wet" it!), you'll be thinking, talking and mulling over it all for months to come.

It is with great pride that we welcome

Olympic and Commonwealth Games gold medallist Matthew Mitcham as our official 2014 Feast Ambassador, and performer with his show Twists and Turns. Not only a champion sportsman, cabaret and media star, Matthew is a true gentleman and important role model for all of us - he truly is pure gold!

We're also thrilled to host international artists Buck Angel, Horse and Odidi Mfenyana and Australian legends Carlotta, Bob Downe, Anne Wills, Hannah Gadsby, Maude Davey and Michael Griffiths, who will join other interstate and local artists such as Leith Semmens and Mark Bowden in a program chock full of music, theatre, comedy, cabaret and visual art.

Also new this year is our fabulous INDULGE lounge bar in the Lion Arts Courtyard, a seriously sexy place to slink to in between shows where you can grab a drink and a bite to eat, and mix with the artists.

Our LGBTIQ community is our bedrock and I thank you all for everything you bring to Feast. Thank you to our Board, staff, volunteers, sponsors, strategic partners and of course YOU, our audience. The Feast Festival is a time to celebrate the achievements we have gained, and rejoice in what makes us different. It is also a time to remember and reflect that there still is a lot to do, that there are many people in the world who are not able to practise or celebrate their diverse sexuality or gender, yet alone "indulge". So with them in mind I ask you to embrace our festival, grab a friend, your mum, dad, or your workmate, take a risk and go see something that you may never normally contemplate seeing.

INDULGE because you can!

Catherine Fitzgerald
Artistic Director 2014

WELCOME TO THE BEST FEAST FESTIVAL YET!

I am delighted to welcome everyone back to enjoy another exciting and indulgent 15 days of must-see events and unforgettable queer art and culture.

I would like to thank our Principal Partner ANZ, Arts SA, Events South Australia, and all of our wonderful Feast sponsors for their continued significant support of this unique and very relevant celebration within the queer community and the South Australian Festivals calendar.

I look forward to seeing you INDULGE at Feast this year.

Cassandra Liebeknecht
General Manager,
Feast 2014

JOSH RAYNER

Feast Chair

Feasters! Welcome back to what will undoubtedly go down as one of the best Feast Festivals yet. Feast as a celebration of diversity through the artistic endeavours of queer artists is firmly entrenched as an institutional icon of Adelaide's dynamic festival and arts scene. This year, the 18th for Feast, is set to be a beacon for emerging artists and quite frankly, a great environment to socialise and challenge one's perceptions.

I hope you enjoy!

NINNA MARNI (Kurna words for "Hello, how are you")

Feast would like to acknowledge that this land we meet on during the Festival is the traditional lands of the Kurna people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their country. We also acknowledge the Kurna People as the custodians of the Adelaide region and that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still as important to the living Kurna Elders and through them to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

THE HON.
JAY WEATHERILL
Premier of South Australia

As the Premier of South Australia I am proud to support the 2014 Feast Festival. Since its inception in 1997 Feast has continued to showcase an array of exceptionally talented artists, and 2014 is no exception.

This year's program provides a myriad of exciting cultural events, presenting a wonderful opportunity for all South Australians to celebrate the rich diversity that exists in our community.

I would encourage all South Australians to participate in the 2014 Feast Festival as it is a living, breathing example of the value of an inclusive community and the benefit it brings to all of us.

Jay Weatherill

JACK SNELLING MP
Minister for the Arts

Welcome to the 2014 Feast Festival, a program of arts and culture that is inclusive, diverse and entertaining, all the things that Feast has become known for.

This year's theme, INDULGE, invites everyone to indulge in 15 days of performing and visual arts, theatre, comedy, cabaret, music and forums. Feast draws upon our traditional love of the arts to bring people together in a spirit of inclusion and to indulge in a celebration of diversity.

It is especially good to see that the program reaches from the city's West End into metropolitan and regional South Australia, promoting diversity and inclusion throughout the state.

I wish everyone a successful Feast in 2014.

Jack Snelling

LEON BIGNELL MP
Minister for Tourism

The Feast Festival is a much-loved highlight of the South Australian events calendar. Since 1997 it has shared the unique perspectives and creativity of queer art and culture with a growing audience, along with reinforcing Adelaide's reputation as host of world-class events.

Interstate and international visitors here for Feast are encouraged to explore Adelaide and its beautiful surrounding regions. Enjoy tours of the Adelaide Central Market, local wineries and gardens, plus events in regional centres such as Port Augusta and Mount Gambier.

The South Australian Government is proud to support the Feast Festival. We welcome all visitors to the state and encourage everyone to embrace the exciting range of events on offer.

Leon Bignell

SANDY VERSCHOOR
*General Manager
City Culture &
Community Services,
Adelaide City Council*

Welcome to the City of Adelaide as we celebrate the 2014 Feast Festival.

Adelaide City Council is proud to recognise the significant contribution the LGBTIQ community has upon the social and cultural fabric of our City.

Feast is a wonderful time to get out and explore a variety of emerging and acclaimed performers, who will charm, surprise and delight you.

Embrace all that is diversity.

Sandy Verschoor

Feast Ambassador 2014 Matthew Mitcham

I'm incredibly honoured to receive the title of 2014 Feast Festival Ambassador, and in this role I encourage Australians everywhere to join me in Adelaide for this annual celebration of queer culture and diversity.

Writing this message from the Games in Scotland, I'm reminded that, in many of the countries represented here, the ability to lead a LGBTIQ lifestyle is very different to what we enjoy in Australia with none of the rights that are afforded to us. So let's use this Festival to celebrate how far we have come, to give voice to removing discrimination and anti-gay bigotry wherever they exist and to support all those of our community - particularly our youth - to join together with pride to address the remaining issues of inequity still facing LGBTIQ people.

I'm really looking forward to meeting
(and entertaining you) at Feast!

Matt xx

Presented by Pride March Adelaide

PRIDE MARCH

Celebrate Adelaide’s LGBTIQ love, strength and the rainbow diversity of our many sexualities and genders in the annual Pride March through the centre of the city.

This year Pride March brings together more community groups, community members, supportive businesses, activists and friends than ever before in one huge, magnificent parade from Victoria Square through the streets of Adelaide to Feast’s Opening Night Party on Hindley Street West.

Led by a cavalcade of motor bikes we’ll groove down Gouger and Morphett streets, rain or shine, to spread love, happiness and joy.

To register your group visit www.prideadelaide.org. Individuals can just join the march on the night.

PARADE ROUTE: Victoria Square/Tardanyangga, west on Gouger Street, north on Morphett Street through to Hindley Street West.

Gather at Victoria Square/Tardanyangga, Adelaide – assemble near the fountain at the southern end of the square.

OPENING NIGHT PARTY

We’ve turned 18 so we are... dancing in the street!

Join us as we take over Hindley Street West for an 18th birthday party you’ll never forget.

Hosted by Australian entertainment icon Bob Downe this will be the party of a lifetime featuring performances by Scottish singing sensation Horse, Melbourne electro pop band Asian Envy, and Adelaide’s own DJ JoSH spinning hot tracks until well past bedtime.

Join Australia’s Got Talent sensation LayDee KinMee the yodelling drag queen in a yodel-hoe-down with her sexy boy dancers, and deaf singer “Lorri” Lorraine Butler in a classic hits “sign-along” (that’s a sing-along with a twist). Or hit the dancefloor and get your heart pumping with Adelaide’s hottest dancers YOUNG GUNZ and retro 1980s aerobics gurus Spandexx Ballet.

There will be dedicated Feast bars, community stalls, and tasty treats from the Fork on the Road, Caos Cafe, Worlds End Hotel, New India Restaurant and Phatt Coffee.

You only turn 18 once, so stay out late and party with Feast!

All tickets $10 available at the door. Pre-booking is recommended. Book online: www.feast.org.au

Want to party hard? Join us from 1am at the Feast Official After Party at Caos Cafe Bar incorporating the Register Street outdoor arena and stage, where DJ Shane Cross will keep the tunes coming so you can get your dance on until 5am. (Please note: no admittance after 3am)

Matthew Mitcham
TWISTS AND TURNS

Olympic and Commonwealth Games gold medallist Matthew Mitcham steps off the diving board and onto the stage in this award-winning cabaret show exploring the highs and lows of life in the international spotlight through theatre and song.

One of the only Olympians to compete at the event as openly gay, Mitcham quickly became a role model for LGBTIQ youth. But behind the cheeky smile of a national hero was a teenager plagued by low self-esteem, depression and drug abuse, threatening to make it all unravel.

Based on Mitcham’s best-selling autobiography of the same name and told with the honesty and courage he is admired for, Twists and Turns is the darkly funny, foot-tapping, inspiring story of a true champion both in and out of the pool.

Directed by Nigel Turner-Carroll

INDULGE LOUNGE

Looking for a drink or a bite to eat in between shows? Slink into the deliciously decadent INDULGE Lounge, your number one relaxation destination at the festival.

Designed by Adelaide’s go-to-guys of style Cain and Markus for LB Events, the INDULGE Lounge in the Lion Arts courtyard is an opulent space fit for a king, a queen, and all those who haven’t quite made up their minds...

Contained within a weather-controlled marquee, INDULGE boasts the signature style Cain and Markus have become known for, with glamorous Hollywood Hills furniture and modern baroque accessories – the perfect backdrop to an inulgent night of partying.

With food and drinks by Peta-Anne Louth and Jacinta Warnest of Bespoke Hospitality and Events, INDULGE will be memorable, entertaining and just a little naughty.

Kick up your heels, take a load off and INDULGE a little.

PICNIC IN THE PARK AT PINKY FLAT

(Pinky Flat - possibly derived from pingku 'bilby' in Kaurna)

Pack your hampers and join us for a giant rainbow-coloured picnic on the lush lawns of Pinky Flat, on the banks of Karrawirra Parri/the River Torrens.

This annual family event is always one of Feast’s most popular, and this year will be bigger and better than ever with traditional favourites including the Feast Dog Show, a tug-of-war with the Metropolitan Fire Service, DJ Lush and DJ Shane Cross as well as gourmet delights by the Fork on the Road food vans and the fabulous Feast Bar with great wine, cider and beer.

Feeling naughty? Indulge in some adults-only fun in the lube wrestling pit, a Feast classic back by popular demand. Or jump on the mechanical bull – a brand new feature this year for adventurous cowboys and gals who like to ride.

And there will be plenty of fun for children of all ages with a Princess bouncy castle, an inflatable boxing ring, face painting, volleyball and bocce, as well as heaps of community stalls to browse in.

INTERNATIONAL SINGING SENSATION: HORSE

Hailed as one of the UK's all-time greatest singers, Scottish superstar Horse McDonald is quite simply a vocal phenomenon.

Having toured with such legends as Tina Turner, BB King, Bryan Ferry and Burt Bacharach, last year she released her ninth studio album Home to rave reviews, with critics calling it "a joyous celebration of love" and "one of her very, very best".

In 2012 she sang and played guitar on The L Project's single It Does Get Better, which raised money for suicide prevention among LGBTIQ youth, and her hit song Careful was covered by UK Pop Idol winner Will Young.

With her rich, velvety voice, powerful lyrics and passion to match, Horse will leave you breathless. Horse is music royalty – not to be missed.

ANGEL IN THE CITY OF CHURCHES

Award-winning trans porn star and LGBTI icon Buck Angel hits Feast for a week of inspiring, sexy and fun events.

Known as "the world's most famous transgender man", Buck Angel isn't just an icon of the LGBTI community, he's a worldwide pop culture phenomenon.

Born a girl in Los Angeles, California, Buck is internationally renowned for his pioneering role as the first transsexual man to enter the mainstream adult entertainment industry.

He single handedly redefined porn for a new generation, in 2007 becoming the first man to win the AVN Transsexual Performer of the Year award – the adult industry's equivalent of an Oscar.

But Buck is more than just a transman and pornographer. An inspirational speaker, sex educator, writer and advocate for LGBTI rights, his message of empowerment through self-acceptance and being sexually comfortable in one's own skin has struck a chord with people all over the world.

Buck not only inspires people to think outside the box, he redefines gender and shines a spotlight on the fluidity of sexuality and identity politics.

"The way that I have learned to educate is with humour and understanding. I let people know that for me, it's OK to ask any question you like, even if you feel like it will offend me"

– Buck Angel

"Buck is so inspirational and full of positive energy, care and love. He actively helps break down barriers and helps people process their fears and prejudices. He truly is an angel"

CARLOTTA: LIVE & INTIMATE

This candid cabaret show is an intimate and brutally honest exposè of the private life of one of Australia's most public people - iconic trans entertainer Carlotta.

The former reigning queen of Les Girls, Carlotta regales her audience with stories of working in the "Golden Mile era" of Kings Cross, her appearances on classic Australian TV shows, and what it's like to be a household name.

Punctuating the decades with punchlines all the way, Carlotta peels away the mask of the iconic Australian entertainer, laying bare both the struggle and thrill of living life as a groundbreaking female performer.

Told with her unique frankness and bawdy humour, Carlotta: Live & Intimate reveals the ruthlessness of the entertainment industry, the trappings of success and the ultimate vulnerability of being the first "Queen of Les Girls".

TASTING THE MARKET WITH MALT BISCUIT AND MARY ANNE

The throbbing heart of Adelaide’s food scene for more than 140 years, the world famous Central Market houses more than 80 stalls selling all sorts of fresh produce from locally made cheeses to artisanal bread, coffee, olive oil, spices and cured meats.

Stimulate your senses with the sights and smells of this South Australian icon on a fun tour with celebrity host Malt Biscuit and food and wine expert Mary Anne Kennedy.

Start with a delicious breakfast of fresh croissants, espresso coffee and eggs florentine, then it’s time to play Market Challenge: sample the delights and find the clues you need to claim the “Market Queen” crown.

Afterwards you can explore the fabulous restaurant precinct around the market, including local favourite Chinatown, and try to decide where to “do lunch”. We’ll help you sleuth out the best.

Includes breakfast croissants, coffee/tea and eggs florentine, the Market Challenge and champagne.

BECOME A FOSTER CARER

CHANGE A CHILD'S LIFE

We are looking for compassionate people who can provide a nurturing and stable home to a child or young person.

There are many young people who need opportunities to experience the care and support they may have missed out on in their earlier years.

Carers can be single males or females or couples. We provide our carers with:

- 24/7 support
- Extensive training, and
- A tax-free reimbursement of $650 per week.

If you have a spare bedroom, experience caring for or working with children and time to give, we'd love to hear from you.

BUSHWAACKING

Star of international hit House of the Holy Afro, Odidiva returns to Adelaide with a risqué cabaret show that explores the politics of being "black, gay and loving" in South Africa.

Equal parts singer, rapper, poet, comedian, dancer and rock star, Odidiva is an entertainment tour de force wrapped in a sexy and dangerous drag persona with a political edge.

The alter-ego of Cape Town performer Odidi Mfenyana, Odidiva challenges misogyny, homophobia and bigotry through powerhouse performances of original songs and evocative covers of classic hits by everyone from Dusty Springfield to INXS.

A dynamic blend of song, slam poetry, hip-hop, stand up comedy and social commentary, with choreography that blends American Voguing and Waacking with African culture, Bushwaacking is a joyful celebration of diversity as a source of pride.

"Odidiva climbs the stairway to heaven... for a few moments I thought I'd died and gone to heaven" – Mail and Guardian

"Hyper-talented ... a shaman, a seductress, a high-heeled, glamazon break dancer" – The New York Theatre Review

"I have sent people across continents to see Odidiva" – Ruby Wax

Created by: Odidi Mfenyana for EVOCATIVE innovation
Music Production: Morné Marais of The Sound Surgeon in association with Douglas Armstrong and Charl Kruger
Costume & Production Design: Odidi Mfenyana and Annie Seegers of Annie's Wardrobe

Maude Davey MY LIFE IN THE NUDE

After more than 30 years of taking her clothes off in public, nude burlesque queen Maude Davey has finally had enough. It's time for less make-up and more clothes, so join her for this tantalising and bewitching farewell cabaret spectacular – her swan song to three decades of nude performance.

A celebration of her body of work (literally), My Life in the Nude is a ribald retrospective, a cabaret confession, in which Davey bares all for the very last time.

An acclaimed writer, theatre-maker and performer, and former artistic director of Adelaide's own Vitalstatistix Theatre Company, Davey brings the stage to life as she celebrates her body and a career spent in the buff in this hilarious and captivating nude cabaret show.

Hilarious and profound in equal parts, this personal history of queer, subversive performance is not to be missed.

"Arrestingly clever ... delicious" – Sydney Morning Herald

"A success and delight... an affecting piece of cabaret" – The Music

"Beautiful, moving and affirming - and I'm thrilled to see her c*** any time" – Sometimes Melbourne Theatre Talk

BEAU HEARTBREAKER: ONE WOMAN PERFORMING AS ONE VERY ENDEARING BLOKE

After an extensive national and international tour, this multi-award winning comedy cabaret character is back in Adelaide for three shows only. The creation of seasoned performer Selina Jenkins, Beau Heartbreaker is a story-telling, down-to-earth country boy, a troubadour in an Akubra, and bloody nice bloke. He’s also a woman in a beard. With an astonishing vocal ability, depth and sincerity, and remarkably convincing swagger, Beau presents a delightful mix of hilarious tales and brilliantly composed songs.

TED SETNIKAR: THE LACEMAKER’S SON

Ted Setnikar was just four years old when his alcoholic father sold him for two litres of schnapps and a handful of cigarettes. The youngest of 10 children, he had already lost his mother, a lacemaker, who was killed on his first birthday. After years spent in servitude in communist Slovenia, suffering severe neglect and physical and psychological abuse, he eventually made his way to Australia to start a new life. Join him as he shares his deeply moving life experience and celebrate his inspirational generosity and passion for helping others. Hosted by Susan Bruce.

A FEW OF MY FAVOURITE THINGS: MARC D BOWDEN

In a world with more than seven billion people it’s not uncommon to occasionally feel overwhelmed. A Few of My Favourite Things documents a pursuit of beauty – not as indulgence, hedonism, or luxury, but as a restorative ... a measure of solace. Something we all occasionally need, and rarely permit.

BUCK STOPS HERE: BUCK ANGEL IN CONVERSATION WITH NICK MITZEVICH

What is it like to be a muse? To be immortalised in bronze, buck naked to the world? American transgender icon, actor and activist Buck Angel will join Art Gallery of South Australia Director Nick Mitzevich for an in-depth look at his life-sized sculpture by British artist Mark Quinn, and an exploration of what it’s like to be the subject of a creative vision. Quinn is represented in major galleries around the world with his exquisite, somewhat confronting studies of real people. Why did he choose to immortalise Buck? Nick and Buck will delve into the psyche of the artist and the evolving relationship with his subject. The conversation will be followed by a general Q & A. An event not to be missed.

ECLECTIC DANDY: LEITH SEMMENS

Dandy: Used widely in late 20th Century England. Refers to men who consider themselves to be arbiters of culture, refinement and wit. Often considered effeminate and/or overtly flaming. Most likely sexually aroused by other men, but not always. Similar to today’s “metrosexual”, “hipster” and “bear”. For example, most of Oscar Wilde’s plays contain dandies; Oscar Wilde himself is perhaps the most famous dandy of them all.

EMULATE: DEREK SARGENT

Emulate is concerned with the development of identity and sexuality in the formative years of adolescence. It explores the extent to which heteronormative culture enforces and oppresses imagery and thought, focusing on the lack of representation of queer adolescents in popular culture and the counter-reading that can be produced to view self-reflective imagery. Derek Sargent is a sculptor and installation artist based in Adelaide.

TRANSGENDER UNITY

Unity in the gender diverse community is something we all strive for, but how far have we come in achieving our goal? Did the recent ANZPATH Conference help close some of the gaps? We invite all community members and interested parties to come and express their views in a safe and welcoming space.

Representatives from SAISO, GendaSA, Carrousel, Befriend, ANZPATH and other relevant organisations and individuals are encouraged to put forward panellists.

Interested in being on the panel? Contact Kristyana Finch at flirtiefree@hotmail.com

A BABY: I WANT ONE TOO!

Learn about surrogacy laws and the changing face of the Australian family at this special forum featuring legal and academic experts, and a gay couple who has experienced the surrogacy process first hand. What are the surrogacy laws for gay men and infertile women? What are the rights of the parents, child and surrogate and how do they differ? What defines a parent, and how many parents can a child now have? Is commercial surrogacy just exploitation of women in non-Western countries? In a world where medicine and science are accelerating past the legal system’s ability to keep up, we need to wrap our heads and hearts around the question: can we really have everything we want just because we can pay for it? Join the team as they traverse the slippery slope of creating families in the modern age.

Featuring Family Law Specialist, Jeremy Culshaw from Culshaw Miller Divorce, Family and Surrogacy Lawyers, Ass. Prof. Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, Head Discipline of Women’s studies, School of Social and Policy Studies Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences (FU), Dr. Damien W. BUCKING THE SYSTEM

Actor, motivational speaker and transgender icon Buck Angel shares his moving personal life story and the process of his gender transition from female to male, while challenging the audience’s notions of masculinity and femininity. Buck will describe how he changed from a desperately unhappy and uncomfortable individual to a person who is sexually comfortable and proud of his body and genitals, which have not been surgically altered. Buck has lead the way for transmen to have self-acceptance without surgery. His message of self-acceptance goes beyond gender and genitals: it is a universal concept of knowing, becoming, and loving yourself.

FIGHT CLUB: MASCULINITIES, VIOLENCE AND FANTASY

Fifteen years after its 1999 release cult classic film Fight Club continues to challenge modern notions of heterosexuality and what it means to be a man. Directed by David Fincher and starring Brad Pitt, Ed Norton and Helena Bonham Carter, the film follows a white collar office worker as he starts an underground fight club and descends into madness, using hyper violence to explore themes of masculinity. Considered by many to be the bastion of male heterosexuality, Fight Club was ironically written, developed and produced by gay men. Watch the film on the big screen and then join producer Ross Grayson Bell, academic Dr William Peterson, Dr. Julia Erhart, and AFL player Henry Slattery (Essendon and now Port Magpies) in a special forum to discuss and dissect ideas of masculinity, sexuality, fantasy and violence as entertainment. Facilitated by Dr Vicki Crowley.

The Fight Club will be screened prior to the forum (twice – see page 45) Producer Ross Grayson suggests you see it twice – in order to help unravel the narrative and look for the subliminal edits.

CARLOTTA (AUSTRALIA, 2014)

See the sensational ABC telemovie Carlotta on the big screen and meet Carlotta herself after the show in an intimate Q&A session.

Long before Australians knew what a transsexual was, Carlotta was pushing the boundaries of gender and sexuality. She was an ambassador for rebellion, freedom, and self-expression: a living, breathing symbol of emerging '60s liberalism. Against the threat of criminal prosecution as well as social rejection, Carlotta emerges as all-conquering drag queen and performer. Spanning 40 years, Carlotta is an uplifting celebration of finding your place in the world and making your mark against all odds.

FIGHT CLUB (USA, 1999)

An insomniac office worker looking for a way to change his life crosses paths with a devil-may-care soap maker and they form an underground fight club that evolves into something much, much more. Capturing the zeitgeist of the 90's, Fight Club is an intriguing exploration of the de-masculinised white male struggling in a world of greed and and power and the desire to claim authenticity and identity.

SEXING THE TRANSMAN (USA, 2011)

Sexing the Transman is a ground-breaking mainstream documentary about FTM sexualities. Angel elicits intimate, in-depth conversations with transmen and those who love them about how their bodies, sexualities, and identities are affected by the medical and social processes of gender transition. The film contains intimate conversations with transmen and their partners, revealing the most personal secrets of their sex lives. Features interviews with Margaret Cho, Lucas Silveira (The Cliks), Ian Harvie, Selene Luna, Chase Ryan, Dylan Ryan, Ayden, Sean Bug, Dan Littlebear, and more.

PORT ADELAIDE

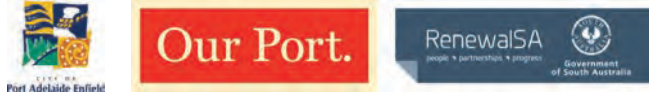

Just 14 km northwest of Adelaide, Port Adelaide was once the main port for South Australia’s capital. It is now home to many artists and members of our LGBITQ community, and has a rich selection of pubs, restaurants and markets.

It boasts proud Aboriginal Kaurna heritage as well as a rich and feisty working class maritime history. The Port River, which is frequented by dolphins (yampu), is surrounded by tall stone warehouse buildings, funky cafes, hotels and galleries.

On Sundays check out the Wild at Hart outdoor markets at Hart’s Mill for fresh produce, great coffee and delicious food (9am -1pm) or the Fisherman’s Wharf Markets for a trinket or antique (9am – 5pm).

Port Adelaide Feast celebrations stretch over the whole of the festival, with events sprinkled throughout the calendar as well as art exhibitions on display for the entire two weeks.

These events are designed to cater for local western suburbs residents as well as to entice non-western residents, interstate and international visitors into the Port area. Enjoy!

PORT ADELAIDE COMEDY CABARET NIGHT

Book early for this one as word from last year will have got around. A fun filled evening of great entertainment from some of Australia’s finest comedians at Gallery Yampu, situated on the Port River in the old sailing club. Sit on the beautiful decking out the front with views across the river and catch a glimpse of a dolphin.

Saturday, November 22nd, 7.30pm (see page 24)
11 Nile Street Port Adelaide.

Michelle Lee Willismore’s fascinating shop front window exhibition Transparent features wall art, window features and light fixtures created with x-rays, on display in the Port Mall Shopping Centre. It’s open all the time, so check it out after having a coffee at Red Lime Shack on St Vincent Street which is also hosting Karin Robert’s SARDONYX Spirit of Strength exhibition. (see page 42)

Travel 10 minutes down the road to beautiful Largs Bay to historic Jetty Street and visit Firgun & Fiire Studio and Gallery: The Art of Clancy Warner and Alec de Wilt. Both are award winning artists who create extraordinary sculptures (see page 41)

Make sure you check out the beautiful Largs Pier Hotel as well as the retro fashion shops and groovy cafes. Then simply follow the coast back to Semaphore for great shopping and eating in a friendly village atmosphere.

THE QUEER YOUTH REGIONAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM

If you are over 18 and live in the regions and would like to come to Feast?

We have set up an exchange program where we will host youth from the regions during the Feast Festival in Adelaide and set up a ‘buddy’ system in order for you to experience our wonderful festival.

We will help find you a suitable billet or accommodation. We will introduce you to other likeminded young people and also provide you with discount tickets to shows and events. Our fabulous Queer Youth Project Committee will ensure that you feel safe and looked after throughout your time here. They have organised a whole series of youth orientated events in our Queer Youth Space located in the West Bar.

You must be over 18 and due to limited numbers will need to apply to be part of the exchange. If you are interested in being part of the exchange please contact either our project officers: Caitlynd and Edwin (ypoc@feast.org.au) or Catherine our Artistic Director ad@feast.org.au

FEAST REGIONAL OUTREACH:
FEAR OR FAVOUR

Feast Festival has teamed up with Gener8Theatre in Mount Gambier to present this very exciting opportunity for local LGBTIQ youth and their peers. The FEAR or FAVOUR PROJECT - theatre and devising workshops.

A unique opportunity to work intensively with members of Gener8 Theatre Company and guest artist Patricia Cornelius in a series of theatre and devising workshops. Participants will be encouraged to work in a mix of group and solo sessions telling their own stories, exploring themes of gender, sexual identity, isolation, violence and sexuality. It is envisaged that some of these stories will eventually progress or influence content of an original theatrical production. This is a wonderful practical theatrical experience not to be missed! Gener8 Theatre is a non-profit professional theatre collective based in Mount Gambier South Australia that creates innovative theatre works in multiple mediums to diverse audiences.

Patricia Cornelius is a playwright, novelist, screenwriter and dramaturg. She has written over twenty five plays and won an impressive array of awards including ten Australian Writers’ Guild awards. Patricia is arguably one of Australia’s most important and influential writers.

FEAST FESTIVAL QUEER YOUTH SPACE

During Feast we will utilise the City West Bar as our Youth Space, where young queer people can meet and feel safe and comfortable. There will be a series of events held in this space throughout the festival. It will also be a great place to meet friends before shows or to meet other young people if you are new to Adelaide. There are also heaps of events in our main program that have been programmed with young people in mind and have endorsed by our Youth Project Committee (look out for the logo).

HORSE @ DROP IN

An intimate, up-close meet and greet with international singing sensation Horse McDonald, exclusive to the Feast Queer Youth Drop In. Horse will talk about her career and life and, of course, sing a song or two. Horse is passionate about young LGBTIQ people and was a key player in the international L Project and the recording of UK charting single It Does Get Better to raise awareness of LGBTIQ bullying and to promote acceptance. 13 Nov 6pm – 9pm, 180 mins. Experience Café, 13 Hutt Street, Adelaide. Doors open 6pm for a 7pm start. Dinner included. FREE.

SATURDAY 15TH PRIDE MARCH

Join our Feast youth and proudly march behind the Feast Queer Youth banner on the opening night of the festival. Afterwards you can dance the night away at the Opening Night party in Hindley Street. Want to help make banners for the march? Come to our Queer Youth Drop In in the lead up to Feast or email ypo@feast.org.au and register your interest.

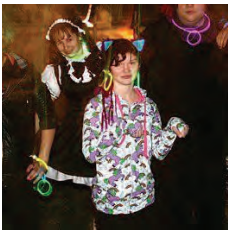

EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT SEX TOYS BUT WERE TOO AFRAID TO ASK

OPPORTUNITY • EQUITY • ACCEPTANCE

A series of fun and feisty events especially for the Bear community.

BAIR ART OPENING AND BEARSTOCK LAUNCH

Internationally exhibited and respected local artist Leith Semmens' illustrations explore many themes from flora and fauna to the built environment and the male form. Starting from a pencil draft, Leith works detail using quill pens and coloured acrylics in freehand parallel lines to create the final image. His delicate use of tone highlights the raw and essential masculinity of his subjects.

FLYING THE RAINBOW FLAG – CELEBRATING DIVERSITY

FLYING THE RAINBOW FLAG

Again this year we wrote to every mayor in every municipal council in South Australia inviting them to show their support for LGBTIQ people and their families living in their area. We asked them to actively contribute to the health and well being of the whole community by flying the rainbow flag for the duration of our Feast Festival, November 15 – 30.

We see this as a simple symbolic way in which councils can help celebrate Feast state-wide, as well as publicly acknowledge their council's role in promoting and celebrating diversity.

Last year 11 councils participated. This year we are pleased to announce that we have thirteen municipal councils participating, including newcomers Port Lincoln, Salisbury and West Torrens.

As of the end of August those councils who will fly the rainbow flag are:

Adelaide City Council

City of Charles Sturt

City of Marion

City of Playford

City of Port Adelaide Enfield

City of Port Augusta

City of Port Lincoln

City of Prospect

City of Salisbury

City of Unley (x3 flags)

District Council of West Torrens

District Council of Mount Barker

Town of Gawler

WE THANK YOU AND SALUTE YOU

“Our Council has officially registered interest to participate in ‘Flying the Rainbow Flag’ project during the FEAST Festival from 15th to 30th November 2014! Very exciting and it will be a proud moment to see the flag flying in the breeze on top of the Port Lincoln Council Chambers during FEAST in 2014! - Eyre Peninsular Pride and Support” (resident of Port Lincoln after the council voted to fly the flag)
