FEAST

"WELCOME FEASTERS!"

"NINNA MARNI"

HELLO, HOW ARE YOU?

FEAST would like to acknowledge that this land we meet on during the Festival is the traditional lands of the Kaurna people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their country. We also acknowledge the Kaurna people as the custodians of the Adelaide region and that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still as important to the living Kaurna Elders and through them to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

WELCOME Welcome friends. 2016 marks the 20th Feast Festival and again we will celebrate diversity and inclusivity with a great array of local artistic endeavour.

A sincere thank you to our ongoing supporters of our organisation. It is the thousands of volunteer hours, many corporate sponsors and our wonderful government partners that allow us to continue to provide such an important platform for local and emerging queer artists.

As many of you are aware Feast has significantly invested in its offering to local artists. With the creation of our Queer Arts and Cultural Hub we hope to provide a space for growing our artists and our community year round. There's a very exciting story unfolding with Feast partnering with more and more organisations to better support our community.

Joshua Rayner

ARE you ready for 2016 Feasters? We have an incredible line-up of artists for you this year right across the board. A fine line-up of cabaret/theatre pieces, many being Adelaide premiere's along with an amazing ensemble of comedians and visual art as far as the eye can see!

We are looking forward to sharing all of this with you in our new Queer Arts and Cultural hub that won't just be open during Feast but throughout the year, because we know we can share a lot more with you over the other 350 days of the year.

So make sure you get out and about this Feast and support all the local, interstate and international artistic talent we have on offer for you.

HAPPY Feast! Once again, Feast Festival is bursting at the seams with a dazzling array of Australia's finest queer comedy, cabaret, literature, film and visual art. It's the perfect time of year to be entertained, inspired and to connect with the wider queer community.

I'm especially excited about the launch of the new Queer Arts and Cultural Hub and look forward to seeing it flourish with programming all year round. And be sure not to miss the world premiere of locally made feature film 'Hand Grenade'. See you at the Hub!

BRINGING ALL YOUR NEWS HOME

NIGHTLY 6PM

IN the past five years, Adelaide has been transformed into an exciting, vibrant city. In 2013, we were named one of Lonely Planet's "Top 10 Cities to Visit" in the world. And last year we made the New York Times list of "52 places to go in 2015". Adelaide was the only Australian city to receive these accolades. Today, we're going from strength to strength - investing in our arts and culture, enlivening our laneways, and recently being named a UNESCO City of Music.

Festivals such as Feast - along with OzAsia, the Fashion Festival and Cheesefest - are helping to make Adelaide the place to be. We're the place to be not only during our famous February-March summer festival season, but also in the spring, with some exciting new ideas being trialled in winter. If you haven't visited South Australia recently, I invite you to come and see what we have to offer. You won't be disappointed!

Something new AROUND EVERY CORNER

Lose yourself in Adelaide's network of laneways that wind their way from the busy eateries in Chinatown to the pubs and clubs of the West End. Down well-worn steps, and between old stone facades, the chatter of gin bars and cocktail lounges blends in with jazz bands and dub-step. With something new around every corner you never know what you'll trip over. And as the sun sets and your stomach rumbles you'll find the best food trucks parked next to fine dining while tapas is served nearly as late as the all night takeout joints.

THE LANE VINEYARD ♥

WWW.THELANE.COM.AU

WHAT started out as a blue sky opportunity for their parents in 1993 has become an unexpected calling for brothers Marty and Ben Tolstoshev. John and Helen Tolstoshev bought the property that has now become the Lane Vineyard over 20 years ago, positioned right in the heart of the Adelaide Hills.

But in September last year, they retired and passed the baton to their sons. "The old man used to say to me 'we're an overnight success that actually took 20 years,'" Ben says, with a laugh.

"It has taken a long time - since we planted in 1993, we've outgrown its inception.

"Mum and dad were the pioneers and they saw an opportunity to realize a dream."

While the parents were more 'blue sky entrepreneurs,' Ben and Marty see their job now as 'custodians of the land' - continuing and building on the prestige and lineage passed onto them.

"We really want to hand it onto the next generation," Ben says.

"I've got twin boys, they're hilarious and just into everything and my brother has a beautiful little daughter. But time will tell.

"It's an amazing opportunity for us to keep polishing." Ben worked as a designer and art director for South Australian wineries, and Marty gave up his day job as an underwater clearance diver in the Navy to take on their new roles.

"He brings the military precision to it," Ben adds.

"It's a really good ying and yang relationship, we're good mates too. We're here for fun as well as business."

The Lane Vineyard is a winery, a vineyard, and it even has a tasting room. Not to mention its wines are seen in some of the hottest international restaurants, bistros and bars - and it is the top listed brand from the Adelaide Hills in restaurants in Australia.

"We've always seen the potential of the vineyards as they're quite special sights, it's been a long held dream to carry on the evolution of the business," Ben says.

"I think there's a generosity spirit (here), and it's a very welcoming place. There's nothing presumptuous about it, it's a quintessential Aussie experience. Casual bliss you can really come and taste through the wines at your leisure, or sit down and have lunch, from a chef's tables. There's a vibrancy and an energy to our place, the view is just spectacular."

There is something for everybody with wines ranging from below $20 to over $100.

"Our wines really have elegance, finesse and purity," he says.

"They have one foot in the old world and one foot in the new world."

The vineyard is the perfect place for a visitor in the region for the Feast Festival. It offers great value that you can "cog up or down."

"It's all about relaxing and slowing down, it's really a beautiful place with regional produce and lets you relax and soak it all up," Ben says.

"We're not a pretentious at all, that's what garners us to the LGBTI community. It's just a natural fit."

Open seven days a week between 10am and 4pm, the vineyard offers an array of opportunities for locals and tourists alike to enjoy a day out.

And if you're a fan of the 13 wines created on their estate, they offer complimentary freight Australia-wide.

They're also about to debut a new pink sparkling, that is sure to get your tastebuds tingling.

To find out more about the Lane Vineyard, visit their website at thelane.com.au. And make sure you pop in for a visit during the Feast Festival - you won't regret it.

BEHIND THE SCENES PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBITION

HOW do we see ourselves and how are we seen? 'Behind the Scenes' by Robert Knapman is a fly-on-the-wall black and white photography project about everyday contemporary LG-BTIQ Adelaide lives. You are invited into the worlds of drag queens in dressing rooms, lesbian love nests, being black and queer, trans suburban families, male fetish play scenes, the lovers and the loved, and holding hands in public. The images are often honest, thought-provoking or challenging. In the seeing we see ourselves seen.

BEING SANDRA. EXPLORING TRANSGENDER THROUGH PHOTOGRAPHY

GENDERED interaction between adults and children begins as soon as the gender of a baby is known. From the moment we are born we are subject to a range of gender-specific messages and expectations. These are based solely on the nature of our genitals.

My project explores what life is like for those individuals whose gender identity falls somewhere outside of society's expectations. When photographing people who identify with being Transgender I am most astounded by my subjects resilience and strength.

A PHOTOGRAPHIC statement of 100 anonymous nipples grouped together in an affront to censorship both online and in the real world. Simultaneously censoring a common part of the human anatomy as both taboo and acceptable dependant on who's wearing it is contrary and ridiculous. This exhibition objectively explores the diversity of nipples to question where the social discomfort lies, when in the end - all our nipples are the same. Have your nipple photographed anonymously Wednesdays and Sundays throughout the Festival.

FEAST FLYING THE RAINBOW FLAG

FLYING THE RAINBOW FLAG

We wrote to every Mayor and CEO in every municipal council in South Australia inviting them to show their support for LGBTIQ people and their families living in their community. We asked them to actively contribute to the health and well-being of the whole community by flying the rainbow flag for the duration of the Feast Festival, 21st Oct - 6th Nov 2016.

Flying the rainbow flag is a symbolic way in which councils can help celebrate the Festival state-wide, as well as publicly acknowledging their council's role in promoting and celebrating diversity. This year we are pleased to announce that we have 13 municipal councils participating! Feast also asked businesses in Rundle Mall, along Hindley Street, Grote Street, Gouger Street and Morphett Street to fly/display the rainbow flag too, with many joining the celebration of diversity during Feast Festival. The Playford City Council also flew the flag.

As of the end of August those councils who will fly the rainbow flag are here →

THANK YOU TO ALL MUNICIPAL COUNCILS AND BUSINESSES THAT SUPPORTED CELEBRATING DIVERSITY
IN 2016!

SO MUCH SO CLOSE IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA ♥

SOUTH Australia is bursting with culture, flavours, events and entertainment. Taste your way through our world-famous wine regions, soak up the sun at one of our picture-perfect metropolitan beaches, hit the city for dose of retail therapy or spend the night exploring our thriving boutique restaurant and bar scene.

There's a world of experiences right at your fingertips. Think outside the box and step into South Australia.

A smorgasbord of food and wine

Adelaide is a culinary playground with a smorgasbord of cuisines on offer. Gouger Street, Rundle Street and King William Road are home to some of our finest restaurants; here, locals plate-up delicacies from their family cookbooks while bars and pubs serve locally-made wine and beer from their own microbreweries.

Leigh Street, Peel Street and Ebenezer Place are small bar hotspots, with some of our coolest bars tucked away in basements, behind secret doors and down unmarked alleyways. Bar owners live and breathe boutique wines, spirits and cocktails: be adventurous and let us mix you up something special.

Australia's festival capital

In January, February and March, when nights are at their longest and balmiest, Adelaide enters party overdrive. In the space of a few months, our capital is host to the massive

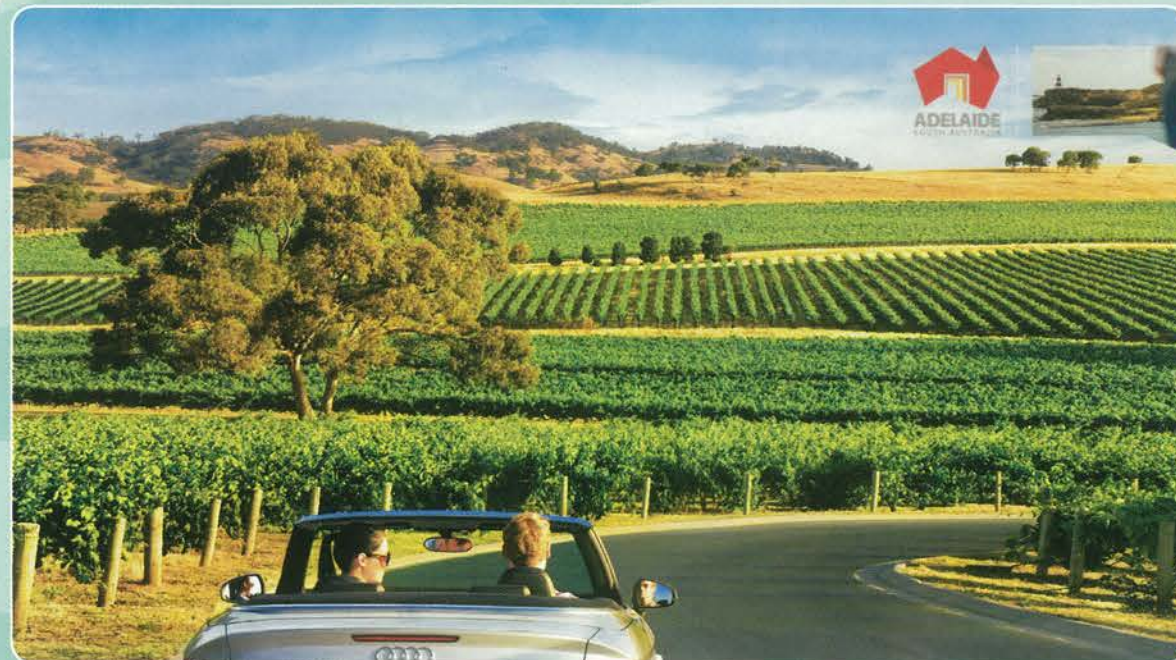

Adelaide Fringe Festival, Adelaide Festival of Arts, WOM-ADelaide, Tour Down Under and Clipsal 500 motor race. And it doesn't stop there. The Cabaret Festival and Guitar Festival warm up the (very mild) winter months, while OzAsia, film festivals and Feast festival kick-off in spring. Sun and surf at our city Beaches

With so many exceptional beaches, so close to the city, South Australia's sand and surf are virtually inescapable. From Brighton's meandering Esplanade to Glenelg's beach-side café culture, you're never too far from our pristine coast. Jump in the car, chuck on your bathers and within the hour you'll be sprawled on a towel in the sun at Semaphore or perfecting your freestyle at Moana.

Retail therapy

Adelaide is a shopper's delight. In the city and surrounding suburbs you'll find delightful department stores, a wonderland of unique boutiques, sprawling shopping malls and gorgeous heritage arcades. Rundle Mall is our first port of call. With over 700 retailers in one convenient pedestrian-friendly strip, it's Adelaide's busiest, most popular shopping destination. Discover boutiques selling local designs and higher-end clothing stores on Rundle Street, one-off, luxe homewares on King William Road, 250 retailers dotted along Norwood Parade and the crème de la crème of shopping experiences at luxe Burnside Village.

A Great Wine Capital of the World

Adelaide has been recognised as one of the Great Wine Capitals of the World – a network of nine major global cities that share a common feature: their internationally renowned wine regions. With 200 stunning cellar doors only a short drive away from the CBD and 18 world-renowned wine regions nearby, it's no surprise why. Sip South Australian history at the Barossa's Seppeltfield, taste unbeatable Sauvignon Blanc at the Adelaide Hills' Shaw & Smith or settle-in with a glass of rich red at McLaren Vale's Wirra Wirra.

Unique and Boutique Accommodation

Stay in luxury accommodation in Adelaide or overlooking breathtaking South Australian coastlines, outback vistas and bountiful vineyards. The Hilton Adelaide, Mayfair Hotel and Playford Hotel are top Adelaide picks, while Mount Lofty House, Kingsford Homestead and The Vineyard Retreat McLaren Vale will bring decadence to your South Australian stay.

If you're after something extra special, South Australia is home to three of Australia's most luxurious retreats: The Southern Ocean Lodge on Kangaroo Island, The Louise in the Barossa, and Arkaba in the Flinders Ranges. All three are members of Luxury Lodges of Australia and offer world-leading luxury accommodation in some of our most stunning regions.

The Barossa – Australia's wine capital

Forget your map and jump into the Barossa. At almost every turn you'll find five-star retreats, opulent self-contained accommodation, some of the world's best wineries and sumptuous food. Branch out and try something different. You might even discover your new favourite drop.

Enjoy a glass by the fire in winter or outdoors in the leafy shade during summer, spring and autumn. Due to its Mediterranean climate (warm summers and mild winters), the Barossa's Cabernets and Shiraz' are unbeatable.

Kangaroo Island – refresh your spirit

Refresh your spirit on Kangaroo Island, where wildlife reigns supreme and incredible scenery abounds. The further you float away from the mainland, the less life's every-day troubles seem to matter. As you step off the Sea-Link ferry in beautiful Penneshaw, it's almost impossible not to relax.

Kangaroo Island is known as nature's playground. Hit the road and you'll find out why. Wildlife abounds as friendly pubs, accommodation and restaurants give-way to teetering cliffs, green planes and impeccably clear waters. Discover unique wildlife, mouth-watering food and wine, breathtaking scenery and a laid-back lifestyle. It's just off the coast of South Australia, but feels like a world away. The Adelaide Hills – a picture-perfect escape

Put a day aside, leave your schedule behind and tour the Adelaide Hills. Wind your way down leafy lanes, stopping at villages dappled in light. Aldgate, Stirling, Oakbank, Birdwood, Crafers and Hahndorf are all around an hour's drive away from the city.

Stop at restaurants serving South Australia's best produce. Wineries beckon from leafy groves, eager for you to sample one of their cool-climate drops. The Hills are home to some of South Australia's best food, wine and scenery; it's all so easy to access.

With so much to discover in Adelaide and further afield, South Australia really is a one-stop destination for culture-rich city life, world-class wine, unbeatable gourmet produce and unique native wildlife. From the hills, to the city, to the sea – there's so much to discover, so close to home. To start your journey, visit southaustralia.com
