FEAST FESTIVAL ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS EVENT IS HELD ON THE TRADITIONAL LANDS OF THE KAURNA PEOPLE AND RESPECTS THEIR SPIRITUAL RELATIONSHIP WITH THEIR COUNTRY.

Welcome friends and feasters. Woot! Again, we will be celebrating diversity and inclusivity with an outstanding array of artistic endeavour. Whether it be queer comedy, cabaret, parties, literature, film, visual art, community and sporting events there is something wonderful for all to experience.

With over 100 artists and collaborators, across more than 30 locations and venues, our 21st birthday celebration offering is a back to community feast for all.

A sincere thank you to our ongoing supporters of our organisation. It is the thousands of volunteer hours, many corporate sponsors and our wonderful government partners that allow us to continue to provide such an important platform for local and emerging queer artists.

Having clearly solidified its position last year amongst Australia's great LGBTIQ arts and cultural organisations across Australia, the Feast Board made a conscious decision to focus our 21st year on local and community based programming.

Huge congratulations to all the artists and arts workers who feature in this years' program. A sincere thank you to the community leaders at the helm of the Feast Board and the small team of tireless staff.

Happy Feast Festival.

Joshua Rayner
Chair, Feast Festival

Welcome to Feast 2017.

I was there at the first Feast and I'm here producing Feast's 21st Festival.

Many of you remember Feast 1997. Many Feasts between then and now. Some of you weren't born in 1997. Welcome to you all.

21 is the Key to the door, a time to reflect on the past, be present and look to the future.

This year Feast will produce Opening Night Party and Picnic In The Park. All other events are registered. Feast's focus is promoting Feast 2017's brilliant array of queer arts and community.

I acknowledge the thousands of committed, skilled, creative Feast teams, performers, artists, board members, volunteers and audiences who have contributed to 21 Feasts. I remember artists and community leaders who are no longer with us. I am blessed to work with this years Feast team and Artistic and Community Advisory committees.

The Feast is served.

Margie Fischer
Producer, Feast Festival

Welcome to another amazing Feast Festival. This year marks 21 years of South Australia's very own Queer Arts and Cultural Festival and I am so very proud and honoured to be part of making it happen.

Thank you to all our volunteers including the Board of Feast. The Feast team I've worked alongside and our interns Lucy Bull and Tayla Martin have been essential to producing Feast 2017.

Thank you to Margie for producing a program of arts and cultural events that showcase and celebrate South Australian artists and queer communities.

The world is a different place from 1997 but as much now as then, the LGBTIQ communities still need you to show your support by attending as many Feast events as you can.

Finally, I give a big thank you, and virtual hug, as I thank State and Local Government funding bodies, Feast's returning and new sponsors and partners, benefactors, artists, community groups and audiences.

I look forward to welcoming you all to Feast 2017, celebrating 21 years.

Helen Sheldon
General Manager, Feast Festival

A MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Welcome to the 2017 Feast Festival, which I am confident will be an outstanding success and will attract visitors from all over the world.

Besides being a brilliant showcase of art, culture and performance, Feast plays a vital role in uniting the LGBTIQ community and highlighting its concerns and objectives.

The South Australian Government is a strong, consistent and practical supporter of Feast and of the LGBTIQ community generally.

In recent times, for example, we have established a relationships register, allowed same-sex couples to adopt children and access IVF and surrogacy, simplified the process of changing one's sex on a birth certificate, protected intersex status from discrimination and signed-up South Australia to the PrEP HIV-prevention trial.

Also, in December 2016, I delivered, in State Parliament, a formal apology to the LGBTIQ community for historical discrimination in my State.

I extend my very best wishes to all those attending Feast and all those seeking to make ours a better, fairer society.

Hon Jay Weatherill MP
Premier of South Australia

A MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER FOR THE ARTS

Welcome to the 2017 Feast Festival.

Adelaide is renowned as the Festival City and the State Government is proud to support Feast, as an important part of our Festival calendar.

Whether you're a local, or from interstate or overseas, I hope you soak up the incredibly creative and talented LGBTIQ artists that this festival has to offer.

We should all be incredibly proud of our city's growing global reputation as a centre for arts and creativity. This Festival provides great opportunities for artists from all corners of the industry to shine.

I encourage you to get out and to support these great artists and this wonderful Festival.

Jack Snelling MP
Minister for the Arts

A MESSAGE FROM THE LORD MAYOR OF ADELAIDE

I hope you're ready to party because The Feast Festival has received the 21st birthday key!

The City of Adelaide is once again proud to support and to celebrate with the LGBTIQ community this very special 21st Feast Festival as we reflect on the past, celebrate the present and look forward to a bright future.

Over the next two weeks you will have the great opportunity to experience, create and enjoy queer arts culture.

You will enjoy a unique festival experience with a socially diverse and inclusive community, welcoming of people from all walks of life.

The Feast Festival encourages every sector of the community to get involved. I hope you all enjoy everything on offer.

Martin Haese
Lord Mayor

A MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER FOR TOURISM

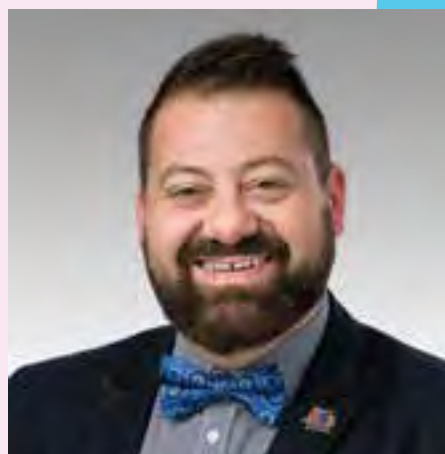

Welcome to Feast Festival - a celebration of pride and diversity. This year marks the 21st year of this great festival in South Australia and I congratulate everyone who has contributed to its ongoing success.

Last year crowds turned out in force for the Festival, with the street party featuring international icon Dannii Minogue. This year's program will ensure plenty of people will once again take part in South Australia's largest LGBTIQ event.

I encourage visitors to South Australia to explore our laneway bars and boutique restaurants featuring premium food and wine. If you venture out of the city, you will discover why South Australia was recognised by Lonely Planet as one of the top five regions in the world to visit in 2017. We were also awarded the title of the 'Best Event State' for the second year running at the prestigious Australian Event Awards.

The State Government has been a proud supporter of Feast Festival since 2000. We recognise the important contribution lesbian, gay, bisexual, intersex, transgender and queer people make to our community and I am sure everyone attending Feast Festival will have an incredible time.

Leon Bignell MP
Minister for Tourism
Minister for Recreation and Sport

A MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ARTS SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Happy Birthday Feast!

2017 is a turbulent year for the LGBTIQ community. While we have made significant advances in State legislation this year, other challenges to achieve equality remain both locally and nationally.

Marking this important anniversary for the Feast Festival underscores the continuing relevance for a festival which not only celebrates and advances queer culture locally, but promotes understanding in the entire community.

Feast's raison d'être is as important today as it was for its founders. So it is noteworthy that 2017 welcomes the return of one of the founding members of Feast, Margie Fischer as the Producer for the festival.

Feast also has three terrific ambassadors this year with AFWL star, Erin Phillips, genre-defying artist, Raymond Zada, and celebrated cabaret performer, Trevor Ashley supporting the birthday festivities. The high calibre of each ambassador is testament to Feast's ongoing mission to present artistic excellence for the LGBTIQ community.

The festival has over 100 events taking place across the city of Adelaide, actively engaging many local LGBTIQ venues and spaces, which makes a great support network for the community.

I encourage you to show your support this year and head out and see what great events and shows we have right here on our doorstep.

Peter Louca
Executive Director, Arts South Australia

A MESSAGE FROM OUR AMBASSADORS

I am honoured to be an Ambassador for Feasts 21st Festival. Feast celebrates the diversity of LGBTI arts and communities and I am thrilled to add sport to the celebration.

I am happy to embrace being a positive role model, from a sporting perspective of same-sex unions. I'll be spreading the word about Feast nationally and internationally and look forward to enjoying Feast 2017.

My wife Tracy and I look forward to seeing you all there!!

Erin Phillips
Adelaide FC Women's Co-Captain

I'm excited to be an Ambassador for Feast for its 21st Festival.

Like many of us as we grew up, our young festival was important to affirming who we were and expressing our art and culture.

Feast has had its ups and downs, now it's well and truly back on track.

In the midst of fighting for equality on many fronts, it's important to make time to sit back and appreciate some of the freedoms we, and our elders, have already won for LGBTIQ people. Feast is our opportunity to showcase our talents, tell our stories, and celebrate our diversity amongst ourselves and the broader community.

I encourage you to march, laugh, dance, learn, and make new friends throughout Feast. Be inspired, have some fun, and emerge re-energised and ready to stand up for what we know is right.

Raymond Zada
Visual Artist

Adelaide get ready, because I am on my way to you for the SA premiere of Diamonds Are For Trevor!

I love that I get to celebrate Feast's Birthday with you all - it is a testament to your incredible community that this wonderful festival continues in such fabulous style year after year.

I'm already looking forward to experiencing all that Adelaide and South Australia has on offer - there always seems to be something to enjoy... Especially the wine.

Party safely, Feasters, and I will see you in the coming months.

Love,

Trevor Ashley
Cabaret Artist

A MESSAGE OF CHANGE FROM THE CHAIR OF FEAST FESTIVAL

Having served as chair for four festivals, I have seen the best in our community come together to celebrate, to lead, to activate, to challenge, to love and to create.

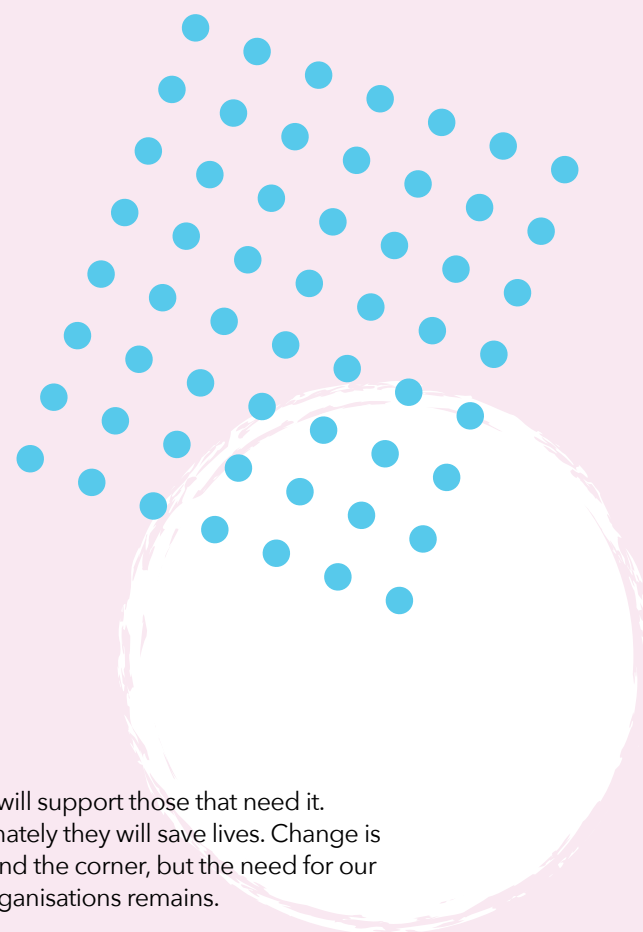

At this moment, where we find ourselves at the heart of a national debate on our rights and our love, I share the import of LGBTIQ organisations to those that don't necessarily share the privileges many of us do. Our Q organisations are beacons of hope, places of safety, bastions of rights and often the only places for young or newly identifying LGBTIQ people.

The thought that over the coming months millions of Australian lounge rooms and dinner tables, work spaces and pubs will be discussing the validity or otherwise of our relationships really hurts. Even if you're not hurting, people you know are. I ask of you, as an individual, regardless of whether you have needed them in the past, to reach out to your Q organisations now and after the marriage equality survey and/or vote, as it is those Q organisations that will support those that need it. Ultimately they will save lives. Change is around the corner, but the need for our Q organisations remains.

With our permanent home at Raj House, Australia's first Queer Arts and Cultural Hub, Feast has been able to provide year-round activities and support for local queer artists. From month-long exhibitions, community events, parties, product launches, safe spaces and creative collaborations, Raj House has expanded the vision of a safe and creative platform for young and emerging queer artists. Check out the website www.rajhouse.com.au and see how you can interact and support this wonderful opportunity.

The Feast Board will soon be undergoing significant revitalisation. I encourage all patrons of Feast Festival to check in regularly with the activities of Feast through our website and Hello Feasters e-newsletter.

FLYING THE RAINBOW FLAG

Feast invited every Mayor and CEO of each municipal council in South Australia to show their support for LGBTIQ people and their families living in their community by flying the rainbow flag for the duration of the Feast Festival, 11th Nov – 26th Nov 2017.

This initiative actively contributes to the health and well-being of the whole community and is a symbolic way in which councils can help celebrate the Festival state-wide, as well as publicly acknowledging their council's role in promoting and celebrating diversity.

This year we are pleased to announce that we have 18 municipal councils participating, which is more than previous years since the initiative began! Feast also asked many local businesses to fly/display the rainbow flag, with many joining the celebration of diversity during the Festival.

As of the end of August those councils who will fly the rainbow flag are:

Thank you to all municipal councils and businesses that support celebrating diversity in 2017!

IRON LADY

Rebecca Conroy's Iron Lady is a performative research project and comedic intervention by an artist armed with an ironing board.

The 'Iron Lady' is a weaponised body that makes explicit the invisible labour of women that drives the economy. As she attempts to conceal her intentions within a deceptively humble laundry service, she performs her trade as part espionage, part sex work and part domestic servitude.
